

Teachers (Superannuation) Act 1956

1956 CHAPTER 53

PART I

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO ENGLAND AND WALES

Supplementary

24 Saving for National Insurance Act, 1946

The amendments made by this Part of this Act with respect to contributions and allowances under the principal Acts shall not affect the reductions made in those contributions and allowances by regulations made under subsection (4) of section sixty-nine of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and the power under that subsection to modify enactments shall extend to enactments contained in this Part of this Act.

25 Application of Statutory Instruments Act

Any power to make rules under this Part of this Act shall be exercisable by statutory instrument; and any statutory instrument containing such rules shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

26 Extent and interpretation of Part I

(1) This Part of this Act (including the Schedules to this Act) shall extend to England and Wales only.

(2) In this Part of this Act (including the said Schedules)—

" the Minister " means the Minister of Education;

" the principal Act " means the Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1925;

" the principal Acts " means the Teachers (Superannuation) Acts, 1918 to 1946 ;

" teacher " includes any person to whom the principal Acts apply as if he were a teacher ;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

" the teachers' superannuation account " means the account required to be kept under section fifteen of the principal Act;
and other expressions have the same meanings, and shall be construed in the same manner, as in the principal Act.

- (3) References in this Part of this Act to any enactment shall be construed as references to that enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment including this Act.
