4 Consumers' councils.

[^{F17}(1) There shall be established for the purposes mentioned in this section two consumers' councils, to be known respectively as the Industrial Coal Consumers' Council and the Domestic Coal Consumers' Council.

(2) Each of the said councils shall consist of such number of persons as the Minister may think fit, appointed by him . . . ^{F18} —

- (a) in the case of the Industrial Coal Consumers' Council, after consultation with such bodies representative of the interests concerned as the Minister thinks fit, to represent consumers of coal, coke and manufactured fuel respectively, for industrial purposes or other purposes involving supply in bulk, and persons engaged in organising or effecting the sale or supply, whether for home use or for export, of coal, coke and manufactured fuel respectively, for those purposes;
- (b) in the case of the Domestic Coal Consumers' Council, after consultation with such bodies representative of the interests concerned as the Minister thinks fit, to represent consumers of coal, coke and manufactured fuel respectively, for domestic purposes and other purposes not falling within the preceding paragraph, and persons engaged in organising or effecting the sale or supply of coal, coke and manufactured fuel respectively, for those purposes.

In formulating his proposals for appointments to each of the said councils, the Minister shall have particular regard to nominations made to him by the said bodies representative of the interests concerned of persons recommended by them as having both adequate knowledge of the requirements of those interests and also qualifications for exercising a wide and impartial judgment on the matters to be dealt with by the council generally.

(3) The Industrial Coal Consumers' Council shall be charged with the duties—

- (a) of considering any matter affecting the sale or supply, whether for home use or for export, of coal, coke or manufactured fuel for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section which is the subject of a representation made to them by consumers for those purposes of coal, coke or manufactured fuel, as the case may be, or which appears to them to be a matter to which consideration ought to be given apart from any such representation, . . . ^{F18},
- (b) of considering, and reporting to the Minister on, any such matter which may be referred to them by the Minister.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/12/1994.

- (4) The Domestic Coal Consumers' Council shall be charged with the like duties in relation to the sale or supply of coal, coke and manufactured fuel for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section.
- (5) ^{F19}
- (6) The said councils shall be furnished by the Minister with such clerks, officers and staff as appear to him, with the concurrence of [^{F20}the Treasury] as to numbers, to be requisite for the proper discharge of their functions, and the Minister shall pay to the members of the said councils such allowances, and to the clerks, officers and staff of the said councils such remuneration and allowances, as he may with the approval of [^{F20}the Treasury] determine, and shall pay such expenses incurred by the said councils as he may so determine.
- (7) Provision may be made by regulations for or in connection with any such matters in relation to the said consumers' councils as are mentioned in subsection (7) of section two of this Act in relation to the [^{F21}Corporation], and for the appointment of a chairman of each of the said councils, with or without provision for another to act in his place, and, subject to the provisions of any such regulations, the said councils shall have power to regulate their own procedure.
- (8) Each of the said councils shall make an annual report to the Minister, and the Minister shall lay the reports before each House of Parliament.]
- (9) ^{F19}
- (12) In this section the expression "manufactured fuel" means any manufactured fuel (including carbonised briquettes and ovoids) of which coal or coke is the principal constituent.

61 Arbitration under this Act.

- (1) For the purposes of the determination of any question as to which this Act or any regulation made thereunder provides that it is to be determined by arbitration under this Act, a panel of persons to act as arbitrators shall be appointed by the Lord Chancellor, and the Lord Chancellor shall nominate two members of the panel as chairman thereof and as deputy chairman respectively.
- (2) Any such question as aforesaid shall be determined by the arbitration of such member of the panel as the chairman, or, in the event of the chairman's being temporarily absent or unable to act, the deputy chairman, may select.

62 Provisions as to regulations.

- (1) Regulations made (whether by the Minister or by the Treasury) for the purposes of any provision of this Act (in this section referred to, in relation to the regulations in question, as "the authorising enactment") may, in addition to providing for any matters specified in the authorising enactment, provide—
- (a) for imposing limits of time within which things to be done for the purposes of the regulations must be done, with or without power to any authority therein specified to extend limits imposed;
- (b) for punishing persons offending against provisions of the regulations;
- (c) for the determination of questions of fact or of law which may arise in giving effect to the regulations, and as to evidence for that purpose, and for regulating (otherwise than in relation to any court proceedings) any matters relating to the practice and procedure to be followed in connection with the determination of such questions, including provision as to parties and their representation and provision for the right to appear and be heard (as well in court proceedings as otherwise) of the Minister, District Valuation Boards, referees, or other authorities, and as to awarding costs of proceedings for the determination of such questions, determining the amount thereof and the enforcement of awards thereof;
- (d) for amending or repealing enactments inconsistent with the provision to be made for the purposes of the authorising enactment, and for applying enactments with or without modification; and
