14 Restrictions on discontinuance of voluntary schools by managers and governors.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the . . . ^{F29} governors of a voluntary school shall not discontinue the school except after serving on the [^{F30}Secretary of State for Education and Science] and on the local education authority by whom the school is maintained not less than two years' notice of their intention to do so:

[^{F31}Provided that, except by leave of the [^{F30}Secretary of State for Education and Science], no such notice as aforesaid shall be served by the . . . ^{F29} governors of any voluntary school in respect of the premises of which expenditure has been incurred otherwise than in connection with repairs by the [^{F30}Secretary of State for Education and Science] or by any local education authority or former authority.

If the [^{F30}Secretary of State for Education and Science] grants such leave, he may impose such requirements as he thinks just—

- (a) in regard to the repayment of the whole or any part of the amount of the expenditure so incurred by the [^{F30}Secretary of State for Education and Science];
- (b) where the [^{F30}Secretary of State for Education and Science] is satisfied that the local education authority will require for any purpose connected with education, any premises which are for the time being used for the purposes of the school in regard to the conveyance of those premises to the authority;
- (c) in regard to the payment by the local education authority of such part of the value of any premises so conveyed as is just having regard to the extent to which those premises were provided otherwise than at the expense of the authority of a former authority;
- (d) where any premises for the time being used for the purposes of the school are not to be so conveyed in regard to the payment to the authority by the . . . ^{F29} governors of the school of such part of the value of those premises as is just having regard to the extent to which they were provided at the expense of the authority or a former authority.]

(2) No such notice as aforesaid shall be withdrawn except with the consent of the local education authority.

(3) If, while any such notice as aforesaid is in force with respect to a voluntary school, the . . . ^{F29} governors of the school inform the local education authority that they are unable or unwilling to carry on the school until the expiration of the notice, the authority may conduct the school during the whole or any part of the unexpired period of the notice as if it were a county school, and shall be entitled to the use of the school premises, free of charge, for that purpose.

(4) While any school is being conducted by a local education authority as a county school under the last foregoing subsection, the authority shall keep the school premises in good repair, and, for all purposes relating to the condition of the school premises, the occupation and use thereof, and the making of alterations thereto, any interest in the said premises which is held for the purposes of the school shall be deemed to be vested in the authority:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1944 (repealed 1.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

Provided that the . . . ^{F29} governors of the school shall be entitled to the use of the school premises or any part thereof when not required for the purposes of the school to the like extent as if they had continued to carry on the school during the unexpired period of the notice.

- (5) Where any school is discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this section, the duty of the local education authority to maintain the school as a voluntary school shall be extinguished.

in force under this section [^{F36}or section 54 of the Education (No.2) Act 1986] directing that it shall be an aided school or a special agreement school shall be a controlled school.

(3) The . . . ^{F33} governors of a controlled school shall not be responsible for any of the expenses of maintaining the school, but the following provisions shall have effect with respect to the maintenance of aided schools and special agreement schools:

(a) the following expenses shall be payable by the . . . ^{F33} governors of the school, that is to say, the expenses of discharging any liability incurred by them or on their behalf or by or on behalf of any former . . . ^{F33} governors of the school or any trustees thereof [^{F37}in connection with the provision of premises or equipment for the purposes of the school]; any expenses incurred in effecting such alterations to the school buildings as may be required by the local education authority for the purpose of securing that the school premises should conform to the prescribed standards, and any expenses incurred in effecting repairs to the [^{F37}school buildings] not being repairs which are excluded from their responsibility by the following paragraph:

[^{F38}(b) the . . . ^{F33} governors of the school shall not be responsible for repairs to the interior of the school buildings, or for repairs to those buildings necessary in consequence of the use of the school premises, in pursuance of any direction or requirement of the authority, for purposes other than those of the school.]

(4) If at any time the . . . ^{F33} governors of an aided school or a special agreement school are unable or unwilling to carry out their obligations under paragraph (a) of the last foregoing subsection, it shall be their duty to apply to the [^{F32}Secretary of State for Education and Science] for an order revoking the order by virtue of which the school is an aided school or a special agreement school, and upon such an application being made to him the [^{F32}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall revoke the order.

