209 Application of Act to civilians.

- (1) Subject to the modifications hereinafter specified, where any body of the regular forces is on active service, Part II of this Act shall apply to any person who is employed in the service of that body of the forces or any part or member thereof, or accompanies the said body or any part thereof, and is not subject to military law, [^{F6}the ^{M3}Naval Discipline Act 1957], or air-force law apart from this section or any corresponding provisions of that Act or the ^{M4}Air Force Act 1955, as the said Part II applies to persons subject to military law.
- (2) Subject to the modifications hereinafter specified, Part II of this Act shall at all times apply to a person of any description specified in the Fifth Schedule to this Act who is within the limits of the command of any officer commanding a body of the regular forces outside the United Kingdom, and is not subject to military law, [^{F6}the ^{M5}Naval Discipline Act 1957], or air-force law apart from this section or any corresponding provisions of that Act or the ^{M6}Air Force Act 1955, as the said Part II applies to persons subject to military law:

Provided that none of the provisions contained in sections twenty-four to sixty-nine of this Act shall apply to a person by virtue only of this subsection [^{F7}except section 29, sections 35 and 36, sections 55 to 57, and section 68 so far as it relates to those sections].

- (3) The said modifications are the following:
 - [^{F8}(a) on a trial—
 - (i) a court-martial may award the punishments specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (h) of section 71(1) above, except that section 71(5)(a) above shall not apply to the amount of a fine;
 - (ii) a Standing Civilian Court established under the ^{M7}Armed Forces Act 1976 may award any punishment authorised for such courts by section 8 of that Act; and
 - (iii) a court-martial or Standing Civilian Court may make any order authorised by Schedule 5A below;
 - (aa) any such order shall be treated as a punishment for the purposes of this Act;
 - (ab) paragraph 15 of Schedule 5A below shall have effect in substitution for the words in section 71(1) above from “and references in this Act” to the end;]

- (b) the punishment which may be awarded where a charge is dealt with summarily shall, in the case of any offence, be a fine not exceeding [^{F9}£100], but no other punishment;
 - (c) the following provision shall have effect in substitution for subsections (2) to (4) of section seventy-four, that is to say that a person may be arrested by a provost officer, by any warrant officer or non-commissioned officer legally exercising authority under a provost officer or on his behalf, or by order of any officer of the regular forces;
 - (d) where a charge is being dealt with summarily and it [^{F10}is considered] that the accused is guilty, a finding shall not be recorded until after the accused has been afforded an opportunity of electing to be tried by court-martial, and if the accused so elects [^{F11}and does not subsequently in accordance with Rules of Procedure withdraw his election] a finding shall not be recorded but such steps shall be taken with a view to the charge being tried by court-martial as may be prescribed by Rules of Procedure;
 - (e) the provisions of this Act relating to the investigation of, and summary dealing with, offences shall save as otherwise expressly provided apply as they apply to officers and warrant officers;
 - (f) for the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to the investigation of offences, the commanding officer shall be such officer as may be determined by or under regulations of [^{F12}the Defence Council] made for the purposes of this section;
- [^{F13}(fa) a court-martial for the trial of any such person as is mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) above may include in place of the corresponding number of officers—
- (i) if it is a general court-martial constituted under section 87 above, not more than two persons who are in the service of the Crown and are persons such as are mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) above, and
 - (ii) if it is a district court-martial constituted under section 88 above, not more than one person who is in the service of the Crown and is himself a person such as is mentioned in either of those subsections,
- but a person who is a member of a court-martial by virtue of this paragraph shall not be appointed the president of the court-martial;]
- (fb)
- [^{F14}(g) for references in sections one hundred and thirty-one and one hundred and thirty-two of this Act to being, continuing, or ceasing to be subject to military law there shall be substituted references to being, continuing to be or ceasing to be in such circumstances that the said Part II applies, and subsection (3) of the said section one hundred and thirty-one shall not apply.
- [^{F15}(3A) For the purposes of paragraph (g) of subsection (3) of this section a person shall be deemed not to have ceased to be in such circumstances as are mentioned in that paragraph if he has so ceased by reason only of one or both of the following, namely—
- (a) the fact that he has ceased to be within the limits of a command within whose limits he continues to have his ordinary residence or to serve or to be employed;
 - (b) the fact that there has been an interruption of his residence with a family of persons whose place of residence continues to be his home.]

