

Promissory Oaths Act 1868

1868 CHAPTER 72 31 and 32 Vict

PART 3

Saving Clause

15 Saving of powers of alteration hitherto exercised.

Where a declaration has been substituted for an oath under this Act, any person, guild, body corporate, or society which before the passing of this Act had power to alter such oath, or to substitute another oath in its place, may exercise a like power with regard to such declaration.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Promissory Oaths Act 1868, Section 15.