

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the
The National Insurance (Germany) Order 1961. (See end of Document for details)

FIRST SCHEDULE

Convention on Unemployment Insurance between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Federal Republic of Germany

Part IV

Transitional, Administrative and Final Provisions

Any document, presented for the purpose of the present Convention to the insurance authority of one Contracting Party or to any other authority of that Party concerned with social security, may be written in the official language of the other Party.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The National Insurance (Germany) Order 1961.