

Hill Farming Act 1946

1946 CHAPTER 73

General

32 Advisory committees

(1) There shall be constituted, with the function of advising the appropriate Minister as to the exercise of his powers under this Act, an advisory committee for England, Wales and Northern Ireland, a sub-committee of that committee for Wales and Monmouthshire, and an advisory committee for Scotland.

(2) The members of each of the said committees and of the said sub-committee shall be appointed by the appropriate Minister, and he shall have power to determine the constitution thereof:

Provided that not less than one half of the members of the said sub-committee shall be persons who are members of the advisory committee for England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

(3) The reference in section five of this Act to the appropriate advisory committee to be consulted as to revoking or varying a hill farming land improvement scheme shall be construed as a reference to the said sub-committee where the scheme is concerned only with land in Wales or Monmouthshire.

(4) The appropriate Minister may defray expenses incurred by the committee or sub-committee to be appointed by him under this section.
