Local Acts, orders, etc

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this order or of any other order made under section 84 of the Act—

- (a) the unrepealed provisions of any local Act or of any order made under or confirmed by any Act which affects the existing county of Hertfordshire or Surrey, otherwise than in relation to property held on a charitable trust, shall extend to the urban district of Potters Bar or the urban districts of Staines and Sunbury-on-Thames, as the case may be, and any reference therein to the county shall be construed as extending to such urban district or urban districts;
- (b) such provisions of any such Act or order which affects the existing urban district of Chigwell, otherwise than in relation to property held on a charitable trust, shall apply to the urban district as altered, and any reference therein to the urban district shall be construed as a reference to the urban district as altered.

Nothing in this paragraph applies to

- (a) the existing division of any parliamentary constituency into polling districts and designation of polling places;
- (b) any order in force under the Shops Act 1950;
- (c) any order under the Clean Air Act 1956.

(2) In section 218 of the Middlesex County Council Act 1944, there shall be substituted for “the Council”, where first and secondly occurring “the county council of Middlesex” and where thirdly occurring “the Greater London Council” .

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 87(1) of the Act the provisions of the Middlesex County Council Acts of 1944, 1950, 1956, 1959 and 1961 other than the said section 218 and the provisions specified in respect of the urban district of Potters Bar, Staines or Sunbury-on-Thames in column (1) of Part I, II or III of Schedule 2 shall not apply in such urban district.

The provisions so specified in respect of any such urban district shall have effect with the substitution for references to the county of Middlesex or the county council of that county of references to the area or authority specified in respect of such provisions in column (2).

(4) Any protective provision in any local Act or in any order made under or confirmed by any Act for the benefit of an authority abolished by section 3(1)(b) of the Act or their predecessors, or for the benefit of the county council of Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent or Surrey or the urban district council of Chigwell, or their predecessors, in respect of or in so far as it relates to any matter in the relevant area, shall enure—

- (a) if the protection relates to a highway, for the benefit of the highway authority for the highway;
- (b) if the protection relates to any other matter transferred by or under the Act to any authority, for the benefit of that authority;
- (c) in any other case, for the benefit of the council of the London borough or county in which the matter to which the protection relates is situated or the Common Council, and shall be construed as if a reference to the authority specified in (a), (b) or (c) were substituted for any reference to the authority named in the protective provision.

(5) Any provision in any local Act or in any order made under or confirmed by any Act which requires the consent (whether it empowers the requirement of conditions or otherwise) of an authority abolished by section 3(1)(b) of the Act or their predecessors, or of the county council of Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent or Surrey or the urban district council of Chigwell, or their predecessors, in respect of or in so far as it relates to any matter in the relevant area, shall have effect as if it had required the consent of (and in that event empowered the requirement of conditions by) the following authority, namely—

- (a) where the matter in respect of which the consent is required is a highway, the highway authority for the highway;
- (b) where the matter in respect of which the consent is required is any other matter transferred by or under the Act to any authority, that authority;
- (c) in any other case, the council of the London borough or county in which the matter in respect of which the consent is required is situated or the Common Council.

(6) Paragraphs (4) and (5) shall not apply to any provision in any local Act or in any order made under or confirmed by any Act in respect of which provision is made in an order made under section 84, as extended by section 87(2), of the Act.

(7) In this article “the relevant area” includes

- (a) Greater London;
- (b) any part of the sewerage area of the Greater London Council which is not in Greater London;
- (c) any area adjoining Greater London which is not within the Thames catchment area, the Lee catchment area or the area of any river board or river authority.

Adoptive Acts

6.—(1) This article does not apply to the Burial Acts 1852 to 1906 or, except in relation to the urban district of Chigwell, to any provisions which are extended to the London boroughs by the Act.

(2) The provisions of any public general Act in force immediately before 1st April 1965 throughout a borough, metropolitan borough or urban district specified in column (1) of Part I of Schedule 3 by virtue of an adoption by the council of the borough, metropolitan borough or urban district or their predecessors, and any order in force under such Act throughout the borough, metropolitan borough or urban district, shall apply to the area specified in respect of such borough, metropolitan borough or urban district in column (2).

(3) Subject to the provision of paragraph (2), the provisions of any such Act in force in any area specified in Part II of Schedule 3, and any order in force under such Act in such area, shall cease to have effect in relation to such area.

Orders under the Public Health Acts, etc

7.—(1) This article does not apply to the inner London boroughs or, except in relation to the urban district of Chigwell, to any provisions which are extended to the outer London boroughs by the Act.

(2) Subject to any order which the Minister or the Secretary of State may make to take effect on or after 1st April 1965, any order by virtue of which any provisions of the Public Health Acts 1875 to 1932 or the Highways Act 1959 are in force immediately before 1st April 1965 throughout a borough or urban district specified in column (1) of Part I of Schedule 3, and any other order under any of those Acts so in force, shall apply to the area specified in respect of such borough or urban district in column (2).

