1947 CHAPTER 41 10 and 11 Geo 6

<sup>F1</sup><sup>F2</sup>26 Firemen's Pension Scheme.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order bring into operation a scheme, to be known as the Firemen's Pension Scheme, whereby provision is made, subject to the provisions of this section and of the Scheme, for the payment by fire authorities and such other authorities as may be specified in the Scheme of pensions, allowances and gratuities to persons employed as members of fire brigades maintained in pursuance of this Act who retire from such employment on or after the appointed day or die on or after the appointed day while so employed, and to their [<sup>F3</sup>surviving spouses, surviving civil partners,] children and dependants.
- (2) The Firemen's Pension Scheme (hereafter in this and the next following section referred to as "the Scheme") may include provision—
  - (a) for defining the classes of persons employed as aforesaid in respect of whose service awards, or awards of any class specified in the Scheme, may be made under the Scheme, and in particular for excluding in relation to any such awards or class of awards persons who are not wholly and permanently so employed or who are so employed on such ancillary duties as may be specified in the Scheme, and for treating, for all or any of the purposes of the Scheme, employment in Great Britain or elsewhere on duties connected with the provision of fire services, being employment (otherwise than as a member of a fire brigade maintained in pursuance of this Act) of such classes as may be specified in the Scheme, as if it were employment as a member of such a brigade;
    - <sup>F4</sup>(aa) [ where a person immediately before he undertakes service of a description specified in the First Schedule to the <sup>M1</sup>Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act 1951, or attends for hourly instruction as defined in section forty-two of that Act, either—
      - (i) is a member of a fire brigade maintained in pursuance of this Act, or

- (ii) is employed in employment on duties connected with the provision of fire services which is treated for the purposes of the Scheme as if it were employment as a member of such a fire brigade, for treating employment during the period of his service or instruction, and during such further period, if any, as may be specified in the Scheme, as employment as a member of such a fire brigade.]
- (b) for reckoning, for all or any of the purposes of the Scheme, such employment, whether before or after the appointed day (other than employment as a member of a fire brigade maintained in pursuance of this Act) as may be specified in the Scheme as if it were employment as a member of such a brigade, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as may be so specified and either as respects the whole of service in employment so specified or as respects such fraction thereof as may be so specified;
- (c) for the making by persons in respect of whose service awards may be made under the Scheme of such contributions as may be specified by the Scheme, and, in such circumstances as may be so specified, for the repayment of contributions so made or their application in such manner and for the benefit of such persons as may be so specified;
- (d) for substituting, for all or any of the purposes of the Scheme, the Secretary of State for a fire authority in relation to any [<sup>F5</sup>employment which is treated for the purposes of the Scheme as if it were employment as a member of a fire brigade maintained in pursuance of this Act];
- (e) for the making to a fire authority by the Secretary of State or another fire authority, or by any other authority by which a person has been employed in employment specified under paragraph (b) of this subsection or which has incurred any liability in respect of the payment of a pension in the event of a person's retirement from employment so specified of payments in respect of previous service (whether before or after the appointed day) on a person's entry on employment with the fire brigade maintained by the first-mentioned fire authority, and for the making to the Secretary of State by a fire authority or any such other authority as aforesaid of payments in respect of previous service (whether before or after the appointed day) on a person's entry on [<sup>F5</sup>employment which is treated for the purposes of the Scheme as if it were employment as a member of a fire brigade maintained in pursuance of this Act];
- (f) for the reimbursement of payments under the last foregoing paragraph out of any superannuation fund to which contributions have been made in respect of the previous service to which the payments related;
- (g) for the making, where a person enters on employment with a fire authority in a case where no payment falls to be made under paragraph (e) of this subsection, of payments in respect of previous service with that authority out of any superannuation fund to which contributions have been made in respect of the previous service;
- (h) for the conditions as to evidence or otherwise subject to which any award under the Scheme may be made, for the manner in which any question specified in the Scheme arising under the Scheme is to be determined, and for appeals from determinations of any such question;
- (i) for excluding or modifying, in the case of an injury in respect of which an award is made under the Scheme, being an injury sustained in the execution of duty in such circumstances as may be specified in the Scheme, any other right against the Crown or other authority in whose employment the injury occurred to compensation or damages in respect of the injury or the consequences thereof, so however that no provision made by virtue of this paragraph shall affect any right under the [<sup>F6</sup>enactments relating to <sup>F7</sup>... social security];

- (j) for such incidental and supplemental matters as appear to the Secretary of State expedient for the purposes of the Scheme, including provisions as to funds for defraying liabilities under the Scheme and provision for the like purposes as under the enactments in the <sup>M2</sup>Fire Brigade Pensions Act 1925, specified in the first column of the Third Schedule to this Act (which relate to the matters specified in the second column of that Schedule) was made in relation to awards under the said Act of 1925.

In this section the expression “employment” includes engagement in any service.

[ The Scheme may also include—

- <sup>F8</sup>(2A) (a) such provision for the payment of pensions, allowances and gratuities to persons employed as members of fire brigades maintained in pursuance of this Act who are dismissed from such employment, and to their [<sup>F9</sup>surviving spouses, surviving civil partners,] children and dependants, as will enable the Scheme to comply with the requirements set out in Schedule 16 to the <sup>M3</sup>Social Security Act 1973, and
- (b) such provision incidental or supplementary thereto as appears to the Secretary of State to be expedient.]

- (4) If a person obtains or attempts to obtain for himself or any other person—
  - (a) any award under the Scheme, or
  - (b) any sum in respect of the repayment or application of contributions made under the Scheme,

<sup>F11</sup>... by maiming or injuring himself, or causing himself to be maimed or injured, or otherwise producing disease or infirmity, <sup>F11</sup>..., he shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, and (without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (j) of subsection (2) of this section) the Scheme may authorise, in the case of a person who has been convicted of an offence under this subsection, the forfeiture, in whole or in part, of any award or sum so obtained.

- (5) The Scheme may be varied by a subsequent order of the Secretary of State under this section.

- (a) provide information in connection with the questions specified in subsection (2) below to a prescribed person; and
  - (b) require that person to pay a reasonable fee in respect of any administrative expenses incurred in providing that information.
- (2) The following are the questions mentioned in subsection (1) above—
- (a) whether an individual who has opted or transferred out has suffered loss as a result of a contravention which is actionable under section 62 of the <sup>M4</sup>Financial Services Act 1986 [<sup>F13</sup>or [<sup>F14</sup>section 138D] of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000] (actions for damages in respect of contravention of rules etc. made under the Act), and
  - (b) if so, what payment would need to be made in respect of that individual to the fire authority concerned to restore the position to what it would have been if that individual had not opted or transferred out.
- (3) Where—
- (a) an individual who has opted or transferred out becomes entitled to make contributions under the Scheme to a fire authority, or
  - (b) a payment is made to a fire authority in respect of such an individual for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above,
- the fire authority may require a prescribed person to pay a reasonable fee in respect of any administrative expenses incurred in connection with that entitlement or payment.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, an individual shall be taken to have opted or transferred out if—
- (a) for any period during which he is a member of a fire brigade maintained in pursuance of this Act, he does not make contributions under the Scheme but instead makes contributions to a personal pension scheme; or
  - (b) a transfer value is paid in respect of the individual by a fire authority to a personal pension scheme.
- (5) In this section—
- “personal pension scheme” has the meaning given by section 1 of the <sup>M5</sup>Pension Schemes Act 1993;
  - “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section;
  - “the Scheme” has the same meaning as in sections 26 and 27 of this Act.]]
