WAGES COUNCILS

The Wages Regulation (Road Haulage) Order 1966

Made -	-	•	-	10th May 1966
Coming i	nto O	perat	ion	15th June 1966

Whereas the Minister of Labour (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Road Haulage Wages Council the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 11 of the Wages Councils Act 1959(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Road Haulage) Order 1966.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 15th June 1966, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Road Haulage) Order 1965(c) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour.

10th May 1966.

L. J. Dunnett, Secretary, Ministry of Labour.

PART III

REGULAR WORKERS INCLUDING MILK WORKERS

This Part of this Schedule applies to regular workers including milk workers.

WORKERS TEMPORARILY TRANSFERRED

12. A worker who is temporarily transferred away from his normal home depot and stationed in another locality (beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home) for more than one week shall be paid either the rates of wages appropriate to the locality in which his normal home depot is situated, or those appropriate to the new locality in which he has been stationed, whichever is more favourable to the worker.

HOURLY RATE

13. For the purpose of calculating the hourly rates of regular workers, the rates of wages specified in paragraphs 1 and 6 shall be divided by 41.

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION

- 14.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the other paragraphs of this Schedule, where in any week a worker has performed some road haulage work for the employer and the total remuneration payable for time worked and time deemed to have been worked (excluding overtime and special payments as defined in sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph) is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, be that guaranteed weekly remuneration with the addition of any amount which may be payable in respect of overtime and by way of special payments.
 - (2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is the pay for 41 hours, reduced by any time not reckonable by reason of sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph and excluding special payments, calculated as follows:---
 - (a) for the time worked and time deemed to have been worked at the rate or rates applicable to such work (but excluding overtime) and
 - (b) for the remaining time at the time rate normally applicable to the worker.
 - (3) In calculating the guaranteed weekly remuneration no account shall be taken of (a) any time during which the worker is absent from work with or without leave of the employer or on account of sickness or (b) any time during which the worker is suspended from work following the expiry of any notice given to him in any of the following manners and circumstances:—
 - (i) flood, snow, ice or other climatic conditions of such a nature as to preclude the operation of the vehicle, provided that not less than 24 hours' notice of the suspension of work shall be given individually to the worker and by the posting of a notice in the depot or other mutually convenient place;
 - (ii) where the employer is unable to carry on his business by reason of a strike or lock-out, provided that not less than 4 days' notice of such inability is given to the worker;
 - (iii) where the employer is unable to operate a vehicle or vehicles owing to the restriction of his fuel supply under any enactment or regulation made thereunder, provided that not less than 24 hours' notice of such inability is given to the worker or workers concerned:

Provided that the foregoing notices shall not be given when the worker is away from his home depot, and the suspension shall not operate until the required notice has been given to the worker on his return to his home depot.

- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:-
 - (a) in addition to any time deemed to have been worked under the other provisions of this Schedule;
 - (i) where a worker is allowed a day as a customary holiday or in lieu of a customary holiday or an annual holiday he shall be deemed to have worked the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week;
 - (ii) where a worker is required to work on a day of customary holiday he shall be deemed to have worked the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week notwithstanding that he was employed for less than that number of hours:

Provided that if a worker works on a customary holiday in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 26(2)(b) or paragraph 27(2)(b) or on a day in the circumstances set out in the proviso to paragraph 26(4)(a) or paragraph 27(4)(a) he shall be deemed only to have worked double the number of hours worked by him on that day (part of an hour being counted as an hour).

- (b) "Special payments" means the following amounts :---
 - (i) Any additional payment for night work payable under paragraph 20.
 - (ii) Any amount payable under paragraph 22 (payment for telephoning for instructions whilst off duty).
 - (iii) Any subsistence allowance (other than payment for hours during which the worker is deemed to be on duty) payable under paragraph 23.
 - (iv) Any amount payable in respect of customary holidays occurring on the worker's weekly half-holiday or, in the case of a five-day worker, on a Saturday, or, in the case of a milk worker, on his normal day of rest, under provisos (a) (b) and (c) of paragraph 26(1) or under provisos (i), (ii) and (iii) of paragraph 27(1).
- (5) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to a worker whose normal employment in the service of the employer substantially includes other work as well as road haulage work. Such a worker shall be paid in respect of the road haulage work at the appropriate rate for the time actually spent on such work.

