

National Library of Scotland Act 1925

1925 CHAPTER 73 15 and 16 Geo 5

U.K.

An Act to establish a National Library in Scotland on the foundation of the Library gifted for that purpose by the Faculty of Advocates, and for purposes connected therewith. [7th August 1925]

1 Establishment of Library and constitution of Board of Trustees. U.K.

- (1) There shall be established and founded in Scotland a library with the name of the National Library of Scotland (in this Act referred to as “the Library”), and for the purpose of managing the Library and for the other purposes of this Act there shall be constituted a Board of Trustees (in this Act referred to as “the Board”), which shall be a body corporate by the name of “The Trustees of the National Library of Scotland,” with perpetual succession and a common seal, and power to sue and be sued, and to acquire and hold property for the purposes of the Library and of this Act. Service on the Board of all legal processes and notices shall be effected by service on their secretary.
- (2) The Board shall be constituted and their proceedings shall be determined in accordance with the provisions contained in the Schedule to this Act.
- (3) Any document purporting to be sealed with the seal of the Board or to be signed in the name of the Board by the chairman or the secretary of the Board or any person authorised by the Board to act in that behalf shall be receivable in evidence of the particulars stated in that document.

2 Powers and duties of Board. U.K.

The Board shall have the general management and control of the Library, and for that purpose may—

- (a) make, revoke or vary statutes for securing the due administration of the Library and preserving the books and other articles belonging thereto, including statutes regulating admission to the Library;
- (b) accept and receive for the purposes of the Library or any of them gifts or bequests of money, books or articles, or any other property;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Library of Scotland Act 1925 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F1}(c) dispose of any book or other article belonging to the Library where—
- (i) the disposal is of a duplicate book or duplicate article, and is by way of exchange, sale, or gift; or
 - (ii) the disposal is by way of sale, exchange or gift of a book or article which in the opinion of the Board is not required for the purposes of the Library; or
 - (iii) the disposal is of a book or article which the Board are satisfied has become useless for the purposes of the Library by reason of damage, physical deterioration, or infestation by destructive organisms]
- (d) with the consent of the [^{F2}Secretary of State] apply any money received by the Board on the exchange, sale, or disposal of any books or other articles and any moneys received by the Board from any other source and not subject to any specific direction or condition in the purchase of any book or other article which in the opinion of the Board it is desirable to acquire for the Library, or otherwise in defraying any of the expenses of the Board;
- (e) lend to any library, gallery, or museum under the control of a public authority or university in Great Britain or to any library, gallery, museum, or [^{F3}public exhibition], any duplicate book or other duplicate article belonging to the Library, or any book or other article, not being a duplicate, which can in the opinion of the Board be temporarily removed from the Library without injury to the interests of the students or of the public using the Library:
- Provided that, before making any such loan, the Board shall be satisfied that due provision is made for the safety and insurance of the book or other article lent, and for payment of all expenses in connection with the removal and return thereof or otherwise in connection with such loan;
- (f) subject as hereinafter provided, . . . ^{F4}appoint a librarian and other officers, assistants, or servants on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board think fit;
- (g) subject to the provisions of this Act, do such other things as appear to the Board to be necessary or expedient for furthering the interests and increasing the utility of the Library.

6 Board and Faculty to make joint regulations. U.K.

Regulations shall from time to time be made by the Board and the Faculty jointly—

- (a) for the purposes of the immediately preceding section of this Act; and
- (b) for facilitating the interchange of books and other articles between the Library and the Law Library of the Faculty; and
- (c) for facilitating the consultation and use on the one hand of books contained in the Library by the Judges of the Court of Session and the Faculty and on the other hand of books contained in the Faculty’s Law Library by the public; and
- (d) for regulating the borrowing of books from the Library by the existing members of the Faculty, who shall during their respective lifetimes enjoy with respect to the Library as nearly as may be the same right of borrowing books as the existing members of the Faculty enjoy with respect to the Advocates’ Library, subject to the payment by the Faculty to the Board of any expense incurred by the Board in consequence of the exercise of this right.

For the purpose of the foregoing provision, the expression “existing members of the Faculty” means all persons who at the date of the passing of this Act are members or intrants of the Faculty or who at that date enjoy by resolution of the Faculty the right of borrowing books from the Advocates’ Library.

7 Gifts and bequests to Library. U.K.

All books and other articles or money which after the passing of this Act are expressly given or bequeathed to the public or to the nation or to the Board for the purposes of the Library, or given or bequeathed by words showing an intention that the gift or bequest should enure to or for the benefit of the Library, or which are acquired by purchase or otherwise for the purposes of the Library, shall vest in the Board and be held by the Board for the purposes of the Library.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Library of Scotland Act 1925 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

8 Provisions with respect to existing premises. U.K.

With respect to the premises at present occupied by the Faculty in connection with the Advocates' Library or for the purpose of their professional use (in this section referred to as "the existing premises"), the following provisions shall have effect:—

- (1) As soon as conveniently may be after the appointed day, and pending the provision of premises for the permanent accommodation of the Library, the Faculty shall make available to the Commissioners of Works for the use of the Board, for the accommodation and the general purposes of the Library, such portion or portions of the existing premises as may not be reasonably required by the Faculty in connection with their Law Library (including future additions to that Library) or for the purpose of their professional use:
- (2) When premises for the permanent accommodation of the Library have been provided, the foregoing provision shall cease to have effect, and the existing premises, as the same may have been reconstructed, extended and adapted, shall be allocated between the Faculty and the Commissioners of Works for the use of the Board:
- (3) Any question as to the portion or portions of the existing premises to be made available as aforesaid, or as to the subsequent allocation of the existing premises shall be settled by agreement between the Faculty and the Commissioners of Works, or, if they fail to agree, by the Lord President of the Court of Session:
- (4) No rent or other consideration in money shall be payable to the Faculty in respect of the occupation by the Commissioners of Works for the use of the Board of the portion or portions of the existing premises made available by the Faculty as aforesaid: Provided that any expenses of the reconstruction, extension or adaptation of the said portion or portions for the use of the Board, or of the re-adaptation thereof, for the use of the Faculty, or of the repair, maintenance and insurance thereof during the occupation as aforesaid by the Commissioners of Works shall be borne by the Commissioners of Works who shall also pay all rates and taxes leviable on the said portion or portions with respect to the period of such occupation.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Functions of Commissioners of Works now exercisable by Secretary of State and property transferred to Secretary of State for the Environment: S.R. & O. 1945/991 (Rev. XV, p. 232: 1945 I, p. 1414), art. 1, S.I. 1962/1549 and 1970/1681, art. 2
