

Administration of Justice Act 1960

1960 CHAPTER 65 8 and 9 Eliz 2

Appeal to House of Lords in Criminal Cases

[^{F1}1] Right of appeal.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an appeal shall lie to the House of Lords, at the instance of the defendant or the prosecutor,—
 - (a) from any decision of [^{F2}the High Court] in a criminal cause or matter;
 - ^{F3}(b)
- (2) No appeal shall lie under this section except with the leave of the court below or of the House of Lords; and such leave shall not be granted unless it is certified by the court below that a point of law of general public importance is involved in the decision and it appears to that court or to the House of Lords, as the case may be, that the point is one which ought to be considered by that House.
- (3) Section five of the ^{M1} Appellate Jurisdiction Act 1876 (which regulates the composition of the House of Lords for the hearing and determination of appeals) shall apply to the hearing and determination of an appeal or application for leave to appeal under this section as it applies to the hearing and determination of an appeal under that Act; and any order of that House which provides for the hearing of such applications by a committee constituted in accordance with the said section five may direct that the decision of that committee shall be taken on behalf of the House.
- (4) For the purpose of disposing of an appeal under this section the House of Lords may exercise any powers of the court below or may remit the case to that court.
- (5) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, “leave to appeal” means leave to appeal to the House of Lords under this section.]

(b) an order that the defendant be released without bail.]

^{F20}(1A) [The court may make an order under subsection (1)(b) only if it thinks that it is in the interests of justice that the defendant should not be liable to be detained as a result of the decision of the Supreme Court on the appeal.]

(2) ^{F21}

(3) An order under [^{F22}subsection (1)(a)] of this section shall (unless the appeal has previously been disposed of) cease to have effect at the expiration of the period for which the defendant would have been liable to be detained but for the decision of the court below.

(4) Any order made under [^{F23}the said subsection (1)(a)] for the detention of a defendant who, but for the decision of the court below, would be liable to be detained in pursuance of an order or direction under [^{F24}Part III of the Mental Health Act 1983 (other than under section 35, 36, or 38)] , shall be an order authorising his continued detention in pursuance of the order or direction under [^{F24}the said Part III] , and the provisions of the said Act with respect to persons so liable (including provisions as to the renewal of authority for detention and the removal or discharge of patients) shall apply accordingly.

^{F25}(4A) [Where an order is made under [^{F26} the said subsection (1)(a)] in the case of a defendant who, but for the decision of the court below, would be liable to be detained in pursuance of an interim hospital order under [^{F27}section 38 of the Mental Health Act 1983], the order may, if the court thinks fit, be one authorising his continued detention in a hospital or mental nursing home and in that event—

- (a) subsection (3) of this section shall not apply to the order;
- (b) [^{F27}Part III of the said Act of 1983] shall apply as if he had been ordered under this section to be detained in custody so long as any appeal under section 1 of this Act is pending and were detained in pursuance of a transfer direction together with a restriction direction; and
- (c) if the defendant is detained by virtue of this subsection and the appeal by the prosecutor succeeds, subsection (2) of [^{F27}the said section 38] (power of court to make hospital order in the absence of an offender who is subject to an interim hospital order) shall apply as if the defendant were still subject to an interim hospital order.]

^{F28}(5) The defendant shall not be liable to be detained again as a result of the decision of the Supreme Court on the appeal if—

- (a) the court has made an order under subsection (1)(b), or
- (b) the court has made an order under subsection (1)(a) but the order has ceased to have effect by virtue of subsection (3) or the defendant has been released or discharged by virtue of subsection (4) or (4A).]

[^{F46}13 Appeal in cases of contempt of court.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an appeal shall lie under this section from any order or decision of a court in the exercise of jurisdiction to punish for contempt of court (including criminal contempt); and in relation to any such order or decision the provisions of this section shall have effect in substitution for any other enactment relating to appeals in civil or criminal proceedings.
- (2) An appeal under this section shall lie in any case at the instance of the defendant and, in the case of an application for committal or attachment, at the instance of the applicant; and the appeal shall lie—
- (a) from an order or decision of any inferior court not referred to in the next following paragraph, to ^{F47} . . . the High Court;
 - (b) from an order or decision of a county court or any other inferior court from which appeals generally lie to the Court of Appeal, and from an order or [^{F48}decision (other than a decision on an appeal under this section) of a single] judge of the High Court, or of any court having the powers of the High Court or of a judge of that court, to the Court of Appeal;
- [from an order or decision of the Crown Court to the Court of Appeal].

^{F49}(bb)

(c) [^{F50}from a decision of a single judge of the High Court on an appeal under this section,]from an order or decision of a Divisional Court or the Court of Appeal (including a decision of either of those courts on an appeal under this section), [^{F51}and from an order or decision (except one made in Scotland or Northern Ireland) of the Court Martial Appeal Court], to the House of Lords.

(3) The court to which an appeal is brought under this section may reverse or vary the order or decision of the court below, and make such other order as may be just; and without prejudice to the inherent powers of any court referred to in subsection (2) of this section, provision may be made by [^{F52}rules of court] [^{F52}rules made under section seven of the ^{M3} Northern Ireland Act 1962] for authorising the release on bail of an appellant under this section.

(4) Subsections (2) to (4) of section one and section two of this Act shall apply to an appeal to the House of Lords under this section as they apply to an appeal to that House under the said section one, except that so much of the said subsection (2) as restricts the grant of leave to appeal shall apply only where the decision of the court below is a decision on appeal to that court under this section.

(5) In this section “ court ” includes any tribunal or person having power to punish for contempt; and references in this section to an order or decision of a court in the exercise of jurisdiction to punish for contempt of court include references—

(a) to an order or decision of the High Court [^{F53}the Crown Court] or a county court under any enactment enabling that court to deal with an offence as if it were contempt of court;

(b) to an order or decision of a county court, or of any court having the powers of a county court, under [^{F54}section 14, 92 or 118 of the County Courts Act 1984];

(c) to an order or decision of a magistrates’ court under [^{F55}subsection (3) of section 63 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980] ,

^{F56}(d) [to an order or decision (except one made in Scotland or Northern Ireland) of the Court Martial, the Summary Appeal Court or the Service Civilian Court under section 309 of the Armed Forces Act 2006,] but do not include references to orders under section five of the ^{M4} Debtors Act 1869, or under any provision of [^{F55} the Magistrates’ Court Act 1980] , or the ^{M5} County Courts Act [^{F57} 1984] , except those referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection and except [^{F58} sections 38 and 142] of the last mentioned Act so far as those sections confer jurisdiction in respect of contempt of court.

(6) This section does not apply to a conviction or sentence in respect of which an appeal lies under [^{F59} Part I of the ^{M6} Criminal Appeal Act 1968, or to a decision of the criminal division of the Court of Appeal under that Part of that Act; . . .] [^{F60}
