The Superannuation (Allocation of Pension) Rules 1965

Persons transferred to certain other employments

25. Where a person, having served in the permanent civil service of the State, is transferred to some other employment, and will, if he retires from that employment in certain circumstances, be qualified for a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts in respect of his service in the civil service, the Department in which he was serving immediately before his transfer shall, upon such transfer, and also, if requested so to do, at any time within six months before his retirement from his other employment, supply him with a copy of these Rules and of the Option Tables in force; and, for the purpose of the application of these Rules to that person, that Department shall be deemed to be the Department.