A worker not normally a road haulage worker, but who occasionally performs road haulage work, shall be paid the rates of wages appropriate to a road haulage worker for the time actually spent on such work.

PART IV

WORKERS OTHER THAN REGULAR WORKERS

This Part of this Schedule applies to workers other than regular workers.

15. Subject to the provisions of this Part and of Part V of this Schedule the minimum remuneration of workers other than regular workers shall be the hourly rates applicable to regular workers under Part I or Part II of this Schedule increased by 4d. per hour.

GUARANTEED DAY

16. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 24 (relating to the alternative weekly half-holiday) sub-paragraphs (6) and (7) of paragraphs 26 and 27 (relating to work on customary holidays) a worker other than a regular worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for $7\frac{1}{4}$ hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, by him on any day Monday to Thursday, for 7 hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, on Friday, and not less than the wages due for 4 hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, by him on Saturday:

Provided that-

- (1) where a spell of duty commences before midnight and continues thereafter, a worker shall not be entitled, by that fact alone, to two guaranteed payments in respect of that spell of duty;
- (2) a worker who is engaged for a day of not less than 7½ hours on any day Monday to Thursday, of not less than 7 hours on Friday, or for not less than 4 hours on Saturday, for work other than road haulage work, but who may perform some road haulage work, shall be paid for the time actually spent on road haulage work at the hourly rate or rates, calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 15; and
- (3) a worker who is instructed to report for duty, and presents himself for duty but does not commence work, shall be deemed to have commenced work.

Subject to the provisions relating to overtime, a worker other than a regular worker shall, when the number of hours worked or payable under the guarantee provided in this paragraph, is $7\frac{1}{2}$ on any day Monday to Thursday, 7 on Friday or 4 on Saturday, be paid the wages applicable to a regular worker for $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours, 7 hours or 4 hours as the case may be, plus 2s. 8d.

In all other circumstances, he shall be paid at an hourly rate, which is 4d. per hour above the hourly rate applicable to a regular worker.

OVERTIME

- 17. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 23 and 24 the following shall be regarded as overtime:—
 - (1) Time worked in excess of 7½ hours on any day Monday to Thursday, in excess of 7 hours on Friday and in excess of 4 hours on Saturday.
 - (2) Time worked on Sunday.

A worker who works for less than $5\frac{1}{2}$ hours on Sunday shall be deemed to have worked for $5\frac{1}{2}$ hours :

Provided that a worker whose hours entail a spell of duty commencing on Saturday and finishing on Sunday before 5.30 a.m. or commencing on Sunday after 6.30 p.m. and finishing on Monday, shall not, unless the Sunday duty is less than 3 hours, be deemed to have worked on Sunday in excess of the hours actually worked. If the Sunday duty is less than 3 hours he shall be deemed to have worked 3 hours on Sunday:

Provided also that a worker commencing work on Saturday who finishes work between midnight and 1 a.m. on Sunday shall be deemed to have worked one hour on Sunday.

- 18.—(1) In determining the time to be regarded as overtime, time worked shall include time deemed to have been worked under the provisions of paragraphs 17(2) and 23.
 - (2) Time worked on a customary holiday in accordance with paragraph 26(2)(b) or paragraph 27(2)(b) or on a day in the circumstances set out in the proviso to paragraph 26(4)(a) or paragraph 27(4)(a) shall not be included in the calculation of overtime.
 - (3) When a worker's hours of duty or any part thereof entail employment between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m., a day shall, for the purpose of paragraph 17(1), be deemed to be any period of 24 hours commencing at 12 noon.

