INDUSTRIAL TRAINING

The Industrial Training Levy (Electricity Supply) Order 1966

Made - - - -	11th August 1966
Laid before Parliament	22nd August 1966
Coming into Operation	24th August 1966

The Minister of Labour after approving proposals submitted by the Electricity Supply Industry Training Board for the imposition of a levy in the electricity supply industry and by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 4 of the Industrial Training Act 1964(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Order:—

Title and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Industrial Training Levy (Electricity Supply) Order 1966 and shall come into operation on 24th August 1966.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a) “activities of the electricity supply industry” means any activities which, subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the industrial training order, are specified in paragraph 1 of that Schedule as activities of the electricity supply industry;
- (b) “an appeal tribunal” means an industrial tribunal established under section 12 of the Industrial Training Act 1964;
- (c) “assessment” means an assessment of an employer to the levy;
- (d) “emoluments” means all emoluments assessable to income tax under Schedule E (other than pensions), being emoluments from which tax under that Schedule is deductible, whether or not tax in fact falls to be deducted from any particular payment thereof;
- (e) “employer” means any of the following employers in the electricity supply industry, that is to say—
 - (i) the Electricity Council;
 - (ii) the Central Electricity Generating Board;
 - (iii) an Area Electricity Board;
 - (iv) the North of Scotland Hydro-Electric Board;
 - (v) the South of Scotland Electricity Board;
 - (vi) the London Transport Board;
- (f) “the first base period” means the period of twelve months that commenced on 1st April 1965;
- (g) “the first levy period” means the period commencing with the date upon which this Order comes into operation and ending on 30th June 1967;
- (h) “the Industrial Training Board” means the Electricity Supply Industry Training Board;

- (i) "the industrial training order" means the Industrial Training (Electricity Supply Board) Order 1965(a);
- (j) "the levy" means the levy imposed by the Industrial Training Board in respect of the first levy period;
- (k) "notice" means a notice in writing.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Imposition of the Levy

3. The levy to be imposed by the Industrial Training Board on employers in respect of the first levy period shall be assessed and paid in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

Assessment of the Levy

4.—(1) The levy shall be assessed by the Industrial Training Board in respect of each employer.

(2) The amount of the levy imposed on an employer shall be a sum equal to 0.02 per cent. of the total emoluments of the persons employed by the employer in activities of the electricity supply industry in the first base period, the said sum being rounded down to the nearest £1.

Assessment Notice

5.—(1) The Industrial Training Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employer.

(2) An assessment notice shall state the address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing.

(3) An assessment notice may be served on an employer by sending it by post to the employer's principal office.

Payment of the Levy

6.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and of Articles 7 and 8, the amount of each assessment appearing in an assessment notice served by the Industrial Training Board shall be payable by the employer to the Board in two equal instalments, of which the first such instalment shall be due one month after the date of the notice and the other after 5 further months.

(2) An instalment of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Industrial Training Board until there has expired the time allowed for appealing against the assessment by Article 8(1) of this Order and any further period or periods of time that the Industrial Training Board or an appeal tribunal may have allowed for appealing under paragraph (2) or (3) of that Article or, where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of Assessment

7.—(1) The Industrial Training Board may, by notice served on the employer in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if the employer has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of Article 8 of this Order and the appeal has not been decided or withdrawn.

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice on the employer.

Appeals

8.—(1) An employer assessed to the levy may appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that may be allowed by the Industrial Training Board or an appeal tribunal under the following provisions of this Article.

(2) The Industrial Training Board by notice may for good cause allow an employer assessed to the levy to appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment at any time within the period of 4 months from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within such further period or periods as the said Board may allow before such time as may then be limited for appealing has expired.

(3) If the Industrial Training Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an appeal tribunal shall upon application made to the tribunal by the employer assessed to the levy have the like powers as the said Board under the foregoing paragraph.

(4) An appeal or an application to an appeal tribunal under this Article shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales) Regulations 1965(a) except where the employer is the North of Scotland Hydro-Electric Board or the South of Scotland Electricity Board in which case the appeal or application shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) Regulations 1965(b).

(5) The powers of an appeal tribunal under paragraph (3) of this Article may be exercised by the President of the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales) or by the President of the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) as the case may be.

Evidence

9.—(1) Upon the discharge of an employer's liability under an assessment the Industrial Training Board shall if so requested issue to the employer a certificate to that effect.

(2) The production in any proceedings of a document purporting to be certified by the Secretary of the Industrial Training Board to be a true copy of an assessment or other notice issued by the Board or of a certificate such as is mentioned in the foregoing paragraph of this Article shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the document and of the facts stated therein.

11th August 1966.

R. J. Gunter,
Minister of Labour.

(a) S.I. 1965/1101 (1965 II, p.2805).

(b) S.I. 1965/1157 (1965 II, p.3266).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order gives effect to proposals submitted to the Minister of Labour by the Electricity Supply Industry Training Board for the imposition of a levy on employers in the Electricity Supply Industry for the purpose of raising money towards the expenses of the Board.

The levy is to be imposed in respect of the first levy period commencing with the date on which this Order comes into operation and ending on 30th June 1967. The levy will be assessed by the industrial training board and there will be a right of appeal against an assessment to an industrial tribunal.
