- 2 The new assented stock shall be issued by the said trustees as trustees against and secured by the "C" transport stock to which the said trustees become entitled under Part II of this Schedule as holders of Central London Railway ordinary, preferred ordinary and deferred ordinary stocks held by the said trustees upon the trusts of the old trust deed.
- 3 The new assented stock shall be of a similar character to the Guaranteed Assented Stocks constituted by the old trust deed but having its fixed rate of interest of four per cent. per annum guaranteed by [^{F4}the Executive] and not by the Underground Company.

Textual Amendments

F4 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 (c. 46), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport (London) Act 1969 (c. 35), Sch. 3 para. 1(1)(2)(g)

- 4 The interest received by the said trustees in respect of any year on the "C" transport stock to which they become so entitled shall be applied by the said trustees as follows:—
- (a) to the payment of interest for that year at the fixed rate of four per cent. per annum on the new assented stock;
 - (b) as to forty per cent. of the balance, to the payment of additional interest for that year on the new assented stock; and
 - (c) as to sixty per cent. of the balance, in repayment to [^{F5}the Executive].

Textual Amendments

F5 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 (c. 46), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport (London) Act 1969 (c. 35), Sch. 3 para. 1(1)(2)(g)

- 5 The holders of the new assented stock may at their option, to be exercised within six months from the date of the issue of that stock, surrender to the said trustees the whole or any part of the stock so issued to them and shall thereupon, subject as hereinafter provided, be entitled to receive in exchange from the said trustees £92 10s. of "C" transport stock held by the said trustees for every £100 of new assented stock so surrendered:
- Provided that, where the amount of transport stock to which a person would be so entitled comprises a fractional part of a pound, the said trustees shall, in lieu of transferring the amount, transfer to that person transport stock to the amount of the next even pound below the amount to which he would be so entitled and shall, as soon as may be after the expiration of the said six months, sell the amount of transport stock representing the fractional parts of transport stock not so transferred and shall distribute the net proceeds thereof in due proportions amongst the several holders who, but for this provision, would have been entitled to the fractional parts.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Passenger Transport Act 1933. (See end of Document for details)

- 6 If and so soon as the "C" transport stock held by the said trustees is redeemed by [^{F6}the Executive], the redemption moneys received by the said trustees in respect of that stock shall be distributed amongst the holders of the new assented stock when the redemption takes place pro rata to their holdings of that stock and the new assented stock shall thereupon be satisfied and extinguished.

FIFTH SCHEDULE

Sections 7, 81, 87 and 89.

DISTRIBUTION OF TRANSPORT STOCK ISSUED AS CONSIDERATION FOR TRANSFER OF UNDERTAKINGS TO THE BOARD AND THE WINDING UP OF CERTAIN COMPANIES WHOSE UNDERTAKINGS ARE TRANSFERRED