PAYMENT FOR OVERTIME

19. The following are the rates payable for overtime: --

PART V

ALL WORKERS-ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

This Part of this Schedule applies to all workers except where otherwise stated.

NIGHT WORK

20. A worker whose hours of duty or any part thereof entail employment between 7 p.m. and 6 a.m. shall be paid the appropriate rates of wages specified in paragraph 1, paragraph 6, or paragraph 15 and, in addition, in each spell of duty, 11d. for each hour, or part of an hour, worked between 7 p.m. and 6 a.m. provided that where a spell of duty commences before 7 p.m. and finishes not later than 9 p.m. the additional payment shall not be payable. Where overtime is payable in respect of hours worked between 7 p.m. and 6 a.m., this additional payment remains payable but is not to be included for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate payable in respect of those hours.

TRAVELLING

21. When a worker is required to travel in, or on, or to accompany a vehicle for the purpose of doing road haulage work he shall, in determining the wages payable, be deemed to be engaged on the road haulage work usually performed by him.

TELEPHONING FOR INSTRUCTIONS WHILE OFF DUTY

- 22.—(1) If a worker during the period between two spells of duty is required to telephone for instructions he shall be paid the wages due for one hour: Provided that this provision shall not apply when the telephone call is made immediately following a spell of duty.
 - (2) On each subsequent occasion, during the same period between two spells of duty, on which the worker is required to telephone for instructions he shall be paid the wages due for 4 hours:

Provided that if when telephoning on any such occasion the worker is instructed to commence work within one hour of so telephoning, he shall be paid for one hour instead of the said 4 hours.

(3) The payments to be made under sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be at the rate normally applicable to the worker and shall be in addition to the weekly wages otherwise due to him.

SUBSISTENCE

23.—(1) (a) When a worker's period of rest occurs away from his home depot he shall be paid 20s. 0d. in respect of each period of rest not exceeding 15 hours' continued duration. Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (1)(b) of this paragraph, when any such period of rest exceeds 15 hours the worker shall be deemed to be on duty and shall be entitled to be paid (in addition to the 20s. 0d.) at the time rate which would be payable if he were actually at work for the period he is resting in excess of 15 hours but not in excess of 24 hours or 23 hours according to whether he is a five- or six-day worker. If the period of rest exceeds 24 or 23 hours, as the case may be, these arrangements will continue to apply until the worker resumes actual duty;

- (b) Where, following the first 15 hours of a period of rest for which subsistence is payable, deemed duty or actual duty commences on a Sunday, the worker shall be entitled (in addition to the 20s. 0d.) in respect of any deemed and any actual duty performed on the Sunday to not less than the wages due for 9 hours or 8 hours at double time, according to whether he is a five- or six-day worker.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph the following provisions shall apply in the case of a worker who is temporarily transferred away from his normal home depot and stationed in another locality (beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home) for more than one week:—
 - (a) after payment in respect of the first week in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph a worker shall, in respect of the second and subsequent weeks, be paid a weekly subsistence allowance of 96s. 3d. (i.e., 13s. 9d. per day);
 - (b) if a worker already on temporary transfer is temporarily transferred to another new station beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home he shall (after payment in respect of the first week at such other new station in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph) be paid, in respect of the second and subsequent weeks, a weekly subsistence allowance of 96s. 3d. (i.e., 13s. 9d. per day);
 - (c) for any period of rest occurring away from a new station and from his home, he shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and, in respect of any day for which payment is made to the worker under the provisions of that subparagraph, the subsistence allowances of 13s. 9d. per day (specified in (a) and (b) above) shall be reduced to 10s. 6d. per day.

ALTERNATIVE WEEKLY HALF-HOLIDAY

24. Where it is the established practice of any section of the industry to allow the weekly half-holiday on any weekday other than a Saturday, and that day is in the case of a six-day worker substituted for Saturday as the worker's weekly half-holiday the provisions of paragraphs 2, 3(1) and (2), 14, 16, 17(1) and 43, shall apply as if in these provisions that day were substituted for "Saturday" and "Saturday" for that day.

