

ANNO DECIMO QUARTO & DECIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. 8.

An Act to authorize the Appropriation to charitable Purposes of the unclaimed Funds and Property under the Control of "The Glasgow Provident Bank," and the winding up of its Affairs. [1st August 1851.]

WHEREAS, in or about the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, certain Persons in and connected with the City of Glasgow did for the benevolent Purpose of promoting Industry, Frugality, and Economy among the Operative Classes in that City and its Neighbourhood, form themselves into an Association, under the Name of "The Glasgow Provident Bank," the Object of which was to receive, and to repay with Interest, Deposits of small Sums to be made with the Bank by the said Operative Classes: And whereas a Subscription was accordingly entered into by and among the said Persons, by whom Sums were subscribed, amounting in all to Six thousand eight hundred and seventy-five Pounds; and a Sum of Three hundred and forty-three Pounds Fifteen Shillings, being Five per Centum on the Amount so subscribed, was paid up in respect of such Subscriptions, solely for the Purpose of promoting the benevolent Purpose aforesaid, and without any Object of Gain: And

whereas the Bank was thereafter duly opened, and was carried on up to the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five under the gratuitous Control and Management of a Number of the Parties Subscribers, as the Directors thereof, and under certain Rules and Regulations made at the Commencement of the Association, and on the Principle that a Fraction of the Interest arising from the Securities in which the Subscriptions and Deposits were invested should be set apart by the Bank to defray the Expense of the Management thereof, as well as to meet other Contingencies: And whereas in the said Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five the Rules and Regulations of the Bank were amended, and the Number of Directors reduced to Seven, consisting of a Governor, a Deputy Governor, and Five ordinary Directors, which Number has since been continued, and the present Directors are Robert Findlay Esquire, Governor, John Wright Esquire, Deputy Governor, and James Wright Esquire, James Buchanan Esquire, Robert Findlay Alston Esquire, Thomas Buchanan Esquire, and Henry Dunlop Esquire, ordinary Directors: And whereas the Business of the Bank was successfully carried on for many Years, and large Sums of Money deposited therein in small Amounts, on which Interest was paid, greatly to the Benefit of the Depositors; but in consequence of the Number of the original Subscribers having from Time to Time become reduced by Death, and of others having ceased, from Age, Non-residence, and otherwise, to take any active Interest in its Affairs, and in consequence also of the subsequent Establishment of public Savings Banks rendering the Continuance of the Glasgow Provident Bank no longer necessary, it was some Time ago deemed expedient to take Measures for terminating its Operations: And whereas, after Two several Meetings of the Directors on the Subject, and by their Instructions, a Meeting of the Subscribers to the Bank was held on the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, at which it was resolved that the Operations of the Bank should be brought to a Close, and its Affairs wound up; and in consequence no further Deposits have since been received at the Bank, and no further Business transacted therein, saving the Repayment of Sums previously deposited, with Interest thereon, to all Parties applying for the same, and the Repayment to such of the original Subscribers or their Representatives as applied therefor of the Amount originally paid by them on their Subscriptions, with Interest thereon: And whereas, in pursuance of a Resolution at another Meeting of the said Subscribers held on the Eleventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty, a Circular was duly transmitted to all the Depositors whose Addresses were known, requesting them to come in and receive the Amount of their Deposits, and an Advertisement was at the same Time inserted in certain of the Glasgow Newspapers, the Edinburgh Gazette, and the North British Advertiser Newspaper,

intimating that the Affairs of the Bank were about to be wound up, and* that all Claims thereon would be paid on Application at the Bank, and that no Interest would be allowed on Deposits not called for from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty: And whereas the unclaimed Funds in the Custody or under the Control of the Bank amounted, at the Quarterly Meeting of the Bank held on the Sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, to the Sum of Nine thousand and fifty Pounds, consisting of the following Sums, that is to say, the Sum of Two thousand Pounds, being the Amount standing to the Credit of Depositors theretofore unclaimed, (and which Sum of Two thousand Pounds was, as on the Twenty-seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, reduced to the Sum of One thousand five hundred and five Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Sevenpence, by Payments having been made to certain of the Depositors who applied therefor subsequently to the Sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one,) and the Sum of Seven thousand and fifty Pounds, comprehending the Portion theretofore unclaimed of the Amount paid up in respect of the before-mentioned Subscriptions, with Interest, and the Amount arising from the Fraction of Interest set apart by the Bank from its Investments as aforesaid, with Interest, after paying all the Costs and Charges of Management, and which last-mentioned Amount is at the entire Disposal of the said Directors, subject to the Claims of Subscribers and Depositors, if made, for the Sums respectively due to them in respect of their Subscriptions and Deposits: And whereas the Names and Addresses of the said Subscribers and Depositors, together with the Amounts due to them respectively, all as entered in the Books of the Bank as on the Twenty-seventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, are stated in Schedules A. and B. respectively hereunto annexed: And whereas the great Majority of the original Subscribers to the Bank have departed this Life, and few of those surviving take any Interest in its Affairs, and very few Claims have hitherto been or it is believed will be made by such Subscribers still surviving for Repayment of the Sums paid up by them, and it is also believed that the Heirs or Representatives of many of the Subscribers now deceased will follow the same Course, and that the greater Number of the Parties whose Deposits remain unclaimed, or their Heirs or Representatives, (many of whose present Addresses are in fact unknown,) may not apply for Repayment, yet nevertheless it is just and proper that such of the said Subscribers and Depositors, or their Heirs or Representatives, as may desire it, should have an Opportunity of receiving Payment of the Sums to which they may be respectively entitled, in the event of their claiming the same: And whereas, after providing for and satisfying

fyng such Part of the said Subscriptions and Deposits as may be claimed, a large Amount will remain under the Control and at the Disposal of the Bank, which, together with the Balance which may be unclaimed of the said Subscriptions and Deposits, might be beneficially disposed of consistently with the original Objects of the Parties establishing the Bank; and it is therefore expedient that, after a reasonable Time allowed to the said Subscribers and Depositors, or their legal Representatives, by public Advertisement or otherwise, to come in and receive the Amounts due to them, the Balance remaining should, subject to the Conditions herein-after mentioned, be authorized to be paid or applied to or for the Benefit of certain of the most deserving charitable or benevolent Institutions in and connected with the City of Glasgow, and that the Affairs of the said Bank should thereupon be wound up, and that for these Purposes such Powers should be granted to the Court of Session in Scotland as may be necessary; but these Objects cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
