The Superannuation (English Local Government and Northern Ireland Civil Service) Interchange Rules 1957

PART IV

Miscellaneous Provisions

Rights of former insured persons to whom rule 5 has become applicable

11. Where any person to whom rule 5 of these rules has become applicable was in his employment as a civil servant an insured person within the meaning of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, then—

- (a) if he had been excepted from the operation of any provision (hereinafter called “the modification provision”) modifying his benefits under the Superannuation Acts, the provisions of any regulations made by the Minister under subsection (4) of section 69 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and the provisions of any other regulations or of any scheme replacing wholly or in part the provisions of the regulations made under the said subsection (4), shall not apply to him;
- (b) if he had not been so excepted the provisions of any such regulations or scheme as aforesaid applicable to him in his new employment shall apply to him as if any service which he becomes entitled to reckon under rule 5 of these rules, being service of which account would have been taken under the modification provision for the purpose of reducing any benefit to which the person might have become entitled under the Superannuation Acts had he continued to be subject thereto were service rendered on or after the fifth day of July, 1948.