- (a) section 75(2) above shall have effect as if references to the assembling of a court-martial for a person's trial included references to his being brought before a Standing Civilian Court;
- (b) section 103(1) above shall have effect—
 - (i) as if the words “with respect to the hearing by courts-martial of appeals pursuant to paragraph 18 of Schedule 3 to the ^{M9} Armed Forces Act 1976 against findings and sentences of Standing Civilian Courts established under that Act” were inserted after the word “authorities”; and
 - (ii) as if the words “and may prescribe modifications of sections 76, 77, 79 and 80 above in relation to charges which may be tried by Standing Civilian Courts and which are brought against persons whom such courts may try” were added at the end; and
- (c) subsection (3) above shall have effect in relation to charges which may be tried by Standing Civilian Courts and which are brought against persons whom such courts may try, but without prejudice to its effect in relation to other charges, as if the following paragraph were substituted for paragraph (e):—
 - “(e) sections 76, 77, 79 and 80 above shall apply as they apply to officers and warrant officers, subject to such modifications consequential on the establishment of Standing Civilian Courts as may be prescribed by Rules of Procedure and by any order under paragraph 12 of Schedule 3 of the Armed Forces Act 1976;”]

[^{F17}(4) A fine awarded against any person by virtue of this section by a court-martial, a Standing Civilian Court or the appropriate superior authority, and a sum which an order under paragraph 11 of Schedule 5A below requires any person to pay shall be recoverable, in the United Kingdom or any colony, as a debt due to Her Majesty.

(4A) The registration of a financial penalty enforcement order under section 133A above shall not affect the power of recovery in a colony conferred by subsection (4) above.

(4B) Section 199 above shall apply to persons such as are mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) above, as it applies to persons subject to military law.]

[^{F18}(5) This section does not apply to any person to whom section 208A above applies.]

211 Application of Act to reserve and auxiliary forces.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, references in Parts II to V of this Act to the regular forces shall include references to the following persons, that is to say—

- (a) officers of any reserve of officers while subject to military law, and officers who have retired (within the meaning of any Royal Warrant) but are for the time being subject to military law, and
- (b) officers holding commissions in the Territorial Army while the part of the Territorial Army to which they belong is embodied or while they are called out for home defence service or are undergoing training, and
- (c) warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the army reserve and the Territorial Army while subject to military law; and references to officers, warrant officers, non-commissioned officers or soldiers, or to members or a body, of the regular forces or to illegal absence from those forces shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Subsections (1), (5) and (6) of section seventeen of this Act shall apply to warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the army reserve and the Territorial Army as they apply to warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers of the regular forces.

^{F24}(4) ^{F25}, sections one hundred and fifty to one hundred and fifty-three of this Act and, except in so far as they may be applied by regulations made under [^{F26}the ^{M11}Reserve Forces Act 1980], the provisions of Part II of this Act relating to the award of stoppages and the provisions of sections one hundred and forty-four to one hundred and forty-nine of this Act, shall not apply—

- (a) to officers of any reserve of officers who are not in actual service,
- (b) to warrant officers, non-commissioned officers or men of the army reserve except when called out on permanent service, or
- (c) to officers, warrant officers, non-commissioned officers or men of the Territorial Army except when the part of the Territorial Army to which they belong is embodied or they are called out for home defence service.

(5) In the last foregoing subsection the expression “actual service”, in relation to an officer of any reserve of officers, means that he is serving (otherwise than when undergoing training) with a body of the regular forces, or of the army reserve when called out on permanent service, or with [^{F27}members of the territorial and army volunteer reserve who are serving in pursuance of [^{F28}section 10(1) or section 11(1) of the ^{M12}Reserve Forces Act 1980]] or called out for home defence service.

(6) The provisions of sections one hundred and eighty-two and one hundred and eighty-three of this Act shall not apply at any time to officers holding commissions in the Territorial Army or to warrant officers, non-commissioned officers or men of the Territorial Army; and the provisions of the said section one hundred and eighty-three shall not apply to a warrant officer, non-commissioned officer or man of the army reserve except when he is called out on permanent service.