(3) Subject to the provision of paragraph (2), any order by virtue of which any such provisions are in force in any area specified in Part II of Schedule 3, and any other order under any of those Acts in force in such area, shall cease to have effect in relation to such area.

Parish council powers

8.—(1) This article does not apply to the inner London boroughs.

(2) Subject to the provisions of any order which the Minister may make to take effect on or after 1st April 1965, the provisions of any order made before that date and conferring upon the council of a borough or urban district specified in column (1) of Part I of Schedule 3 any functions of a parish council shall be deemed to have effect as if any reference in those provisions to such borough or urban district extended and applied to the area specified in respect of such borough or urban district in column (2).

Byelaws, etc., made by county councils under public general Acts

9.—(1) This article applies to instruments made under public general Acts by county councils before 1st April 1965 which apply on and after that date by virtue of paragraph (a) of section 87(1) of the Act to any part of the relevant area or to things or persons connected with a part of the relevant area.

(2) In this article—

“a county council” means the London County Council or the county council of Middlesex, Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent or Surrey;

“the relevant area” has the same meaning as in section 87 of the Act;

“the specified functions” means functions other than—functions as a local education authority, and functions in relation to parks and open spaces

exercisable in Greater London on and after 1st April 1965 by the Greater London Council.

(3) Any instrument made by the London County Council as local education authority—

(a) in so far as it relates to the Inner London Education Area or a part thereof, shall have effect as if made by, and references therein to the London County Council shall be construed as references to, the Greater London Council; and

(b) in so far as it relates to the area of the metropolitan borough of Woolwich included in the London borough of Newham, shall have effect as if made by the council of the London borough, and references therein to the London County Council shall be construed—

(i) in relation to a school maintained on and after 1st April 1965 by the Greater London Council, as references to that council; and

(ii) in any other case, as references to the council of the London borough.

(4) Any instrument which has effect in relation to a park or open space for the time being vested in or under the control and management of the Greater London Council, and any instrument made in the exercise of the specified functions and applying to any part of the relevant area or to things or persons connected with a part of the relevant area, shall have effect as if made by, and references therein to a county council shall be construed as references to, the Greater London Council.

(5) Any other instrument, in so far as it applies to a London borough or a part thereof, or to the City or a part thereof, shall have effect as if made by, and references therein to a county council shall be construed as references to, the council of the London borough or the Common Council, as the case may be:

Provided that references to the London County Council shall, in relation to a school maintained on and after 1st April 1965 by the Greater London Council, be construed as references to that council.

Enforcement, and amendment, etc., of instruments notwithstanding repeal of enactments

10.—(1) Any provision of any enactment which imposes fines on persons offending against any instrument which by virtue of paragraph (a) of section 87(1) of the Act or an order made under sections 84 and 87 of the Act applies to any area, things or persons shall continue to have effect in relation to offences against the instrument notwithstanding the repeal (whether by the Act or by such an order) of the enactment.

(2) Any instrument made under any enactment (not being byelaws in relation to which article 33 of the London Authorities (Property etc.) Order 1964 makes provision) which, by virtue of paragraph (a) of section 87(1) of the Act or an order made under sections 84 and 87 of the Act, applies, notwithstanding the repeal (whether by the Act or by such an order) of the enactment under which it was made, to any area, things or persons may be amended (without prejudice to the provision of section 87(5) of the Act) or revoked—

- (i) in the case of an instrument made by a Minister, by any appropriate Minister within the meaning of the Act; and
- (ii) in the case of any other instrument—
  - (a) where, by this order or any other order made as aforesaid, the Greater London Council is substituted in references, by that Council;
  - (b) in the case of any byelaws made by the county council of Surrey under section 66 of the Surrey County Council Act 1925, as respects any London borough, by the council of the London borough;
  - (c) in any other case, as respects any London borough or administrative county substituted in references by paragraph (b) of the said section 87(1), by the council of that London borough or administrative county, as the case may be.

Section 250(2) to (9) of the Local Government Act 1933 shall apply to byelaws for such amendment or revocation, and the Minister of Housing and Local Government or any appropriate Minister within the meaning of the Act shall be the confirming authority for the purposes of such subsections.

Port of London Authority

11.—(1) In the Port of London (Consolidation) Act 1920—

- (a) in section 6(5), for the entries relating to the London County Council there shall be substituted
“By the Greater London Council (being members of the council) ...2By the Greater London Council (not being members of the council) ...2”;
- (b) in section 6(6) and in paragraph 3 of Part II of Schedule 2, for “the London County Council”, wherever occurring, there shall be substituted “the Greater London Council”.

(2) Paragraph (2) of Part III of Schedule 2 to the Act of 1920 shall have effect in relation to the members of the Port of London Authority appointed by the Greater London Council (or appointed by the London County Council and remaining in office under paragraph (3)) with the substitution, in relation to 1967 and every third year thereafter, for “the first day of April” of “the first day of July”.