- 1 The provisions of this Schedule shall have effect with relation to the distribution of stock issued under this Act to the companies specified in Part II of the Third Schedule (which companies are in this Schedule referred to as "the Underground principal companies") and to the company owning the Metropolitan Undertaking (which company is, in this Schedule referred to as "the Metropolitan Company") amongst the holders of the various classes of stock (which expression in this Schedule includes debenture stock and shares and other securities) of those companies, and with relation to the distribution of the remaining assets of, and the winding up and dissolution of the companies specified in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Act other than the South Metropolitan Electric Tramways and Lighting Company, Limited (which companies are in this schedule referred to as "the Underground Companies") and of the Metropolitan Company.
- (2) Each of the Underground Companies, not being a statutory company, shall be wound up voluntarily in accordance with the provisions of the ^{M1}Companies Act 1929, relating to members' voluntary winding up, save in so far as such provisions are varied by, or are inconsistent with the provisions of this Schedule.
- (3) The winding up of each company which is directed to be wound up by the last preceding paragraph shall—
- (a) commence on the appointed day without the passing of any special or other resolution by that company for winding up;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Passenger Transport Act 1933. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) be conducted by the directors of that company in office at the appointed day who shall be deemed joint liquidators for the purposes of the winding up with power to act by a majority of their number.
- (4) In the winding up of the Tramways (M.E.T.) Omnibus Company, Limited, the London General Omnibus Company, Limited, shall not be entitled in respect of its holding of the preference shares of that company to participate in the distribution of the transport stock to be issued to the Tramways (M.E.T.) Omnibus Company, Limited, under this Act or other the properties or assets of that company distributable amongst its members on the winding up thereof, neither shall the Board be entitled to participate in such distribution in respect of those preference shares.
- (5) (a) On a date as soon as may be after the appointed day, such date to be fixed by the directors of each of the Underground principal companies and of the Metropolitan Company (in this Schedule called “the distribution date”) every holder of stock (other than the Four per cent. Terminable Debenture Stock of the Metropolitan Company) in any of those companies shall deliver up to that company the certificates (which expression in this Schedule includes debentures, bonds or other documents of title) of the stock held by him, and on such delivery the directors of the company shall, subject as hereinafter provided, distribute or cause to be distributed to each such stockholder, in substitution for the stock of the company so held by him, transport stock of the amount and class to which he is entitled, in the case of stock of an Underground principal company, by virtue of Part II of the Third Schedule to this Act, and in the case of stock of the Metropolitan Company, by virtue of Part II of the Fourth Schedule to this Act, and pay to each such stockholder (being a holder of debenture stock) any interest accrued to the appointed day and unpaid on such debenture stock:
Provided that—
- (i) where the amount of transport stock to which a person would be so entitled comprises a fractional part of a pound the company distributing or causing to be distributed the transport stock shall, in lieu of distributing or causing to be distributed that amount, distribute or cause to be distributed to that person transport stock to the amount of the next even pound below the amount to which he would be so entitled, and the company shall sell, or cause to be sold, the amount of stock representing the fractional parts not so distributed and shall distribute, or cause to be distributed, the net proceeds thereof in due proportion amongst the several stockholders who, but for this provision, would have been entitled to the fractional parts; and
- (ii) the directors may dispense with the delivery of the certificate if the loss or destruction thereof is proved to their reasonable satisfaction.
- (b) The issue to any debenture stockholder of the transport stock to which he is so entitled and the payment to him of the interest, if any, accrued to the appointed day and unpaid on his debenture stock shall operate as a satisfaction and discharge of that debenture stock and of all the rights and claims of the holder in respect thereof.
- (6) Subject to the provisions of this Act the registers of members and transfer books of each of the Underground principal companies and of the Metropolitan Company shall be finally closed on such date previous to the distribution date as the directors of the company may determine, and notice of such closing shall be given by the company to the secretary of the London Stock Exchange, and also by advertisement in two London daily newspapers thirty days before the date on which such registers or books are to be closed, and after the date of closing such registers or books the company may refuse to register any transfer of any of the company’s stocks.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Passenger Transport Act 1933. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) [^{F8}The Executive] shall, if so required by any of the Underground principal companies or by the Metropolitan Company before the transport stock to be issued as consideration for the transfer to the Board of the undertaking of the company is issued to the company, instead of issuing to the company the whole of the transport stock to be so issued to it, issue the transport stock to such amounts and to such persons as the company may require, and the issue of transport stock in accordance with such requirements shall, to that extent, discharge [^{F8}the Executive] of its liability to issue transport stock to the company.
- (8) In the case of each of the Underground companies and of the Metropolitan Company any sums (in cash or liquid assets) retained by the company or repaid to the company by [^{F8}the Executive] under section eighty-two of this Act (not being sums which by that section are to be applied to the payment of interest on the debenture stocks of the company) shall (subject to the payment and discharge of any liability which under this Act is to continue as a liability of the company or is not otherwise provided for) be deemed to be profits of the company available for immediate distribution as dividend and shall be distributed accordingly in one or more distributions amongst the stockholders of the company (other than debenture stockholders) in accordance with their respective rights and (in the case of a company being a statutory company), notwithstanding anything in any special Act relating to the company prescribing the date at which and the period in respect of which dividends on any particular classes of stock of the company may be distributed:
 Provided that, if authorised so to do by a resolution of the company at a meeting convened for that purpose, whether held before or after the passing of this Act, the directors may out of any moneys so available for distribution amongst the stockholders of the company retain or pay any sums to any persons as compensation for loss of office or employment or in recognition of past services rendered to the company.
- (9) Where any of the companies to which this Schedule relates is unable after diligent inquiry to find the person to whom any transport stock is issuable or money is payable, or where any stock is issuable or money is payable to a person who, or whose committee cannot give effectual receipt for the same, the company may transfer the stock or pay the money, as nearly as may be, in manner provided for payment of securities or money into court by trustees under section sixty-three of the ^{M2}Trustee Act 1925 and that section shall apply with all necessary modifications to such stock and money.
- (10) When in the case of any company (being a statutory company) to which this Schedule relates the distribution of stock or money has been completed in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule, the company may apply to the Board of Trade, and the Board of Trade, if satisfied that the said conditions have been complied with, shall give a certificate to that effect, and upon publication of such certificate in the London Gazette the company shall be dissolved.
- (11) Any expenses incurred by the Board of Trade under the last preceding paragraph shall on demand be paid to the Board of Trade by [^{F8}the Executive].
- (12) The rights conferred by this Act on the holders of the various classes of stocks of any of the said companies, being a statutory company, shall be in substitution for the rights conferred on them in the event of the winding up of the company under the enactments relating to the company.

