1949 CHAPTER 97 12 13 and 14 Geo 6

PART III

NATURE CONSERVATION

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Pt. III extended by Countryside Act 1968 \(c. 41, SIF 46:1\), s. 15(7)

[^{F1}15 Meaning of “nature reserve.”

- (1) In this Part, “nature reserve” means—
 - (a) land managed solely for a conservation purpose, or
 - (b) land managed not only for a conservation purpose but also for a recreational purpose, if the management of the land for the recreational purpose does not compromise its management for the conservation purpose.
- (2) Land is managed for a conservation purpose if it is managed for the purpose of—
 - (a) providing, under suitable conditions and control, special opportunities for the study of, and research into, matters relating to the fauna and flora of Great Britain and the physical conditions in which they live, and for the study of geological and physiographical features of special interest in the area, or
 - (b) preserving flora, fauna or geological or physiographical features of special interest in the area,or for both those purposes.
- (3) Land is managed for a recreational purpose if it is managed for the purpose of providing opportunities for the enjoyment of nature or for open-air recreation.]

16 [^{F9}Agreements for management of nature reserves in Scotland and Wales]

- (1) [^{F10}The Council or Scottish Natural Heritage] may enter into an agreement with every owner, lessee and occupier of any land, being land as to which it appears to [^{F11}the Council or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] expedient in the national interest that it should be managed as a nature reserve, for securing that it shall be so managed.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1949, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Any such agreement may impose such restrictions as may be expedient for the purposes of the agreement on the exercise of rights over the land by the persons who can be bound by the agreement.
- (3) Any such agreement—
- (a) may provide for the management of the land in such manner, the carrying out thereon of such work and the doing thereon of such other things as may be expedient for the purposes of the agreement;
 - (b) may provide for any of the matters mentioned in the last foregoing paragraph being carried out, or for the cost thereof being defrayed, either by the said owner or other persons, or by ^{F12}the Council or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] or partly in one way and partly in another;
 - (c) may contain such other provisions as to the making of payments by ^{F13}the Council or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] and in particular for the payment by them of compensation for the effect of the restrictions mentioned in the last foregoing subsection, as may be specified in the agreement.
- (4) Section two of the ^{M1}Forestry Act 1947 (which empowers tenants for life and other limited owners to enter into forestry dedication covenants) shall apply to any such agreement; and where section seventy-nine of the ^{M2}Law of Property Act 1925 (which provides that unless a contrary intention is expressed the burden of a covenant runs with the land) applies, subsections (2) and (3) of section one of the said Act of 1947 (which provide for enforcement against persons other than the covenantor) shall apply to any such restrictions as are mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, but with the substitution for references to the Forestry Commissioners of references to ^{F14}the Council].
- (5) The following provisions shall have effect in the application of this section to Scotland:
- (a) a limited owner of land shall have power to enter into agreements under this section relating to the land;
 - (b) the ^{M3}Trusts (Scotland) Act 1921, shall have effect as if among the powers conferred on trustees by section four thereof (which relates to the general powers of trustees) there were included a power to enter into agreements under this section relating to the trust estate or any part thereof;
 - (c) subsection (2) of section three of the ^{M4}Forestry Act 1947, shall apply to an agreement under this section to which an owner or limited owner of land or a trustee acting under the last foregoing paragraph is a party as it applies to a forestry dedication agreement, with the substitution for the reference to the Forestry Commissioners of a reference to ^{F15}Scottish Natural Heritage].
 - (d) the expression “owner” includes any person empowered under this subsection to enter into agreements relating to land;
 - (e) subsection (4) shall not apply.

20 Byelaws for protection of nature reserves.

- (1) [^{F31}the appropriate conservation body] may, as respects land which is being managed as a nature reserve under an agreement entered into with them or land held by them which is being managed as a nature reserve, make byelaws for the protection of the reserve:

Provided that byelaws under this section shall not have effect as respects any land in a reserve unless a declaration under the last foregoing section is in force declaring that the land is being managed as a nature reserve and notice of the declaration has been published in pursuance of that section.

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the last foregoing subsection, byelaws under this section—
- (a) may provide for prohibiting or restricting the entry into, or movement within, nature reserves of persons, vehicles, boats and animals;
 - (b) may prohibit or restrict the killing, taking, molesting or disturbance of living creatures of any description in a nature reserve, the taking, destruction or disturbance of eggs of any such creature, the taking of, or interference with, vegetation of any description in a nature reserve, or the doing of anything therein which will interfere with the soil or damage any object in the reserve;
 - (c) may prohibit or restrict the shooting of birds or of birds of any description within such area surrounding or adjoining a nature reserve (whether the area be of land or of sea) as appears to [^{F32}the appropriate conservation body] requisite for the protection of the reserve;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1949, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) may contain provisions prohibiting the depositing of rubbish and the leaving of litter in a nature reserve;
- (e) may prohibit or restrict, or provide for prohibiting or restricting, the lighting of fires in a nature reserve, or the doing of anything likely to cause a fire in a nature reserve;
- (f) may provide for the issue, on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the byelaws, of permits authorising entry into a nature reserve or the doing of anything therein which would otherwise be unlawful, whether under the byelaws or otherwise;
- (g) may be made so as to relate either to the whole or to any part of the reserve or, in the case of byelaws made under paragraph (c) of this subsection, of any such surrounding or adjoining area as is mentioned in that paragraph, and may make different provisions for different parts thereof:

Provided that byelaws under this section shall not interfere with the exercise by any person of a right vested in him as owner, lessee or occupier of land in a nature reserve, or in the case of such land in Scotland as limited owner thereof, or with the exercise of any public right of way or of any functions of statutory [^{F33}undertakers, of a river board or other drainage authority][^{F33}undertakers, or an internal drainage board] or a district board for a fishery district within the meaning of the ^{M5}Salmon Fisheries (Scotland) Act 1862, or of the Commissioners appointed under the ^{M6}Tweed Fisheries Act 1857. [^{F34}or with the running of a telecommunications code system or the exercise of any right conferred by or in accordance with the telecommunications code on the operator of any such system.]

- (3) Where the exercise of any right vested in a person, whether by reason of his being entitled to any interest in land or by virtue of a licence or agreement, is prevented or hindered by the coming into operation of byelaws under this section, he shall be entitled to receive from [^{F35}the appropriate conservation body] compensation in respect thereof.