(3) The members of the Port of London Authority appointed by the London County Council in office at 1st April 1965 shall remain in office as if they had been appointed in June 1964 by the Greater London Council, and paragraph (3) of Part II of Schedule 2 to the Act of 1920 shall not apply to the members so appointed as being members of the London County Council.

Metropolitan Water Board

12.—(1) In this article—

“the Act of 1902” means the Metropolis Water Act 1902(21);

“constituent authority” means an authority entitled to appoint a member or members of the Water Board; and

(2) In the Act of 1902—

(a) for section 1(3) there shall be substituted—

“(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Water Board shall consist of a chairman and a vice-chairman who shall be appointed by the Board and thirty-nine other members who shall be appointed as follows:—

Six by the Greater London Council.

One by each of the councils of the London boroughs of Barnet, Bexley, Brent, Bromley, Camden, Ealing, Enfield, Greenwich, Hackney, Hammersmith, Haringey, Hounslow, Islington, Kensington and Chelsea, Kingston upon Thames, Lambeth, Lewisham, Merton, Newham, Redbridge, Richmond upon Thames, Southwark, Tower Hamlets, Waltham Forest, Wandsworth and Westminster.

One by the Common Council of the City.

One by each of the councils of the counties of Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent and Surrey.

One by the Conservators of the River Thames.

One by the Lee Conservancy Catchment Board.”

(b) for section 15(2) there shall be substituted—

“(2) Any sum required to meet any deficiency in the water fund, whether for satisfying past or future liabilities, in any financial year, shall be apportioned amongst the London boroughs, the City of London and the non-county boroughs and urban and rural districts, the whole or part of which is within the limits of supply of the Water Board, in proportion to the rateable value appearing in the valuation lists on the preceding 6th April of the hereditaments at that date supplied with water by the Water Board in the City and in each of the said boroughs and districts.”

(c) in section 15(3), in paragraph (b), for “metropolitan” there shall be substituted “London”.

(d) in section 37, in the definition of “constituent authority”, “group of councils” shall be omitted.

(e) in Schedule 3, in paragraph 4 the words “or one of the Councils”, paragraphs 8 to 11, and in paragraph 13 the words “to be made at such time as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Local Government Board”, shall be omitted.

(3) In the Metropolitan Water Board (Term of Office) Order 1952, article 4 shall be omitted.

In the Metropolitan Water Board (Amendment of Constitution) Order 1956, article 3 shall be omitted.

The Metropolitan Water Board (Appointment of Joint Committees and Members) Regulations 1956 are hereby revoked.

(4) Each constituent authority shall at a meeting of the authority during the month of June or July in 1965 and in every third year thereafter appoint such number of members of the Water Board as the authority are entitled to appoint and as is specified in section 1(3) of the Act of 1902 as substituted by paragraph (2).

The clerk or other officer or person by whom notices of meetings of a constituent authority are given shall give to every member of the authority not less than three days' previous notice in writing of the meeting at which the appointment of any member of the Water Board in pursuance of this paragraph is to be made, and of the intention to make the appointment.

(5) Paragraph 4 of Schedule 3 to the Act of 1902 shall not have effect in the case of a member of the Water Board who ceases to be a member of the council by whom he is appointed by reason only of the abolition of that council by section 3(1)(b) of the Act.

West Kent Main Sewerage Board

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the local Acts and orders applicable to the West Kent Main Sewerage Board (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”), the councils of the London boroughs of Bexley and Bromley shall be represented on the Board by seven members and nine members, respectively, of such councils. Councillors representing wards of such boroughs wholly within the sewerage area of the Greater London Council shall not be eligible for election as members or entitled to vote at the election of members.

(2) Each of the said councils shall elect the number of members of the Board assigned to them by paragraph (1), to come into office on 1st April 1965 or if elected after that date on their election and to hold office until the annual meeting of the council in 1966. The clerk of the council shall forthwith notify to the secretary of the Board the names, addresses and descriptions of the members elected.

(3) The members of the Board elected by the councils of the boroughs of Beckenham, Bexley, Bromley and Erith and the urban districts of Chislehurst and Sidcup, Crayford and Orpington shall retire on 1st April 1965.

(4) The provision of section 87(7) of the Act shall not affect article VI of the West Kent Order confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 7) Act 1886.

Commissioners of sewers

14. The commissioners of sewers for the levels of Havering, Dagenham, Ripple, Barking, East Ham, West Ham, Leyton, Walthamstow, Bromley and East Marsh are hereby dissolved.