MEAL TIMES

25. The hours of work specified are, except for the purpose of paragraph 23, exclusive of meal times.

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS-ENGLAND AND WALES

26.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an employer in England and Wales shall allow the following days as holidays to regular workers to whom paragraphs 1 and 6 apply and who were in his employment on the day immediately prior to the day of holiday:—Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such weekday as may be prescribed by national proclamation, or the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, August Bank Holiday and all nationally proclaimed holidays. Where in any place it is not the custom or practice to observe such days as holidays, other days (not fewer in number) may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be substituted for the above-mentioned days. Each such day (i.e., one of the days specified above or a day substituted therefor—hereafter in this paragraph referred to as a "customary holiday") taken as a holiday shall be paid for on the basis of the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week at the time rate normally applicable to the worker:

Provided that-

- (a) in addition to the foregoing, in the case of a six-day worker, other than a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's weekly half-holiday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 4 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;
- (b) in the case of a five-day worker, where the customary holiday falls on a Saturday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;
- (c) in the case of a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's normal day of rest he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 6 hours 50 minutes' work at the rate normally applicable to him.
- (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, a regular worker may work for the employer on a customary holiday:
 - (a) where by reason of the necessity of maintaining essential services the allowing of a customary holiday is rendered impracticable; or
 - (b) where the worker will work on the customary holiday for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the day before the customary holiday or ending on the day after the holiday:

Provided that this sub-paragraph shall not apply to women and young persons in whose cases work on the customary holiday would be illegal.

- (3) (a) Where a worker works on a customary holiday by virtue of subparagraph (2)(a) of this paragraph he shall be paid for work on that day at not less than double the rate appropriate to such work for all time worked by him thereon or for the basic hours for that worker, whichever amount is the greater. For the purpose of this sub-paragraph basic hours means, in the case of a milk worker, 6 hours 50 minutes, and, in the case of any other worker, the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on the day of the week on which the customary holiday falls.
- (b) Where a worker works on a customary holiday by virtue of sub-paragraph (2)(b) of this paragraph he shall be paid for work on that day at not less than double the rate appropriate to such work (part of an hour being counted as an hour) and, in addition, an amount equal to the holiday remuneration to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this order if he had been allowed a customary holiday on that day.
- (4) (a) Where a regular worker works on a customary holiday by virtue of the provisions of sub-paragraph (2)(a) of this paragraph he shall, within the period of eight weeks immediately following the customary holiday, be allowed a day's holiday (hereafter referred to as "a day in lieu of a customary holiday") on a weekday (other than a weekly half-holiday) on which the worker normally works for the employer:

Provided that if on a weekday which is not a customary holiday or a weekly half-holiday within the said period of eight weeks the worker works for the employer for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the immediately preceding day or ending on the following day and the worker is paid for such work remuneration not less than the remuneration provided for work on a customary holiday under sub-paragraph (3)(b) of this paragraph, an employer is not required to allow to a worker a day in lieu of a customary holiday.

(b) For each day in lieu of a customary holiday allowed to a worker he shall be paid not less than the holiday remuneration to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this Schedule if the day had been a customary holiday.

- (c) For the purposes of this paragraph in the case of a worker who is employed on spells of duty which start before midnight and continue for more than 3 hours after midnight the day in lieu of a customary holiday shall include any period of 24 consecutive hours beginning and ending at noon on a weekday (other than a weekly half-holiday) on which the worker normally works.
- (5) The holiday remuneration for a customary holiday or a day in lieu of a customary holiday shall be paid by the employer to the worker not later than the day on which the wages for the first working day following the customary holiday or day in lieu of the customary holiday are paid.
- (6) Except as specified in sub-paragraph (7) of this paragraph a worker, other than a regular worker, who is employed on a customary holiday shall be paid for such work at double the rate otherwise appropriate thereto, and, notwithstanding that he may work for less than $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours on any such day, he shall be paid not less than twice the amount due, under the provisions of paragraph 16, for a guaranteed day of $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours.
- (7) Where a worker, other than a regular worker, works for the employer on a customary holiday for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the immediately preceding day or ending on the following day, he shall be paid for such work at double the rate appropriate to such work, part of an hour being counted as an hour.

