

Northern Ireland Land Act 1925

1925 CHAPTER 34

PART I

FINANCE

7 Power to make rules

The power of making rules conferred on the Treasury by the Land Purchase Acts shall extend to the making of rules for carrying the financial provisions of this Act into effect, and for adapting to the requirements of this Act such provisions of the Land Purchase Acts or any other enactment passed prior to this Act as relate to land purchase finance.