[<sup>F128</sup> Receipt and audit of accounts of charities.

- (1) Statements of account giving the prescribed information about the affairs of a charity shall be transmitted to the Commissioners by the charity trustees on request; and, in the case of a charity having a permanent endowment, such a statement relating to the permanent endowment shall be transmitted yearly without any request, unless the charity is excepted by order or regulations.
- (2) Any statement of account transmitted to the Commissioners in pursuance of subsection (1) above shall be kept by them for such period as they think fit; and during that period it shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.
- (3) The Commissioners may by order require that the condition and accounts of a charity for such period as they think fit shall be investigated and audited by an auditor appointed by them, [<sup>F13</sup>being a person eligible for appointment as company auditor under section 25 of the Companies Act 1989].
- (4) An auditor acting under subsection (3) above—
  - (a) shall have a right of access to all books, accounts and documents relating to the charity which are in the possession or control of the charity trustees or to which the charity trustees have access;
  - (b) shall be entitled to require from any charity trustee, past or present, and from any past or present officer or servant of the charity such information and explanation as he thinks necessary for the performance of his duties;
  - (c) shall at the conclusion or during the progress of the audit make such reports to the Commissioners about the audit or about the accounts or affairs of the charity as he thinks the case requires, and shall send a copy of any such report to the charity trustees.
- (5) The expenses of any audit under subsection (3) above, including the remuneration of the auditor, shall be paid by the Commissioners.
- (6) If any person—
  - (a) fails to transmit to the Commissioners any statement of account required by subsection (1) above; or
  - (b) fails to afford an auditor any facility to which he is entitled under subsection (4) above;

[<sup>F79</sup> 45 Construction of references to a “charity” or to particular classes of charity.

(1) In this Act, except in so far as the context otherwise requires,—

“charity” means any institution, corporate or not, which is established for charitable purposes and is subject to the control of the High Court in the exercise of the court’s jurisdiction with respect to charities;

“ecclesiastical charity” has the same meaning as in the <sup>M8</sup>Local Government Act 1894;

“exempt charity” means (subject to subsection (9) of section twenty-two of this Act) a charity comprised in the Second Schedule to this Act;

“local charity” means, in relation to any area, a charity established for purposes which are by their nature or by the trusts of the charity directed wholly or mainly to the benefit of that area or of part of it;

“parochial charity” means, in relation to any parish, a charity the benefits of which are, or the separate distribution of the benefits of which is, confined to inhabitants of the parish, or of a single ancient ecclesiastical parish which included that parish or part of it, or of an area consisting of that parish with not more than four neighbouring parishes.

(2) The expression “charity” is not in this Act applicable—

- (a) to any ecclesiastical corporation (that is to say, any corporation in the Church of England, whether sole or aggregate, which is established for spiritual purposes) in respect of the corporate property of the corporation, except to a corporation aggregate having some purposes which are not ecclesiastical in respect of its corporate property held for those purposes; or

[<sup>F80</sup>(aa) to any Diocesan Board of Finance within the meaning of the Endowments and Glebe Measure 1976 for any diocese in respect of the diocesan glebe land of that diocese within the meaning of that Measure; or]

Status: Point in time view as at 22/07/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Charities Act 1960 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) to any trust of property for purposes for which the property has been consecrated.
- (3) <sup>F81</sup> . . . a charity shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have a permanent endowment unless all property held for the purposes of the charity may be expended for those purposes without distinction between capital and income, and in this Act “permanent endowment” means, in relation to any charity, property held subject to a restriction on its being [<sup>F82</sup>expended for the purposes of the charity].
- (4) References in this Act to a charity [<sup>F83</sup>whose income from all sources does not in aggregate amount to more than a specified amount shall be construed—
- (i) by reference to the gross revenues of the charity, or
  - (ii) if the Commissioners so determine, by reference to the amount which they estimate to be the likely amount of those revenues, but without (in either case)] bringing into account anything for the yearly value of land occupied by the charity apart from the pecuniary income (if any) received from that land; and any question as to the application of any such reference to a charity shall be determined by the Commissioners, whose decision shall be final.
- (5) The Commissioners may direct that for all or any of the purposes of this Act an institution established for any special purposes of or in connection with a charity (being charitable purposes) shall be treated as forming part of that charity or as forming a distinct charity.
- (6) Any reference in this Act to a charity which is excepted by order or regulations shall be construed as referring to a charity which is for the time being permanently or temporarily excepted by order of the Commissioners, or is of a description permanently or temporarily excepted by regulations, and which complies with any conditions of the exception; and any order or regulation made for this purpose may limit any exception so that a charity may be excepted in respect of some matters and not in respect of others.]