[^{F39}(4A) For the purposes of subsection (4) of this section, the governors of an aided school or a special agreement school shall not be regarded as unable to carry out their obligations under subsection (3)(a) of this section if they are able to carry them out with the benefit of assistance under section 282(1) of the Education Act 1993 (power of local education authority to give assistance).]

(5) If at any time the [Secretary of State for Education and Science] is satisfied that the grant made in respect of a special agreement school in pursuance of the special agreement made with respect to the school under this Act has been repaid to the local education authority by which the school is maintained, the [Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall, upon application being made to him for that purpose by the . . . ^{F33} governors of the school, by order revoke the order by virtue of which the school is a special agreement school and, if satisfied that the . . . ^{F33} governors of the school will be able and willing, with the assistance of [^{F34}grants under section 281 of the Education Act 1993], to defray the expenses which would fall to be borne by them under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section, shall by order direct that the school shall be an aided school.

22 Powers of local education authority as to use and care of premises of voluntary schools.

- (1) [^{F45}The governing body] of a controlled school shall be entitled to determine the use to which the school premises or any part thereof shall be put on Saturdays, except when required to be used on Saturdays for the purposes of the school or for any purpose connected with education or with the welfare of the young for which the local education authority desire to provide accommodation on the premises or on that part thereof, and the ^{F46} . . . foundation governors shall be entitled to determine the use to which the school premises or any part thereof shall be put on Sundays, but save as aforesaid the local education authority may give such directions as to the occupation and use of the school premises of a controlled school as they think fit.
- (2) If the local education authority desire to provide accommodation for any purpose connected with education or with the welfare of the young and are satisfied that there is no suitable alternative accommodation in their area for that purpose, they may direct [^{F45}the governing body] of any aided school or special agreement school to provide free of charge accommodation for that purpose on the school premises or any part thereof on any week-day when not required for the purposes of the school, so, however, that [^{F45}the governing body] shall not be directed to provide such accommodation on more than three days in any week.
- (3) Subject to any directions given by a local education authority under the foregoing provisions of this section and to the requirements of any enactment other than this Act or the regulations made thereunder, the occupation and use of the school premises of any voluntary school shall be under the control of [^{F45}the governing body] thereof [^{F47}except to the extent provided by any transfer of control agreement into which they may enter under subsection (3A) of this section.].
- ^{F48}(3A) Subject to subsection (3B) below the governing body of any voluntary school shall have power to enter into a transfer of control agreement with any body or person if their purpose, or one of their purposes, in doing so is to promote community use of the whole or any part of the school premises; and—
- (a) they may do so notwithstanding that the trust deed for the school would, apart from this subsection, expressly or impliedly preclude them from entering into such an agreement with that body or person or from conferring control on the controlling body in question; but
 - (b) they shall not enter into a transfer of control agreement unless the use to which the premises may be put under the agreement is in all other respects in conformity with any such requirements, prohibitions or restrictions imposed by the trust deed as would obtain if control were being exercised by the governing body.

(3B) The governing body shall not enter into any transfer of control agreement which makes or includes provision for the use of the whole or any part of the school premises during school hours unless they have first obtained the local education authority's consent to the agreement in so far as it makes such provision.

(3C) A transfer of control agreement shall be taken to include the following terms, namely—

- (a) that the governing body shall notify the controlling body of—
 - (i) any directions given to the governing body by virtue of subsection (1) or (2) of this section; and
 - (ii) any determination made by the foundation governors under subsection (1) of this section;
- (b) that the controlling body, in exercising control of the use of any premises subject to the agreement—
 - (i) shall do so in accordance with any directions or determinations from time to time notified to that body in pursuance of paragraph (a) of this subsection; and
 - (ii) shall have regard to the desirability of the premises being made available for community use; and
- (c) that, if reasonable notice is given in writing by the governing body to the controlling body that such of the premises subject to the agreement as may be specified in the notice are reasonably required for use by or in connection with the school at such times as may be so specified, then—
 - (i) the use of the specified premises at those times shall be under the control of the governing body; and
 - (ii) accordingly, those premises may be used at those times by or in connection with the school for such purposes as may be specified in the notice, notwithstanding that their use at those times would, apart from this paragraph, be under the control of the controlling body.

