

Metropolitan Police Act 1856

1856 CHAPTER 2

IX Provisions as to Commissioners of Police sitting in Parliament, &c. to apply to Assistant Commissioners.

The Provision of the firstly-recited Act for preventing any Justice of the Peace appointed by virtue of that Act from being elected or sitting as a Member of the House of Commons, or voting in certain Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, or indirectly interfering therein, shall apply to and include the said Assistant Commissioners to be appointed under this Act.
