

Universities Tests Act 1871

1871 CHAPTER 26

7 Attendance at lectures.

No person shall be required to attend any college or university lecture to which he, if he be of full age, or, if he be not of full age, his parent or guardian, shall object upon religious grounds.