(3D) Where a transfer of control agreement makes express provision for the use of any school premises which are subject to the agreement to be occasionally under the control of the governing body, instead of the controlling body, in such circumstances, at such times or for such purposes as may be provided by or under the agreement, paragraph (c) of subsection (3C) above shall not have effect in relation to that agreement if, at the time of entering into it, the governing body were of the opinion that the express provision would be more favourable to the interests of the school than the term that would otherwise be included by virtue of that paragraph.

[^{F50}(5) Where the trust deed for a voluntary school provides for any person other than the governing body to be entitled to control the occupation and use of the school premises to any extent, then, if and to the extent that, disregarding any transfer of control agreement, the use of those premises is or would be under the control of such a person, this section shall have effect in relation to the school with the substitution for references to the governing body of references to that person.]

[^{F51}(6) In this section—

“community use” means the use of school premises (when not required by or in connection with the school) by members of the local community;

“the controlling body” means the body or person (other than the governing body) which has control of the use of the whole or any part of the school premises under the transfer of control agreement in question;

“school hours” means any time during a school session or during a break between sessions on the same day;

“school session”, in relation to any school, means a school session beginning and ending at such times as may from time to time be determined for that school in accordance with section 21 of the Education (No. 2) Act 1986; and

“transfer of control agreement” means an agreement which, subject to subsection (3C) of this section, provides for the use of so much of the school premises as may be specified in the agreement to be under the control, at such times as may be so specified, of such body or person as may be so specified.]

[^{F58}26 Special provisions as to religious education in county schools.

- (1) In the case of a county school the provision for religious education for pupils at the school which is required by section 2(1)(a) of the Education Reform Act 1988 to be included in the school's basic curriculum shall be provision for religious education in accordance with an agreed syllabus adopted for the school or for those pupils.
- (2) No such syllabus shall provide for religious education to be given to pupils at such a school by means of any catechism or formulary which is distinctive of any particular religious denomination; but this provision is not to be taken as prohibiting provision in such a syllabus for the study of such catechisms or formularies.
- (3) Subsection (4) below applies where a county secondary school is so situated that arrangements cannot conveniently be made for the withdrawal of pupils from the school in accordance with section 9 of that Act to receive religious education elsewhere.
- (4) If in any such case the local education authority are satisfied—
 - (a) that the parents of pupils in attendance at the school desire them to receive religious education in the school in accordance with the tenets of a particular [^{F59}religion or] religious denomination; and
 - (b) that satisfactory arrangements have been made for the provision of such education to those pupils in the school, and for securing that the cost of providing such education to those pupils in the school will not fall upon the authority;

the authority shall, unless they are satisfied that owing to any special circumstances it would be unreasonable to do so, provide facilities for the carrying out of those arrangements.]

31 Transitional provisions as to the separation of primary and secondary schools.

- (1) ^{F71}
- (2) Save as may be otherwise directed by the [^{F72}Secretary of State for Education and Science], every county school and voluntary school which immediately before the commencement of this Part of this Act was used for providing primary education shall be managed and conducted as a primary school, every such school which was used for providing secondary education shall be managed and conducted as a secondary school, and every such school which was used for providing primary and secondary education indiscriminately shall be managed and conducted as if it were a primary school.
- (3) If it appears to the [^{F72}Secretary of State for Education and Science] to be expedient that any county school or voluntary school should be managed and conducted otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of the last foregoing subsection, he may direct that the school be managed and conducted as a primary school or as a secondary school as the case may be: Provided that no such direction shall be given except after consultation with the local education authority and, in the case of a voluntary school, with the . . . ^{F73} governors of the school.
- (4) Where it appears to a local education authority that the process of securing that primary and secondary education shall be provided in separate schools can be accelerated by the giving of a direction under this section, it shall be the duty of the authority to apply to the [^{F72}Secretary of State for Education and Science] for such a direction.