Merton and Sutton Joint Cemetery Board

15.—(1) The Carshalton and Merton and Morden Joint Cemetery Board shall continue to exist as a joint cemetery board by the name of the Merton and Sutton Joint Cemetery Board for a united district comprising the London boroughs of Merton and Sutton, but shall not be empowered to provide a new cemetery, and section 7 of the Public Health Act 1936 (Restriction on discharge of functions by local authorities within united district) shall not apply to the said London boroughs by reason of the provision of this paragraph.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) and for making new provision for the election of members of the said Board, the Merton and Morden and Carshalton Joint Cemetery Order 1943 (under which the said Board was originally constituted) shall have effect with the following modifications—

(a) for the definitions of “constituent district”, “the joint board” and “the united district” there shall be substituted the following definitions, namely—

“‘constituent district’ means the London borough of Merton or Sutton;”

“‘the joint board’ means the Merton and Sutton Joint Cemetery Board;”

“‘the united district’ means the Merton and Sutton Joint Cemetery District;”

(b) in article 3(1), for “Merton and Morden and Carshalton Joint Cemetery District” there shall be substituted “Merton and Sutton Joint Cemetery District” and “or cemeteries” shall be omitted;

the correction of a registration book under regulation 11(3) of the said Regulations; and the notification of any alteration of a vehicle under regulations 13 and 14 of the said Regulations, in addition to being deemed to be registered, or being registrable, with the Greater London Council, be deemed until 1st April 1966 to be registered or registrable with the county council with which it was previously registered or registrable, and accordingly either the Greater London council or that county council may act for the said purposes in respect of such vehicle until that date, and applications or declarations made, notifications given or other things done to or by the county council of Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent or Surrey for any of the said purposes in respect of such vehicle shall not be deemed to have effect as if made, given or done to or by any other council until 1st April 1966.

(4) The clerk of the London County Council, the county council of Middlesex or the council of the county borough of Croydon, East Ham or West Ham shall immediately before 1st April 1965 deliver the vehicle files of vehicles registered with the council to the clerk to the Greater London Council.

The clerk to the Greater London Council shall as soon as may be after 1st April 1965 send to the clerk of the county council of Hertfordshire or Surrey the vehicle files of vehicles registered with the county council of Middlesex ordinarily kept in the urban district of Potters Bar or the urban district of Staines and Sunbury-on-Thames, as the case may be.

The clerk of the county council of Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent or Surrey shall at such time as he thinks it appropriate but not later than 1st April 1966 send to the clerk to the Greater London Council the vehicle files of vehicles registered with the council ordinarily kept in Greater London.

(5) Any driving licence granted by a council specified in column (2) of the table in paragraph (3) to a person residing in an area specified in column (1) shall be deemed to have been granted by the council specified in column (3), and any application for a driving licence, or declaration on such application, made to the first-mentioned council by a person so residing shall have effect as if made to the council specified in column (3):

Provided that an applicant for the grant of a driving licence under section 101 of the Road Traffic Act 1960 and regulation 4 of the Motor Vehicle (Driving Licences) Regulations 1963 who resides in an area in Greater London which before 1st April 1965 was part of the county of Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent or Surrey shall, for the purposes of those provisions, in addition to residing in Greater London be deemed until 1st April 1966 to reside in such county, and accordingly either the Greater London Council or the county council of that county may act for the purposes of those provisions until that date, and any application for a driving licence, or declaration on such application, made to such county council by such applicant shall not be deemed to have effect as if made to any other council until 1st April 1966.

(6) Any driving licence issued to a person not resident in Great Britain in pursuance of regulation 22(1) of the Motor Vehicles (Driving Licences) Regulations 1963 by the London County Council, the county council of Middlesex or the council of the county borough of Croydon, East Ham or West Ham shall be deemed to have been issued by the Greater London Council.

(7) Any proceedings pending or existing at 1st April 1965 by, or against a council specified in column (2) of the table in paragraph (3) in respect of any vehicle ordinarily kept in an area specified in column (1) or in respect of an offence or alleged offence under section 7, 10(4), 12(9), 17 or 18 of the Vehicles (Excise) Act 1962 committed or alleged to have been committed by a person in such area, or in respect of an application for a driving licence made by a person residing at the time of that application in such area, or in respect of a refusal to grant or a revocation of licence in respect of such a person, shall not be prejudicially affected by reason of the Act, and may be continued, prosecuted and enforced by, or against, the council specified in column (3).

(8) Any other proceedings pending or existing at 1st April 1965 in respect of an application for a driving licence made to the London County Council, the county council of Middlesex or the council of the county borough of Croydon, East Ham or West Ham, or in respect of a refusal to grant or a revocation of a licence by any such council, shall not be prejudicially affected by reason of the Act, and may be continued, prosecuted and enforced by, or against, the Greater London Council.

Hackney carriage and drivers' licences

22. Any licence in respect of any hackney carriage or any driver of a hackney carriage issued by the council of the borough of Romford or the urban district of Hornchurch under the provisions of the Town Police Clauses Act 1847 as incorporated with the Public Health Act 1875 shall cease to have effect upon the grant under the Metropolitan Public Carriage Act 1869 of a licence in respect of such carriage or driver, but shall otherwise continue in force for the period for which it was granted.