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS-SCOTLAND

- 27.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an employer in Scotland shall allow the following days as holidays to regular workers to whom paragraphs 1 and 6 apply and who were in his employment on the day immediately prior to the day of holiday:—
 - (a) New Year's day (or the following day if New Year's day falls on a Sunday), the local Spring Holiday, the local Autumn Holiday, and all nationally proclaimed holidays;
 - (b) Three other days in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the workers not less than 21 days before the holiday;
 - (c) Where in any place it is not the custom or practice to observe the days mentioned in (a) above as holidays, other days (not fewer in number) may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be substituted for the above-mentioned days.

Each such day (i.e., one of the days specified above or a day substituted therefor—hereafter in this paragraph referred to as a "customary holiday") taken as a holiday shall be paid for on the basis of the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week at the time rate normally applicable to the worker:

Provided that-

- (i) in addition to the foregoing, in the case of a six-day worker other than a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's weekly half-holiday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 4 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;
- (ii) in the case of a five-day worker, where the customary holiday falls on a Saturday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;
- (iii) in the case of a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's normal day of rest he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 6 hours 50 minutes' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, a regular worker may work for the employer on a customary holiday: —

(a) where by reason of the necessity of maintaining essential services the allowing of a customary holiday is rendered impracticable; or

(b) where the worker will work on the customary holiday for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the day before the customary holiday or ending on the day after the holiday:

Provided that this sub-paragraph shall not apply to women and young persons in whose cases work on the customary holiday would be illegal.

- (3) (a) Where a worker works on a customary holiday by virtue of subparagraph (2)(a) of this paragraph he shall be paid for work on that day at not less than double the rate appropriate to such work for all time worked by him thereon or for the basic hours for that worker, whichever amount is the greater. For the purpose of this sub-paragraph basic hours means, in the case of a milk worker, 6 hours 50 minutes and, in the case of any other worker, the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on the day of the week on which the customary holiday falls.
- (b) Where a worker works on a customary holiday by virtue of sub-paragraph (2)(b) of this paragraph he shall be paid for work on that day at not less than double the rate appropriate to such work (part of an hour being counted as an hour) and, in addition, an amount equal to the holiday remuneration to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this order if he had been allowed a customary holiday on that day.
- (4) (a) Where a regular worker works on a customary holiday by virtue of the provisions of sub-paragraph (2)(a) of this paragraph he shall, within the period of eight weeks immediately following the customary holiday, be allowed a day's holiday (hereafter referred to as "a day in lieu of a customary holiday") on a weekday (other than a weekly half-holiday) on which the worker normally works for the employer:

Provided that if on a weekday which is not a customary holiday or a weekly half-holiday within the said period of eight weeks the worker works for the employer for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the immediately preceding day or ending on the following day and the worker is paid for such work remuneration not less than the remuneration provided for work on a customary holiday under sub-paragraph (3)(b) of this paragraph an employer is not required to allow a worker a day in lieu of a customary holiday.