Compulsory Attendance at Primary and Secondary Schools

35 Compulsory school age.

In this Act the expression “compulsory school age” means any age between five years and [^{F76}sixteen] years, and accordingly a person shall be deemed to be of compulsory school age if he has attained the age of five years and has not attained the age of [^{F76}sixteen] years and a person shall be deemed to be over compulsory school age as soon as he has attained the age of [^{F76}sixteen] years:

Provided that, as soon as the Minister is satisfied that it has become practicable to raise to sixteen the upper limit of the compulsory school age, he shall lay before Parliament the draft of an Order in Council directing that the foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect as if for references therein to the age of fifteen years there were substituted references to the age of sixteen years; and unless either house of Parliament, within the period of forty days beginning with the the day on which any such draft as aforesaid is laid before it, resolves that the draft be not presented to His Majesty, His Majesty may by Order in Council direct accordingly. In reckoning any such period of forty days, no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

- (b) do anything which appears to them to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of or in connection with such provision.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below and section 14(1) to (4) of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, in this Act “further education” means—
 - (a) full-time and part-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age (including vocational, social, physical and recreational training); and
 - (b) organized leisure-time occupation provided in connection with the provision of such education.
- (4) In this Act “further education” does not include higher education or secondary education.
- (5) In subsection (3)(b) above “organized leisure time occupation” means leisure-time occupation, in such organized cultural training and recreative activities as are suited to their requirements, for any persons over compulsory school age who are able and willing to profit by facilities provided for that purpose.
- (6) A local education authority may secure the provision of further education for persons from other areas.
- (7) In exercising their functions under this section a local education authority shall have regard to any educational facilities provided by institutions within the higher education sector or the further education sector, and other bodies, which are provided for, or available for use by persons in, their area.
- (8) In exercising their functions under this section a local education authority shall also have regard to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age who have learning difficulties.
- (9) Subject to subsection (10) below, for the purposes of subsection (8) above a person has a “learning difficulty” if—
 - (a) he has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of persons of his age; or
 - (b) he has a disability which either prevents or hinders him from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided in pursuance of the duty under subsection (1) above for persons of his age.
- (10) A person is not to be taken as having a learning difficulty solely because the language (or form of the language) in which he is, or will be, taught is different from a language (or form of a language) which has at any time been spoken in his home.
- (11) A local education authority may do anything which appears to them to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of or in connection with the exercise of their functions under this section.]

- (2) Any such examination as aforesaid shall be made by a person authorised by the local education authority to make such examinations, and if the person or clothing of any pupil is found upon such an examination to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition, any officer of the authority may serve upon the parent of the pupil . . . ^{F111} a notice requiring him to cause the person and clothing of the pupil to be cleansed.
- (3) A notice served under the last foregoing subsection shall inform the person upon whom it is served that unless within the period limited by the notice, not being less than twenty-four hours after the service thereof, the person and clothing of the pupil to whom the notice relates are cleansed to the satisfaction of such person as may be specified in the notice the cleansing thereof will be carried out under arrangements made by the local education authority; and if, upon a report being made to him by that person at the expiration of that period, a medical officer of the authority is not satisfied that the person and clothing of the pupil have been properly cleansed, the medical officer may issue an order directing that the person and clothing of the pupil be cleansed under such arrangements.
- (4) It shall be the duty of the local education authority to make arrangements for securing that any person or clothing required under this section to be cleansed may be cleansed (whether at the request of a parent . . . ^{F111} or in pursuance of an order issued under this section) at suitable premises by suitable persons and with suitable appliances; and where [^{F112}the council of any . . . ^{F113} district in the area of the authority][^{F112}the council of any inner London borough or the Common Council of the City of London] are entitled to the use of any premises or appliances for cleansing the person or clothing of persons infested with vermin, the authority may require the council to permit the authority to use those premises or appliances for such purposes upon such terms as may be determined by agreement between the authority and the council or, in default of such agreement, by the [^{F114}Secretary of State for Social Services].
- (5) Where an order has been issued by a medical officer under this section directing that the person and clothing of a pupil be cleansed under arrangements made by a local education authority, the order shall be sufficient to authorise any officer of the authority to cause the person and clothing of the pupil in the order to be cleansed in accordance with arrangements made under the last foregoing subsection, and for that purpose to convey him to, and detain him at, any premises provided in accordance with such arrangements.
- (6) If, after the cleansing of the person or clothing of any pupil has been carried out under this section, his person or clothing is again found to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition at any time while he is in attendance at a school maintained by a local education authority [^{F115}or at a grant-maintained school] . . . ^{F111}, and it is proved that the condition of his person or clothing is due to neglect on the part of his parent . . . ^{F111}, the parent . . . ^{F111} shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F116}level 1 on the standard scale.]
- (7) Where a medical officer of a local education authority suspects that the person or clothing of any pupil in attendance at a school maintained by the authority [^{F117}or at a grant-maintained school within the area of the authority] . . . ^{F111} is infested with vermin or in a foul condition, but action for the examination or cleansing thereof cannot immediately be taken, he may, if he considers it necessary so to do either in the interest of the pupil or of other pupils in attendance at the school . . . ^{F111}, direct that the pupil be excluded from the school . . . ^{F111} until such action has been taken; and such a direction shall be a defence to any proceedings under [^{F118}Part IV of the Education Act 1993] in respect of the failure of the pupil to attend school . . . ^{F111} on any day on