Sewerage and sewage disposal

23.—(1) In this article—

“the Act of 1936” means the Public Health Act 1936;

“an agreement” means an agreement under section 28 of the Act of 1936 in force immediately before 1st April 1965, or in relation to paragraph (5) immediately before the sewer or sewage disposal works in question vests or vest in the Greater London Council;

“section 35” means section 35 of the Act;

“sewerage authority” has the same meaning as in Part II of the Act of 1936.

(2) The provisions of this article shall be without prejudice to the rights of the parties to an agreement to amend or dissolve that agreement.

(3) Where a sewer which by virtue of section 35 vests in a London borough council is the subject of an agreement in pursuance of which it communicates or may be made to communicate with a sewer, or discharges or may discharge into sewage disposal works, which on and after 1st April 1965 is or are vested in a sewerage authority other than that council, unless the other sewerage authority is the Greater London Council, the said agreement shall have effect on and after 1st April 1965, subject to the provisions of this article, as if the council in whom the first-mentioned sewer vests as aforesaid were substituted as a party thereto for the sewerage authority in whom such sewer was vested immediately before that date.

(4) Where a sewer or sewage disposal works which by virtue of section 35 vests or vest in a London borough council is or are the subject of an agreement in pursuance of which a sewer which on and after 1st April 1965 is vested in a sewerage authority other than that council communicates or may be made to communicate with the first-mentioned sewer or discharges or may discharge into the said sewage disposal works, the said agreement shall have effect, on and after 1st April 1965, subject to the provisions of this order, as if the council in whom the first-mentioned sewer or the said sewage disposal works vests or vest as aforesaid were substituted as a party thereto for the sewerage authority in whom that sewer or those works was or were vested immediately before that date.

(5) Where a sewer or sewage disposal works which vests or vest in the Greater London Council by virtue of section 35 is or are the subject of an agreement in pursuance of which a sewer vested in a sewerage authority other than the Greater London Council communicates or may be made to communicate with the first-mentioned sewer or discharges or may discharge into the said sewage disposal works, the said agreement shall—

- (a) if that other sewerage authority is a London borough council, cease to have effect on the day when the first-mentioned sewer or the said sewage disposal works vests or vest in the Greater London Council;
- (b) in any other case, have effect on and after that day as if the Greater London Council were substituted as a party thereto for the sewerage authority in whom the first-mentioned sewer or the said sewage disposal works was or were vested immediately before that day.

Trade effluent

24.—(1) In this article—

“the Act of 1937” means the Public Health (Drainage of Trade Premises) Act 1937;

“the Act of 1953” means the London County Council (General Powers) Act 1953;

“the Act of 1961” means the Public Health Act 1961;

“the Act of 1962” means the London County Council (General Powers) Act 1962;

“trade effluent” has the same meaning as in the Act of 1937.

(2) With respect to any discharge of trade effluent which immediately before 1st April 1965 is subject to conditions imposed under section 10 of the Act of 1953 the following provisions shall have effect on and after that date:—

- (a) the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of the Act of 1937 shall not apply in relation to the discharge but for the purposes of section 1 of that Act consent to the discharge of trade effluent shall be deemed to have been given under the said section 2;
- (b) conditions imposed under section 10 of the Act 1953 or section 7 of the Act of 1962 and charges imposed under section 5 of the Act of 1962 shall continue in force (whether or not they could have been imposed under the Act of 1937 or the Act of 1961) and, subject to the provisions of this order, may be enforced or recovered and varied by the Greater London Council as if they had been included in conditions attached to a consent given by that council under section 2 of the Act of 1937;
- (c) with respect to the variation of such conditions and charges section 60 of the Act of 1961 shall have effect as if the words “under subsection (3) of section two of the Act of 1937” in subsection (1) thereof were omitted and as if the reference in subsection (2) thereof to the date of the consent were a reference to the date when the conditions imposed under section 10 of the Act of 1953 came into force;
- (d) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b), where immediately before 1st April 1965 particulars of such conditions and charges as are mentioned therein are, by virtue of the provisions of section 16 of the Act of 1953 or section 6 of the Act of 1962, included in any register of trade premises, they shall continue to be registered on and after that date and any register continued in operation by virtue of this paragraph shall remain subject to the provisions to which it is subject immediately before 1st April 1965 under subsection (3) of the said section 16 or, as the case may be, under subsection (5) of the said section 6.

(3) Where, in the case of any discharge of trade effluent which is not subject to conditions imposed under section 10 of the Act of 1953, charges imposed under section 5 of the Act of 1962 or conditions imposed under section 7 of that Act are in force with respect to that discharge immediately before 1st April 1965, such charges or conditions shall continue in force on and after that date (whether or not they could have been imposed under the Act of 1961) and, subject to the provisions of this order, may be enforced, recovered or varied by the Greater London Council as if the discharge of trade effluent were exempted under section 4(2) of the Act of 1937 and the charges or conditions had been imposed by that council under section 55 or 57 of the Act of 1961 by a direction given (in the case of charges) on the date on which the occupier of the premises in question was first required to pay the charges pursuant to section 5 of the Act of 1962 or (in the case of conditions) on the date on which notice of a direction imposing the conditions was given under section 7 of the Act of 1962.

