

Metropolitan Fire Brigade Act 1865

1865 CHAPTER 90 28 and 29 Vict

Expenses

17 Examination of books of insurance companies.

The secretary or other officer having the custody of the books and papers of any insurance company that is required to pay a contribution to the [^{F1}Greater London Council] in pursuance of this Act shall allow any officer appointed by the [^{F1}Greater London Council] to inspect, during the hours of business, any books and papers that will enable him to ascertain the amount of property insured by such company in [^{F1}Greater London other than the Outer London boroughs], and the amount for which it is insured, and to make extracts from such books or papers; and any secretary or other such officer as aforesaid of a company failing to comply with the requisitions of this section in respect of such inspections and extracts shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding [^{F2}level 1 on the standard scale]for each offence.

Textual Amendments

F1 Words substituted by virtue of London Government Act 1963 \(c. 33\), s. 48\(3\)

F2 Words substituted by virtue of Criminal Justice Act 1982 \(c. 48, SIF 39:1\), s. 46

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Metropolitan Fire Brigade Act 1865, Section 17.