Employment of Children and Young Persons

58 Adaptation of enactments relating to the employment of children or young persons.

For the purposes of any enactment relating to the prohibition or regulation of the employment of children or young persons, any person who is not for the purposes of this Act over compulsory school age shall be deemed to be a child within the meaning of that enactment.

[^{F130}59 Power of local education authorities to prohibit or restrict employment of children.

- (1) If it appears to a local education authority that any child who is a registered pupil at a county school, voluntary school, or special school, is being employed in such manner as to be prejudicial to his health or otherwise to render him unfit to obtain the full benefit of the education provided for him, the authority may, by notice in writing served upon the employer, prohibit him from employing the child, or impose such restrictions upon his employment of the child as appear to them to be expedient in the interests of the child.
- (2) A local education authority may, by notice in writing served upon the parent or employer of any child who is a registered pupil at a county school, voluntary school, or special school, require the parent or employer to provide the authority, within such period as may be specified in the notice, with such information as appears to the authority to be necessary for the purpose of enabling them to ascertain whether the child is being employed in such a manner as to render him unfit to obtain the full benefit of the education provided for him.

PART III

INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C66 Functions of Secretary of State for Education and Science under Part III in relation to independent schools in Wales now exercisable by Secretary of State for Wales: S.I. 1970/1536, arts. 2(1), 5(1)

70 Registration of independent schools.

- (1) The [^{F159}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall appoint one of his officers to be Registrar of Independent Schools; and it shall be the duty of the Registrar of Independent Schools to keep a register of all independent schools, which shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times, and, subject as hereinafter provided, to register therein any independent school of which the proprietor makes application for the purpose in the prescribed manner and furnishes the prescribed particulars:
 Provided that—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1944 (repealed 1.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) no independent school shall be registered if, by virtue of an order made under the provisions hereinafter contained, the proprietor is disqualified from being the proprietor of an independent school or the school premises are disqualified from being used as a school, or if the school premises are used or proposed to be used for any purpose for which they are disqualified by virtue of any such order; and
- (b) the registration of any school shall be provisional only until the ^{F159}Secretary of State for Education and Science], after the school has been inspected on his behalf under the provisions of Part IV of this Act, gives notice to the proprietor that the registration is final.

(2) ^{F160}

(3) If after the expiration of six months from the date of the commencement of this Part of this Act any person—

- (a) conducts an independent school (whether established before or after the commencement of that Part) which is not a registered school or a provisionally registered school; or
- (b) being the proprietor of an independent school does any act calculated to lead to the belief that the school is a registered school while it is a provisionally registered school;

he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ^{F161}level 4 on the standard scale] or in the case of a second or subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding ^{F161}level 4 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

^{F162}(3A) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under subsection (3)(a) above by reason of conducting a school at any time within the period of one month from the date on which it was first conducted (whether by that person or another) if an application for the registration of the school has been duly made within that period.]

^{F163}(4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for requiring the proprietor of a registered or provisionally registered school to furnish the Registrar from time to time with such particulars relating to the school as may be prescribed and for enabling the Secretary of State to order the deletion from the register of the name of any school in respect of which any requirement imposed by or under the regulations is not complied with.

[Regulations made under subsection (4) above may in particular require the proprietor ^{F164}(4A) of a school to furnish the Registrar with such information as is required by the local authority for the purpose of determining whether the school is a children’s home (within the meaning of the Children Act 1989).]