(4) Where, immediately before 1st April 1965, particulars of such charges and conditions are, by virtue of the provisions of section 16 of the Act of 1953 or section 6 of the Act of 1962, included in any register of trade premises, they shall continue to be registered on and after that date, and any register continued in operation by virtue of this paragraph shall remain subject to the provisions to which it is subject immediately before 1st April 1965 under subsection (3) of the said section 16 or, as the case may be, under subsection (5) of the said section 6.

(5) Where immediately before 1st April 1965 there is in force with respect to the discharge of trade effluent from any premises in the sewerage area of the Greater London Council as constituted on 1st April 1965 any consent, direction, condition or charge duly given or imposed under the Act of 1937 or the Act of 1961, that consent, direction, condition or charge shall on and after that date be deemed to have been given or imposed as aforesaid by the Greater London Council.

(6) Where immediately before 1st April 1965 there is in force with respect to the discharge of trade effluent from any premises in Greater London outside the sewerage area of the Greater London Council as constituted on 1st April 1965 any consent, direction, condition or charge duly given or imposed under the Act of 1937 or the Act of 1961, that consent, direction, condition or charge shall on and after that date be deemed to have been given or imposed as aforesaid by the council of the London borough in which the premises in question are situate.

(7) Any agreement in force immediately before 1st April 1965 with respect to the discharge into a sewer of trade effluent from any premises in the sewerage area of the Greater London Council as constituted on 1st April 1965 duly made between the London County Council, the Common Council or the council of a metropolitan borough or county district and the owner or occupier of the premises shall on and after that date have effect (subject to any necessary modifications) as if it were an agreement duly made between the Greater London Council and such owner or occupier.

(8) Any agreement in force immediately before 1st April 1965 with respect to the discharge into a sewer of trade effluent from any premises duly made between the council of the county district in which the premises were then situated, the county council of Middlesex and the owner or occupier of the premises shall on and after that date have effect (subject to any necessary modifications) as if it were an agreement duly made between the council of the London borough or county district in which the premises are situated, the Greater London Council and such owner or occupier.

(9) Any agreement in force immediately before 1st April 1965 with respect to the discharge into a sewer of trade effluent from any premises in a part of Greater London which is not within the sewerage area of the Greater London Council as constituted on 1st April 1965 duly made between the council of the county district in which the premises were then situated and the owner or occupier of the premises shall on and after that date have effect (subject to any necessary modifications) as if it were an agreement duly made between the council of the London borough in which the premises are situated and such owner or occupier.

(10) Agreements made under section 7 of the Act of 1937 or section 11 of the Act of 1953 to which by virtue of the provisions of this article the council of a London borough or the Greater London Council becomes a party shall be deemed for the purposes of section 7(3) of the Act of 1937 to have been entered into by that council in pursuance of the said section 7.

(11) Where an area is first included in the sewerage area of the Greater London Council by virtue of an order under section 39(1)(b) of the Act which comes into operation after 1st April 1965 the following provisions shall have effect:—

- (a) where immediately before the day when the order comes into operation there is in force with respect to the discharge of trade effluent from any premises in the area in question any consent, direction, condition or charge duly given or imposed under the Act of 1937 or the Act of 1961, that consent, direction, condition or charge shall on and after the said day be deemed to have been given or imposed as aforesaid by the Greater London Council;
- (b) any agreement in force immediately before the said day with respect to the discharge into a sewer of trade effluent from any premises in the area in question duly made, or having effect as if made, between the council of a London borough or county district and the owner or occupier of the premises shall on and after the said day have effect (subject to any necessary modifications) as if it were an agreement duly made between the Greater London Council and such owner or occupier.

Dustbins for trade refuse

25.—(1) The council of an inner London borough may by notice require the occupier of any building within the borough, in respect of which they remove trade refuse or have been requested to remove trade refuse, to provide such number of covered dustbins for the reception of trade refuse of such material, size and construction as the council may approve. Any person aggrieved by a requirement of the council under this paragraph may appeal to a magistrates' court.

(2) Subsection (2) of section 75 of the Public Health Act 1936 shall apply to a notice under paragraph (1) as it applies to a notice under subsection (1) of the said section 75.

(3) The council of an inner London borough may, in lieu of requiring the occupiers of buildings to provide and maintain dustbins for the reception of trade refuse, undertake themselves to provide and maintain such dustbins as may be necessary, and, so long as such an undertaking is in force, the council may, if they think fit, make in respect of each dustbin provided by them such annual charge of reasonable amount as they may determine but not exceeding, in the case of a dustbin having a capacity not exceeding 3¼ cubic feet, the limit for the time being applicable, by virtue of section 8(3) of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1953, in respect of a dustbin provided under section 75(3) of the Public Health Act 1936. Such charge shall become due and shall be recoverable in the same manner as the charge provided for by section 75(3) of the Public Health Act 1936.

