

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936

1936 CHAPTER 52

Supplemental

13 Examiners

There may also be assigned for the purposes of this Act such one or more of the examiners appointed under Standing Orders as the Chairmen may direct. An examiner shall perform under this Act duties analogous to those he now performs under Standing Orders, and shall receive such remuneration for his services as the Treasury shall determine.