FOURTEENTH SCHEDULE

PROVISIONS AS TO DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION PAYABLE TO OFFICERS AND SERVANTS

- 1 Every person who claims to be entitled to be paid compensation under Part VII of this Act in respect of any direct pecuniary loss shall deliver to [^{F15}the Executive] a claim in writing, stating the direct pecuniary loss in respect of which he claims compensation, and setting out particulars as to the emoluments received by him from [^{F15}the Executive] or from the authority, company or person by whom he was or is employed in each year during the period of five years immediately preceding the date on which his office or post was abolished or was relinquished by him, or the date on which his direct pecuniary loss commenced.

Every such claim shall be accompanied by a statutory declaration that the claim so submitted is, according to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, a true statement.

Textual Amendments

- F15 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 \(c. 46\), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport \(London\) Act 1969 \(c. 35\), Sch. 3 para. 1\(1\)\(2\)\(g\)

- 2 On receipt of any such claim [^{F16}the Executive] shall forthwith take it into consideration and determine whether any and, if so, what compensation ought, in their opinion, to be granted to the claimant and shall inform him of their decision; and, if they fail to inform him of their decision within six months after his claim has been so delivered to them, the Minister may, on application made to him in that behalf by the claimant, direct them to do so within such time, not being less than one month, as may be specified in the direction.

Textual Amendments

- F16 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 \(c. 46\), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport \(London\) Act 1969 \(c. 35\), Sch. 3 para. 1\(1\)\(2\)\(g\)

- 3 If the claimant is aggrieved by the failure of [^{F17}the Executive] to inform him of their decision upon his claim within the time specified in any direction of the Minister, or by their refusal to grant compensation, or by the amount of the compensation granted, he may require the matter to be referred forthwith to the standing arbitrator, and the arbitrator shall consider the case and determine whether any, and if so what, compensation ought to be granted to the claimant.