Housing

26.—(1) The general management, regulation and control of houses provided under Part V of the Housing Act 1957 transferred by the Act or the London Authorities (Property etc.) Order 1964 to any authority shall be vested in and exercised by such authority, and such authority may make such reasonable charges for the tenancy or occupation of the houses as they may determine.

(2) Any resolution passed or other proceeding taken under the Small Dwellings Acquisition Act 1899 or the Housing Acts 1957 to 1964 (including orders (other than compulsory purchase orders), notices, agreements, undertakings and demands made, given or entered into under those Acts) by the council of any county borough, metropolitan borough or county district abolished by section 3(1) (b) of the Act or the urban district council of Chigwell in relation to any house, building or land in a London borough shall have effect or be continued by the council of the London borough as if the resolution or proceeding has been passed or taken by them, and any reference in any such resolution or proceeding to a council abolished as aforesaid or to the urban district council of Chigwell shall be read as a reference to the council of the London borough.

Private street works

27.—(1) The provisions of this article shall have effect in relation to any streets as respects which, as the result of the Act, the council of an outer London borough (in the article referred to as “the new street works authority” ) become the street works authority under Part IX of the Highways Act 1959 in place of the council of any county borough or county district (in this article referred to as “the former street works authority” ).

(2) In relation to any sum paid or secured under section 192 of the Highways Act 1959 before 1st April 1965 the new street works authority shall be the street works authority for the purposes of sections 192 to 198 of the said Act.

(3) Any notices given or proceedings taken by, or on behalf of, the former street works authority under the appropriate private street works code (as defined in section 213(3) of the said Act) in relation to the street shall not be affected by reason of the Act, and such proceedings, and any works commenced under the said code, may be continued and completed, in accordance with the provisions of the said code, by the new street works authority as if the said code had applied to them and they had given the notices, taken the proceedings or commenced the works.

(4) Where, at 1st April 1965, any works under the said code have been commenced but not completed in the street the new street works authority shall be entitled to recover—

- (a) such of the expenses incurred by the former street works authority as that authority could have recovered under the said code, and
- (b) such of the expenses incurred by themselves as the said authority could have recovered under the said code had they completed the works:

and the new street works authority shall have all such powers for the recovery of such expenses as they would have had if the said code had applied to them and they had executed the whole of the works, and all the provisions of the said code shall apply accordingly.

(5) Where, at 1st April 1965, any works under the said code have been completed in the street the new street works authority shall have all such powers for the recovery of the expenses incurred in the execution of the works as they would have had if the said code had applied to them and they had undertaken the works, and all the provisions of the said code shall apply accordingly.

Places of burial

28.—(1) Any burial ground maintained under the Burial Acts 1852 to 1906 transferred to the council of a London borough by the London Authorities (Property etc.) Order 1964 (hereinafter referred to as “the order of 1964”) shall be held by them as a cemetery under the Public Health (Interments) Act 1879

(2) Any such burial ground and any cemetery under the Public Health (Interments) Act 1879 so transferred shall be treated as if it were provided for the whole of the borough:

Provided that—

- (a) any cemetery of the urban district council of Chislehurst and Sidcup transferred to the council of the London borough of Bexley or Bromley shall be treated as if it were provided for the whole of the London boroughs of Bexley and Bromley;
- (b) the Bandon Hill cemetery transferred to the councils of the London boroughs of Croydon and Sutton shall be treated as if it were provided for the whole of such London boroughs.

(3) The burial ground maintained under the Burial Acts 1852 to 1906 by the Common Council shall be held by them as a cemetery under the Public Health (Interments) Act 1879.

(4) Any table of fees to be received by a burial authority (within the meaning of section 3 of the Burial Act 1900 as amended by section 3(2) of the Cremation Act 1952 in respect of services rendered by any minister of religion or sexton in any burial ground or cemetery to which paragraph (1), (2) or (3) applies in force immediately before 1st April 1965 shall remain in force notwithstanding the provisions of the Act, the order of 1964 and this article.

(5) Nothing in the Act, the order of 1964 or this article shall affect any right of burial or of constructing a place of burial which any person may have acquired prior to 1st April 1965 or prejudicially affect the amount of any fee, payment or sum in respect of interment in, or the right of erecting or placing any monument, gravestone, tablet or monumental inscription on, any grave or place of burial in respect of which any such right has been so acquired.

(6) Nothing in this article shall prejudicially affect any right, privilege, authority or duty exercisable by or attaching to any incumbent or sexton under the Burial Acts 1852 to 1906.

(7) Articles 31 and 32 of the order of 1964 shall not apply to any burial ground or cemetery to which paragraph (1) or (2) applies.

