National Health Service (Superannuation)
(England and Scotland) Regulations 1948

Citation and Interpretation

2. Where a person becomes an employee of a Scottish employing authority after ceasing to be an employee of an English employing authority, an English contributory employee or local Act contributor or an English teacher, the Scottish regulations shall have effect in relation to him subject to such modifications as may be necessary to secure that he shall enjoy rights substantially similar to those which he would have enjoyed by virtue of the English regulations had he become an employee of an English employing authority.

Application of English regulations to employees of Scottish employing authorities, Scottish contributory employees or local Act contributors and Scottish teachers who become employees of English employing authorities.