- (b) For each day in lieu of a customary holiday allowed to a worker he shall be paid not less than the holiday remuneration to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this Schedule if the day had been a customary holiday.
- (c) For the purposes of this paragraph in the case of a worker who is employed on spells of duty which start before midnight and continue for more than 3 hours after midnight the day in lieu of a customary holiday shall include any period of 24 consecutive hours beginning and ending at noon on a weekday (other than a weekly half-holiday) on which the worker normally works.
- (5) The holiday remuneration for a customary holiday or a day in lieu of a customary holiday shall be paid by the employer to the worker not later than the day on which the wages for the first working day following the customary holiday or day in lieu of a customary holiday are paid.
- (6) Except as specified in sub-paragraph (7) of this paragraph, a worker, other than a regular worker, who is employed on any of the days mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph shall be paid for such work at double the rate otherwise appropriate thereto, and, notwithstanding that he may work for less than $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours on any such day, he shall be paid not less than twice the amount due, under the provisions of paragraph 16, for a guaranteed day of $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours.
- (7) Where a worker, other than a regular worker, works for the employer on a customary holiday for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the immediately preceding day or ending on the following day, he shall be paid for such work at double the rate appropriate to such work, a part of an hour being counted as an hour.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

28.—(1) In addition to the holidays provided for in paragraphs 26 and 27 (and subject to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (3) and (6) of this paragraph) an employer shall between the date on which this Schedule becomes effective and 15th October 1966, and in each succeeding year between 1st May and 15th October allow a holiday (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment for whom statutory minimum remuneration has been fixed under paragraphs 1, 6 or 15 and who was during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season in that year (hereinafter referred to as the "qualifying period") in his employment for any of the periods of employment specified below, and the duration of a worker's annual holiday shall be related to the period of his employment during the qualifying period as follows:—

Six-day wo	orkers	Five-day workers

At least 48 weeks , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	12 days 11 " 10 " 9 " 8 " 7 " 6 " 5 " 4 " 3 " 2 " 1 day	At least 48 weeks " 43 " " 38 " " 33 " " 28 " " 28 " " 24 " " 19 " " 19 " " 14 " " 9 " " 4 "	10 days 9 " 8 " 7 " 6 " 5 " 5 " 4 " 3 " 2 " 1 day

- (2) For the purpose of calculating a period of employment in respect of annual holiday and accrued holiday remuneration "employment" means employment on road haulage work specified in paragraphs 44 and 45 and also employment partly on that work and partly on work other than such road haulage work, and a worker shall be treated as in the employment of the employer when absent from work in any of the following circumstances:—
 - (a) absences of the worker arising from suspension in accordance with paragraph 14(3)(b);
 - (b) absences of the worker owing to proved illness or accident up to but not exceeding 16 weeks in the aggregate during the qualifying period;
 - (c) suspension from employment owing to shortage of work or mechanical breakdown up to but not exceeding 16 weeks in the aggregate during the qualifying period;
 - (d) absences of the worker arising from the allowance of holidays provided for in paragraph 26 or paragraph 27 and annual holiday allowed under the provisions of this paragraph;
 - (e) other absences with reasonable cause during the qualifying period;
 - (f) absence for not more than 7 days during the qualifying period for reasons other than those specified in (a) to (e) above.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, a worker who has been absent for more than 7 days during the qualifying period for reasons other than those specified in (a) to (e) of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not be entitled to any annual holiday in respect of such period.

- (4) The duration of the worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending on 31st October 1966, shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under the provisions of Order R.H. (82) between 1st May 1966 and the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective.
- (5) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to an annual holiday during the year 1966, the period commencing on 1st May 1966 and ending on 15th October 1966, and in relation to each subsequent year, the period commencing on 1st May and ending on 15th October in that year.
- (6) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (5) of this paragraph, where before 1st October in any holiday season, at the written request of a worker his employer has agreed in writing that the worker shall be allowed after the end of the holiday season and before 1st May in the following year, the annual holiday, or any part thereof, for which he has qualified under this paragraph, any such days of annual holiday may, subject to the provisions of paragraph 32, be allowed in accordance with the agreement and if so allowed shall be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as having been allowed during the holiday season.