Borrowing

32.—(1) Where under the London Authorities (Property etc.) Order 1964 or any adjustment made in consequence of the Act any liability or part of a liability charged indifferently on all the revenues, lands, rents and property of the London County Council, or by virtue of this article on all the revenues, lands, rents and property of any other public body, is transferred to any other public body, the liability or part of the liability shall be charged indifferently on all the revenues, lands, rents and property of the public body to whom it is transferred and shall cease to be a charge on any revenues, lands, rents and property of the public body from whom it is transferred.

In this article, “public body” and “revenues” have the same meaning as in the Local Government Act 1933.

Article 37 of the London Authorities (Property etc.) Order 1964 shall not apply to any liability or part of a liability to which this article applies.

(2) In the Local Authorities (Stock) Regulations 1934 (24), in article 2(1), in the definition of “Local Authority”, for “other than the London County Council” there shall be substituted “the Greater London Council”.

In the application of the said Regulations to the Greater London Council—

- (a) the proviso to article 14(2) shall be omitted;
- (b) for article 40 there shall be substituted—

“Unclaimed Stock

40.—(1) If at the end of the period within which any stock is required to be extinguished the Greater London Council, by reason of the holder of any such stock not being forthcoming, or by reason of any doubt as to the ownership of any such stock, are unable to redeem, extinguish and cancel such stock as required by these regulations, the Greater London Council shall carry to their consolidated loans fund a sum equal to the nominal value of all such stock as cannot be redeemed by reason as aforesaid, such sum to be dealt with as hereinafter prescribed, and thereupon such stock shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

(2) If before the end of the period within which any stock is required to be extinguished the Greater London Council have extinguished all the stock, except such as cannot be redeemed as aforesaid, the Greater London Council may carry to their consolidated loans fund a sum equal to the nominal value of all such stock as cannot be redeemed as aforesaid, such sum to be dealt with as hereinafter prescribed, and thereupon such stock shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

(3) Any sums carried by the Greater London Council to their consolidated loans fund as aforesaid shall, unless applied in satisfaction of a claim in respect of the stock represented by the same, be kept in the fund for a period of ten years, after which time the Greater London Council may apply the amount and any interest thereon in such manner as they think fit, without prejudice, nevertheless, to the rights of any person to the said sums or any part thereof.”

(3) The Greater London Council may, prior to the passing of the Bill for the annual money Act for the financial period 1st April 1965 to 30th September 1966 to be promoted by them—

- (a) expend on capital account for such purposes as may be mentioned in the Bill as presented to the House of Commons such sums as the Council think fit not exceeding the amounts specified in the Bill in relation to those purposes for the first twelve months of the said financial period; and
- (b) lend to persons of any class specified in the Bill as so presented such sums as the Council think fit not exceeding the amounts specified in the Bill in relation to loans to persons of that class for the said first twelve months.

Paragraph 27(5), (6) and (7) of Schedule 2 to the Act shall apply to money lent under this paragraph.

Paragraph 29 of Schedule 2 to the Act shall have effect until the passing of the Bill described in this paragraph as if, after the words “an annual money Act” there were inserted the words “or by the London Government Order 1965”.

Accounts relating to parking meters

33.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (4) shall apply to any London borough council named in column (2) of Schedule 4 where an authority or authorities specified in respect of such council in column (1) kept, on 31st March 1965, an account under section 89 of the Road Traffic Act 1960.

(2) Any consent to the carrying forward in such account of any amount given by the Minister of Transport under subsection (2) of the said section to an authority specified as aforesaid shall have effect as if it had been given to the London borough council.

(3) The purposes to which any surplus in the account kept by the London borough council under the said section are to be applied shall include the making good to the general rate fund of the council of any amounts charged under subsection (2) of the said section to the general rate fund of an authority specified as aforesaid in the four years immediately preceding the financial year in question.

(4) In the application of subsection (5) of the said section the reference to the date when the local authority first keep an account required by subsection (1) shall be treated as a reference to the date when an authority specified in column (1) as aforesaid first kept such an account.

Amalgamation of capital, and renewal and repairs, funds

34.—(1) This article shall apply to the Greater London Council or a London borough council on the establishment by such council of a capital fund or a renewal and repairs fund under section 1 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1953 (in this article referred to as “the new capital fund” or “the new renewal and repairs fund”, as the case may be).

(2) Any capital fund transferred to the council by the London Authorities (Property etc.) Order 1964 shall be amalgamated with the new capital fund, and accordingly—

- (a) all moneys in or standing to the credit of such fund shall form part of or stand to the credit of the new capital fund;
- (b) any amount which, but for the provision of this paragraph, would fall to be paid or credited to such fund under the provisions of any enactment shall, subject to the provisions of section 2(2) of the said Act, be paid into the new capital fund.

(3) Any renewal and repairs fund so transferred to the council shall be amalgamated with the new renewal and repairs fund, and accordingly—
