3 Compensation to tenant of an allotment garden for disturbance.

(1) Where a tenancy under which land let, whether before or after the passing of this Act, for use by the tenant as an allotment garden or to a local authority or association for the purpose of being sub-let for such use is terminated, as to the whole or any part of the land comprised in the tenancy—

- (a) by re-entry under paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of section one of the Allotments Act, 1922; or
- (b) where the landlord is himself a tenant, by the termination of his tenancy; or
- (c) where the landlord is a local authority who have let the land under section ten of the Allotments Act, 1922, by the termination of the right of occupation of the authority; the tenant shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be entitled, on quitting the land or that part thereof, as the case may be, to recover from the landlord compensation for the disturbance of an amount determined in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The amount of any compensation recoverable under this section shall be—

- (a) where the tenancy terminates as to the whole of the land, an amount equal to one year’s rent of the land at the rate at which rent was payable immediately before the termination of the tenancy;

Status: Point in time view as at 05/11/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Allotments Act 1950. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) where the tenancy terminates as to part of the land, an amount bearing to the amount mentioned in the foregoing paragraph the same proportion that the area of that part bears to the area of the whole of the land.
- (3) Compensation under this section shall be in addition to any compensation to which the tenant may be entitled under the ^{M2}Allotments Act, 1922.
- (4) Subsection (2) of section four of the Allotments Act, 1922 (which enables the tenant of an allotment garden to recover compensation from a mortgagee who deprives him of possession) shall apply to compensation under this section as it applies to compensation under that Act.

9 Restriction of obligations of local authorities to provide allotments.

The obligation under the Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1931, of the council of a borough, urban district or parish and of the parish meeting of a rural parish not having a parish council to provide allotments shall—

- (a) except in the case of the council of a borough or urban district the population whereof is, according to the last published census for the time being, ten thousand or upwards, be limited to the provision of allotment gardens; and
- (b) in the said excepted case, be limited to the provision of allotment gardens not exceeding twenty poles in extent.

10 Rents to be charged for allotments let by local authorities.

- (1) Land let by a council under the Allotments Acts, 1908 to 1931, for use as an allotment shall be let at such rent as a tenant may reasonably be expected to pay for the land if let for such use on the terms (other than terms as to rent) on which it is in fact let: Provided that land may be let by a council as aforesaid to a person at a less rent if the council are satisfied that there exist special circumstances affecting that person which render it proper for them to let the land to him at a less rent.
- (2) Not more than a quarter’s rent for land let by a council as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section shall be required to be paid in advance: Provided that this subsection shall not apply where the yearly rent is twenty-five shillings or less.
- (3) In this section the references to a council shall be construed as including references to the parish meeting of a rural parish not having a parish council.
