

Land Registers (Scotland) Act 1868

1868 CHAPTER 64 31 and 32 Vict

1 Short title. U.K.

This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Land Registers (Scotland) Act, 1868.

2 Interpretation of terms. Scots Act 1617 c. 16. U.K.

The term “register of sasines,” as used in this Act, shall be held as applying to the registers directed to be kept by the Registration Act 1617, for the registration of sasines, reversions, and other writs directed to be recorded therein by that Act or by any subsequent Act of Parliament; and the word “writ,” as used in this Act, shall apply to and include all deeds and writings which have heretofore been in the practice of being recorded in these registers, or which may under the provisions of this Act be recorded in the general register of sasines.

3 In general register of sasines, writs of each county to be kept separate. U.K.

The general register of sasines for Scotland shall be so kept that the writs applicable to each county shall be entered in a separate series of presentment books, and the writs shall be minuted in a separate series of minute books, and engrossed in a separate series of register volumes, in the order of presentment, and where any writ shall contain land in more than one county such writ shall be entered by the ingiver in the presentment book of such of these counties as may be specified in the warrant of registration hereinafter provided for, and shall be minuted in the minute book of such of these counties or county as are specified in said warrant, and shall be engrossed at length in the division of the register applicable to one only of the said counties; and a memorandum shall be entered in each division of the register applicable to the other counties or county in the presentment book of which it is entered as aforesaid, setting forth the volume of the register and the folio or folios of such volume in which such engrossment is made; and such memorandum shall be deemed to be equivalent to full engrossment of such writ in the division of the register wherein such memorandum shall be entered as aforesaid: For the purposes of this Act, the barony and regality of Glasgow, and also the stewartry of Kirkcudbright, shall each be treated as a county.

*Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1999.Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Registers (Scotland) Act 1868. Provided always, that where any writ containing lands or heritages in more than one county shall not have had a warrant of registration endorsed or written thereon applicable to all the counties to which it applies, the registration of such writ shall, notwithstanding, as regards the county or counties mentioned in the warrant, and in the minute books and register volumes of which county or counties it has been recorded, or a memorandum thereof entered, be effectual; and it shall be competent afterwards to present such writ by a new warrant of registration thereon, and to minute and register such writ in the register of any other county or counties to which such writ applies in terms of such new warrant; and in the case of such subsequent registration it shall not be necessary to engross the writ at length in the division of the register applicable to such county or counties, but the same may be effected by the insertion of a memorandum in such division of the register in the manner herein-before provided for, and such subsequent registration shall be effectual as regards the county or counties to which such writ applies, and to which such new warrant is applicable, of and from the date of such subsequent registration.

6 Provision for writs transmitted by post to general register of sasines. S

Where any writ shall be transmitted by post for registration in the general register of sasines the keeper of said register shall, upon the receipt of such writ, cause the same to be acknowledged to the sender, and to be presented in terms of the warrant of registration thereon by a clerk in his office to be appointed by him for that purpose, and who shall be held as the ingiver of the writ; and such clerk shall [^{F2} . . . ^{F3} in the presentment book . . . ^{F3} enter] the name of the sender; and such writ shall be recorded in the same manner as any other writ presented for registration; and on the writ being ready for delivery ^{F4} . . . , the keeper shall transmit the writs to the sender by post; and where two or more writs . . . ^{F3} shall be received by the keeper at the same time, the entries thereof in the presentment book and minute book shall be of the same year, month, [^{F5}and day] , and such writs shall be deemed and taken to be presented and registered contemporaneously.

7 Registration how to be made, &c. U.K.

Registration of writs in the general register of sasines shall, except in so far as altered by the provisions of this Act, continue to be made in conformity with the practice heretofore in use; and no error or omission in any presentment book of the general register of sasines to be kept as aforesaid shall invalidate, or in any way affect injuriously, the registration of any writ recorded in said register.

8 Particular registers of sasines abolished. U.K.

The whole particular registers of sasines in Scotland shall be discontinued . . . ^{F6} and all writs which, previous to the discontinuance of the said particular registers respectively, might competently have been presented for registration therein, shall after said discontinuance be registrable only in the general register of sasines; and registration in the general register of sasines as herein-before directed to be kept for separate counties shall have all the force and effect previously attached to registration in such particular registers of sasines respectively.
