

Holidays with Pay Act 1938

1938 CHAPTER 70

4 Power of Minister to assist schemes for securing holidays with pay.

- (1) Where a scheme for securing holidays with pay for any workers in an industry or in a branch of an industry is, on the joint application of an organisation representing employers and an organisation representing workers in the industry or branch, approved by the Minister of Labour, the Minister may in accordance with arrangements made by him with the consent of the Treasury assist the administration of the scheme by attaching officers of the Ministry of Labour to help in the administration thereof and by such other means as he thinks fit.
- (2) The Minister of Labour may, in accordance with such arrangements as aforesaid, issue on behalf of employers to workers to whom any such scheme applies sums by way of holiday payments, but any arrangement making provision for the issue of any such sums shall also make provision for paying to the Minister any sums to be so issued by him and any expenses incurred by him which are attributable to the scheme.
- (3) Any expenses incurred by the Minister of Labour in connection with any such scheme as aforesaid shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.