72 Determination of complaints.

- (1) Any person upon whom a notice of complaint or a copy of such a notice is served under the last foregoing section may, within the time limited by the notice, appeal therefrom by referring the complaint, in such manner as may be provided by rules made under this Part of this Act, to an Independent Schools Tribunal constituted in accordance with the provisions of the Sixth Schedule to this Act.
- (2) Upon a complaint being referred to an Independent Schools Tribunal, the tribunal shall, after affording to all parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, and after considering such evidence as may be tendered by them or on their behalf, have power—
- (a) to order that the complaint be annulled:
 - (b) to order that the school in respect of which the notice of complaint was served be struck off the register:
 - (c) to order that the school be so struck off unless the requirements of the notice, subject to such modifications, if any, as may be specified in the order are complied with to the satisfaction of the [^{F170}Secretary of State for Education and Science] before the expiration of such time as may be specified in the order:
 - (d) if satisfied that the premises alleged by the notice of complaint to be unsuitable for use as a school or any part of such premises are in fact unsuitable for such use, by order to disqualify the premises or part from being so used, or, if satisfied that the accommodation provided at the school premises is inadequate or unsuitable having regard to the number, ages and sex of the pupils attending the school, by order to disqualify the premises from being used as a school for pupils exceeding such number or of such age or sex as may be specified in the order:
 - (e) if satisfied that any person alleged by the notice of complaint to be a person who is not proper to be the proprietor of an independent school or to be a teacher [^{F171}or other employee] in any school is in fact such a person, by order to disqualify that person from being the proprietor of any independent school

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

[^{F182}77 Inspection of educational establishments.

- (1) In this section the expression “educational establishment” means ^{F183} . . . , [^{F184}an institution within the PCFC funding sector or an institution which is maintained or assisted by a local education authority and provides higher education or further education (or both)]; and if the persons responsible for the management of any institution which is not an educational establishment within the foregoing definition request the [^{F185}Secretary of State] or any local education authority to cause an inspection of that institution to be made under the powers conferred by this section, the institution shall, for the purposes of that inspection, be deemed to be also included within that definition.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the [^{F185}Secretary of State for Education and Science] to cause inspections to be made of every educational establishment at such intervals as appear to him to be appropriate, and to cause a special inspection of any such establishment to be made whenever he considers such an inspection to be desirable; and for the purpose of enabling such inspections to be made on behalf of the [^{F185}Secretary of State for Education and Science], inspectors may be appointed by His Majesty on the recommendation of the [^{F185}Secretary of State for Education and Science], and persons may be authorised by the [^{F185}Secretary of State for Education and Science] to assist such inspectors and to act as additional inspectors:
Provided that the [^{F185}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall not be required by virtue of this subsection to cause inspections to be made of any educational establishment during any period during which he is satisfied that suitable arrangements are in force for the inspection of that establishment otherwise than in accordance with this subsection.
- (3) Any local education authority may cause an inspection to be made of any educational establishment maintained by the authority, and such inspections shall be made by officers appointed by the local education authority.
- (4) If any person obstructs any person authorised to make an inspection in pursuance of the provisions of this section in the execution of his duty, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F186}level 4 on the standard scale], or, in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding [^{F186}level 4 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

100 Grants in aid of educational services.

- (1) The [^{F236}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall by regulations make provision:—
- (a) for the payment by him to local education authorities of annual grants in respect of the expenditure incurred by such authorities;
 - [^{F237}(i) ^{F238}
 - (iii) in the removal of works constructed for the purposes of air-raid precautions or of temporary works constructed for defence purposes by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, the Admiralty or the Minister of Home Security in pursuance of Regulation fifty or fifty-one of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, or by agreement, and in the reinstatement of premises so far as it is rendered necessary by any such removal;]
 - (b) for the payment by him to persons other than local education authorities of grants in respect of expenditure incurred or to be incurred [^{F239}by them for the purposes of, or in connection with, the provision (or proposed provision) of educational services] or for the purposes of educational research; and
 - (c) for the payment by him, for the purpose of enabling pupils to take advantage without hardship to themselves or their parents of any educational facilities available to them, of the whole or any part of the fees and expenses payable in respect of children attending schools at which fees are payable, . . . ^{F240}
- (2) ^{F241}
- (3) Any regulations made by the [^{F236}Secretary of State for Education and Science] . . . ^{F242} under this section may make provision whereby the making of payments by him in pursuance thereof is dependent upon the fulfilment of such conditions as may be determined by or in accordance with the regulations, and may also make provision for requiring local education authorities and other persons to whom payments have been made in pursuance thereof to comply with such requirements as may be so determined.
- (4) ^{F243}
- (5) Nothing in this section shall affect any grants in aid of university education payable out of moneys provided by Parliament otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