Textual Amendments

- F17 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 \(c. 46\), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport \(London\) Act 1969 \(c. 35\), Sch. 3 para. 1\(1\)\(2\)\(g\)

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Passenger Transport Act 1933. (See end of Document for details)

- 4 For the purpose of determining whether compensation should be granted to any person under the provisions of this Schedule, and if so, the amount of that compensation, regard shall be had to—
- (a) the nature of his office or employment;
 - (b) the conditions upon which his appointment was made;
 - (c) the duration of his service;
 - (d) any additional emoluments which he acquires by virtue of this Act, or of anything done in pursuance or in consequence of this Act;
 - (e) the emoluments which he has, or might have, acquired by accepting other employment offered him by [^{F18}the Executive], or by the authority, company or person from whose service he was transferred to [^{F18}the Executive]; and
 - (f) all the other circumstances of his case:

Provided that in no case shall the compensation payable exceed the amount which under the Acts and Rules relating to Her Majesty's Civil Service and in force on the thirteenth day of August, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, would have been payable to a person on abolition of office.

Textual Amendments

F18 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 \(c. 46\), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport \(London\) Act 1969 \(c. 35\), Sch. 3 para. 1\(1\)\(2\)\(g\)

- 5 In the case of an officer or servant of a local authority, [^{F19}the Executive] or the arbitrator in computing the length of his service for the purposes of the award of compensation shall take into account all his service after he attained the age of eighteen years, whether under any local authority as defined in section three of the ^{M3}Local Government and other Officers' Superannuation Act 1922 or under any tramway company whose undertaking has, as a whole or in part, been acquired by a local authority by whom he has been or is employed.

- 7 In the case of an officer or servant of any other undertaking transferred in whole or in part to [^{F21}the Executive] by this Act (other than the Metropolitan undertaking) and in the case of any person who is deemed to be an existing officer or servant by virtue of section seventy-four of this Act, [^{F21}the Executive] or the arbitrator in computing the length of his service for the purposes of the award of compensation shall take into account all his service after the age of eighteen years, being continuous service whether with the undertaking or part of the undertaking, as the case may be, in whose service he was immediately before the appointed day or with any other passenger transport undertaking which has been acquired by, or absorbed in, that undertaking.

Textual Amendments

F21 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 \(c. 46\), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport \(London\) Act 1969 \(c. 35\), Sch. 3 para. 1\(1\)\(2\)\(g\)

- 8 If the appointment of an officer or servant is determined by his employer otherwise than at the expiration of a complete year of his service, the portion then expired of the current year of his service shall, if it exceeds six months, be treated as a complete year, and shall, if it does not exceed six months, be ignored.
- 9 The compensation payable to—
- (a) an officer or servant of a local authority who immediately before the appointed day held two or more posts under that authority and who devoted the whole of his time to the duties of those posts; or
 - (b) an officer or servant of an Underground undertaking who immediately before the appointed day held two or more posts under any one or more of the Underground undertakings and who devoted the whole of his time to the duties of those posts,
- shall not be reduced by reason of the fact that he has devoted only part of his time to each of those posts.
- 10 If any officer or servant was temporarily absent from his employment under any authority, company or person during the late war whilst serving in His Majesty's forces, or the forces of the allied or associated powers, either compulsorily or with the sanction of his employers, such period of temporary absence shall be reckoned as service under that authority, company or person:
Provided that if, after the armistice, he voluntarily extended his term of service in the forces, no period of service during that extension shall be reckoned.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Passenger Transport Act 1933. (See end of Document for details)

- 11 [F22The Executive] or the arbitrator may in their discretion and in consideration of the fact that any officer or servant was appointed to his office or post as a specially qualified person add any number of years, not, however, exceeding ten, to the number of years which the claimant would otherwise be entitled to reckon for the purpose of computing the compensation to which he would be entitled under the Acts and Rules referred to in paragraph 4 of this Schedule.

Textual Amendments

- F22 Words substituted by virtue of Transport Act 1962 \(c. 46\), Sch. 2 Pt. I and Transport \(London\) Act 1969 \(c. 35\), Sch. 3 para. 1\(1\)\(2\)\(g\)

- 12 Any compensation granted, whether by [F23the Executive] or by the arbitrator, shall be a specialty debt due to the claimant from [F23the Executive], and may be enforced accordingly in like manner as if [F23the Executive] had entered into a bond to pay it.
