17 Damage may be ascertained when works done.

Where any damage has been sustained by reason of any works authorized by this Act in or upon lands required to be kept free from buildings and other obstructions in respect of which works compensation has not been agreed upon, awarded, or otherwise ascertained prospectively, compensation shall be paid in respect thereof when the works have been done; such compensation to be determined in like manner as other compensation under this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

18 In estimating damage regard to be had to advantages derived.

In determining the amount of compensation in respect of damage sustained by reason of any such works, regard shall be had to any increase in the extent of land capable of being brought under cultivation by removal of banks, fences, hedges, and ditches, and to any improved drainage and other advantages derived from any such works.

19 Where any agreement in restraint of building exists, regard to be had thereto in estimating compensation.

Where any covenant or agreement has been entered into with the principal officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance or with the said Secretary of State in restraint of the right to build on any lands, and such covenant or agreement is legally or equitably binding on the owner of the lands, regard shall be had in ascertaining the amount of compensation to be paid under this Act for or in respect of such lands (whether the same are required to be taken absolutely or are required to be kept free from buildings) to the existing restriction arising out of such covenant or agreement.

Payment and Application of Compensation in certain cases

20 Provision for payment and application of compensation money in certain cases.

Restraints and Powers to attach on Lands required to be kept free from Buildings

34 Restrictions and powers with respect to lands required to be kept free from buildings.

^{F33} . . . in relation to any lands required to be kept free from buildings and other obstructions, the following restrictions, powers and consequences shall attach with reference to such lands:

No building or other structure (other than barns, hovels, or other like structures of wood), shall be made or erected thereon:

It shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, ^{F33} . . . from time to time, to enter and pull down any present or future buildings or structures (other than as aforesaid) thereon, and to cut down or grub up all or any of the trees thereon, and to remove or alter all or any of the banks, fences, hedges, and ditches thereon, and to make underground or other drains therein, and generally to level and clear the said lands, and do all such acts for levelling and clearing the same as may be deemed necessary or proper by the said Secretary of State: but in such manner, nevertheless, that evidence of the boundaries of the lands held by different owners may be preserved:

And it shall not be lawful for any person to alter the level of the lands, or do any act which may prejudicially affect any work done on the lands under the authority of the said Secretary of State.

Textual Amendments

F33 Words in s. 34 repealed (5.11.1993) by 1993 c. 50, s. 1(1), Sch. 1 Pt. XIII Group 1.

35 Limitation of time for works under last preceding enactment.

The powers conferred by the enactment lastly hereinbefore contained in relation to any lands shall be exercised only within three years after the making of any declaration that the said lands are required to be kept free from buildings and other obstructions, except with respect to pulling down buildings or structures wrongfully made or erected after the expiration of that time, or keeping or re-instating such lands in the condition in which the same were left after the execution of any such work thereon as aforesaid, or maintaining or restoring the level of such lands.

Subsequent Compensation for Interests omitted to be purchased

36 Provision as to interest omitted to be purchased.

If at any time after the said Secretary of State has entered upon any lands vested in him under this Act, any party appear to be entitled to any estate, right, or interest in or charge affecting such lands, which through mistake and inadvertence has been omitted to be purchased or compensated for, the said Secretary of State shall nevertheless remain in the undisturbed possession of such lands, and shall be deemed to have an indefeasible title thereto, but shall pay compensation for any such estate, right, interest, or charge, which but for this enactment might be recovered or enforced, and also pay to such party, or to any other party who may establish a right thereto, full compensation for the mesne profits or interest which would have accrued to such parties respectively in respect thereof during the interval between the entry of the said Secretary of State thereon and the time of the payment of such compensation by the said Secretary of State, so far as such mesne profits or interest may be recoverable at law or in equity:

Status: Point in time view as at 05/11/1993.

Such compensation shall be agreed on or awarded and paid in like manner as the same would have been agreed on or awarded and paid in case the said Secretary of State had purchased or compensated for such estate, right, interest, or charge before his entering upon such lands, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit.

37 How value of such lands to be estimated.

In estimating the compensation to be given for any such estate, right, interest, or charge affecting any lands, or for any mesne profits or interest, the jury or justices, as the case may be, shall assess the same according to the value of the lands at the time the same were entered upon by the said Secretary of State and without regard to any improvements or works made by him.

38 Secretary of State to pay the costs of litigation as to such lands.

In addition to the said compensation, the said Secretary of State shall, when the right to any such estate, right, interest, or charge has been disputed by him and determined in favour of the party claiming the same, pay the full costs and expenses of any proceedings at law or in equity for the determination or recovery of the same to the parties with whom any such litigation in respect thereof has taken place; and such costs and expenses shall, in case the same be disputed, be settled by the proper officer of the court in which such litigation took place.