105 †Power of the Minister to make loans to aided schools and special agreement schools in respect of initial expenditure.

(1) If upon the application of the . . . ^{F248} governors of any aided school or special agreement school the [^{F249}Secretary of State for Education and Science] is satisfied after consultation with persons representing them that their share of any initial expenses required in connection with the school premises will involve capital expenditure which, in his opinion having regard to all the circumstances of the case, ought properly to be met by borrowing, he may make to the . . . ^{F248} governors of the school for the purpose of helping them to meet that expenditure, a loan of such amount at such rate of interest and otherwise on such terms and conditions as may be specified in an agreement made between him and them with the consent of the Treasury.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1944 (repealed 1.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the expression “initial expenses” means in relation to any school premises—
- (a) expenses to be incurred in defraying the cost of any alterations required by the development plan approved by the [^{F249}Secretary of State for Education and Science] for the area;
 - (b) expenses to be incurred in pursuance of any special agreement;
 - [^{F250}(c) (i) expenses to be incurred in providing a site or school buildings on a significant enlargement of the school premises [^{F251}or on a transfer of the school to a new site], being expenses in respect of which [^{F252}grants under section 281 of the Education Act 1993] may be paid;
 - (ii) expenses to be incurred in providing school buildings on a site to which the school is to be transferred under the authority of an order under section 16(1) of this Act;
 - (iii) expenses to be incurred in providing a site or school buildings for a new school [^{F253}which by virtue of an order under section 16(2) of this Act is deemed to be in substitution for a discontinued school or schools]];
 - [^{F254}(d)
- and the . . . [^{F248}governors’ share of any such initial expenses shall be taken to be so much thereof as remains to be borne by them after taking into account the amount of any [^{F255}. . . grant under a special agreement, or grant under [^{F256}section 281 of the Education Act 1993], as may be paid or payable in respect of those expenses.
- (3) If upon an application being made to him under subsection (2) of section fifteen of this Act for an order directing that a school shall be an aided school or a special agreement school it appears to the [^{F249}Secretary of State for Education and Science] that the area served by the school will not be also served by any county school or controlled school, then, unless he is satisfied that the . . . [^{F248}governors of the school will be able to defray the expenses which would fall to be borne by them under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of that section without the assistance of a loan under this section, the [^{F249}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall consult such persons or bodies of persons as appear to him to be representative of any [^{F257}religion or] religious denomination which, in his opinion having regard to the circumstances of the area, is likely to be concerned; and, unless after such consultation he is satisfied that the holding of a local inquiry is unnecessary, shall cause such inquiry to be held before determining the application.

120 Amendment of enactments.

(1) On and after the date of the commencement of Part II of this Act any enactment passed before that date shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as if:—

- (a) for references therein to an elementary school or to a public elementary school (whether or not any reference is made therein to the payment of parliamentary grants in respect of the school) there were substituted references to a county school or voluntary school as the context may require;
- (b) for references therein to a school certified by the Board of Education, in accordance with the provisions of Part V of the ^{M17}Education Act 1921, as suitable for providing education for blind deaf defective or epileptic children, there were substituted references to a special school;
- (c) for references therein to the managers of a school there were substituted, in relation to a county . . . ^{F324} school or a voluntary . . . ^{F324} school, references to the governors of the school;
- (d) for references therein to elementary education or to higher education there were substituted references to such education as may be provided by a local education authority in the exercise of their functions under Part II of this Act;
- (e) for references therein to a local education authority, to a local education authority for elementary education, or to a local education authority for higher education, there were substituted references to a local education authority within the meaning of this Act.