- (7) In the case of a non-commissioned officer or man of the Territorial Army found guilty of an offence by a court-martial or his commanding officer, Part II of this Act shall apply as if in the scale set out in [F29 section 71(1) there were inserted immediately before paragraph (h)] the following paragraph—

Territorial Army,

and as if the punishments specified in subsection (3) of section seventy-eight of this Act included dismissal from the Territorial Army:

Provided that if the commanding officer awards such dismissal he shall not award any other punishment.

- (8) An officer of any reserve of officers, an officer holding a commission in the Territorial Army, or a warrant officer, non-commissioned officer or man of the army reserve or the Territorial Army may be attached temporarily to any of Her Majesty’s naval or air forces whether or not he is subject to military law, but if not subject thereto shall not be so attached except with his consent.

222 Provisions as to summary fines in Colonies.

In the application of this Act to any colony, there shall, if the law of the colony so provides, be substituted for the amount of any fine specified in this Act, being a fine which may be imposed on summary conviction, such amount as may be provided by that law; and it shall be competent for the law of any colony to declare what amount of the local currency is to be treated for the purposes of this Act as equivalent to any amount of money specified in this Act.

223 Execution of orders, instruments, etc.

Save as expressly provided by any rules or regulations under this Act, any order or determination required or authorised to be made under this Act by any military, naval or air-force officer or authority may be signified under the hand of any officer authorised in that behalf; and any instrument signifying such an order or determination and purporting to be signed by an officer stated therein to be so authorised shall unless the contrary is proved be deemed to be signed by an officer so authorised.

224 Provisions as to active service.

- (1) In this Act the expression “on active service”, in relation to a force, means that it is engaged in operations against an enemy or ^{F54}is engaged elsewhere than in the United Kingdom in operations for the protection of life or property] or (subject to the provisions of this section) is in military occupation of a foreign country, and in relation to a person means that he is serving in or with a force which is on active service.
- (2) Where any of Her Majesty’s military forces is serving outside the United Kingdom, and it appears to the appropriate authority that, by reason of the imminence of active service or of the recent existence of active service, it is necessary for the public service that the force should be deemed to be on active service, the appropriate authority may declare that for such period, not exceeding three months, beginning with the coming into force of the declaration as may be specified therein that force shall be deemed to be on active service.

- (3) Where it appears to the appropriate authority that it is necessary for the public service that the period specified in a declaration under the last foregoing subsection should be prolonged or, if previously prolonged under this subsection, should be further prolonged, the appropriate authority may declare that the said period shall be prolonged by such time, not exceeding three months, as may be specified in the declaration under this subsection.
- (4) If at any time while any force—
- (a) is on active service by reason only of being in military occupation of a foreign country; or
 - (b) is deemed to be on active service by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section,
- it appears to the appropriate authority that there is no necessity for the force to continue to be treated as being on active service, the appropriate authority may declare that as from the coming into operation of the declaration the force shall cease to be, or to be deemed to be, on active service.
- (5) Before any declaration is made under this section, the appropriate authority shall, unless satisfied that it is not possible to communicate with sufficient speed with the Secretary of State, obtain the consent of the Secretary of State to the declaration; and in any case where that consent has not been obtained before the making of a declaration under this section the appropriate authority shall report the making thereof to the Secretary of State with the utmost practicable speed.
- (6) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, direct that any declaration whereby any force is deemed to be, or to continue, on active service shall cease to have effect as from the coming into force of the direction; but any direction under this subsection shall be without prejudice to anything done by virtue of the declaration before the coming into force of the direction.
- (7) A declaration under this section shall have effect not only as respects the members of the force to which it relates but also as respects other persons the application to whom of any provisions of this Act depends on whether that force is on active service.
- (8) In this section the expression “the appropriate authority” means—
- (a)
 - ^{F55}(b) in relation to any force ^{F56}, the general officer or brigadier commanding the force, so however that where the force is under the command of a flag officer or air officer that officer shall be the appropriate authority.
- (9)
- ^{F57}(10) Any declaration or direction under this section shall come into operation on being published in general orders.