29.—(1) In respect of an annual holiday allowed under paragraph 28, holiday remuneration shall be paid as follows :—

(2) Holiday remuneration shall be paid on the last pay day preceding the annual holiday:

Provided that where in accordance with the proviso to paragraph 32(1) an annual holiday is allowed in two or three periods the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

30. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker under paragraph 31(1) in respect of any period of employment in the qualifying period preceding the holiday season current when the annual holiday is allowed, the amount to be paid in respect of the period of such holiday is the appropriate amount payable under paragraph 29 less the accrued holiday remuneration previously paid as aforesaid.

- 31.—(1) Where a worker ceases to be employed, accrued holiday remuneration shall, immediately on the termination of the employment, be paid to him by his employer in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph for periods of employment in respect of which he has not been allowed or has not become entitled to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule : Provided that—
 - (a) where a worker ceases to be employed after being allowed a part of the annual holiday for which he has qualified by reason of his employment during any of the periods of 12 months referred to in the next following sub-paragraph but before being allowed the rest of the annual holiday for which he has so qualified, the accrued holiday remuneration payable to him in respect of his employment during the said period of 12 months shall be reduced by the amount of holiday remuneration received by him in respect of the part of the annual holiday he has been allowed;
 - (b) the amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable in respect of any period of employment shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration in respect of that period made by the employer to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.H.(82).
 - (2) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, during the period of 12 months, commencing on 1st May 1965, and thereafter during each successive period of 12 months commencing on 1st May, accrued holiday remuneration shall be payable as follows:—

(3) Accrued holiday remuneration shall not be payable to a worker in respect of a qualifying period during which he was absent for more than 7 days for reasons other than those specified in (a) to (e) of paragraph 28(2).

32.—(1) An annual holiday under paragraph 28 shall be allowed on consecutive working days being days upon which the worker is normally called upon to work, and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a Sunday or any of the holidays allowed under paragraph 26 or paragraph 27 intervenes:

Provided that where the duration of an annual holiday for which a worker is qualified exceeds the period of his normal working week, the holiday may, at the written request of the worker and with the agreement of the employer, be allowed in two or three periods, one of which shall be not less than the period of his normal working week.

(2) An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to a worker or by the posting of a notice in the worker's home depot.

PART VI

DEFINITIONS

Carrying capacity

- 33.—(1) The carrying capacity of a vehicle is the weight of the maximum load normally carried by the vehicle, and such carrying capacity when so established shall not be affected either by variations in the weight of the load resulting from collections or deliveries or emptying of containers during the course of the journey, or by the fact that on any particular journey a load greater or less than the established carrying capacity is carried.
 - (2) Where a trailer is attached to the vehicle, the load shall be the loads of the vehicle and trailer combined.

Overtime expressions

35. The expressions time-and-a-half and double time mean respectively one and a half times and twice the rate of wages otherwise applicable.

Vehicle

36. Vehicle means a mechanically driven goods vehicle.

Regular worker

37. A regular worker is a worker employed by the week or longer period.

Driver

- 38. A driver is a worker employed in driving a vehicle and in performing when so required any other road haulage work.
- Foremen and removal packers in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry
- 39.—(1) A foreman in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry is a worker who has charge of a removal and who has authority to issue instructions to two or more persons.
 - (2) A removal packer in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry is a skilled worker who packs china and other articles.

Heavy brakesman and steersman

40. A heavy brakesman and steersman is a person operating the steering and braking equipment of a heavy trailer used for the carriage of abnormal indivisible loads.

Film transport worker

41. A film transport worker is a worker engaged exclusively in the collection and delivery of films for the cinematograph industry:

Provided that a worker shall not cease to be a film transport worker solely by reason of the fact that he collects from and delivers to cinemas cinematograph accessories and equipment which are carried at the same time as the films are normally carried.

Milk worker

42. A milk worker is a regular worker who is employed on 6 days a week and who is exclusively engaged in the collection of milk from farms and its delivery to dairies:

Provided that a worker shall not cease to be a milk worker solely by reason of the fact that, exceptionally, he is required to work on the duties specified above on the remaining day of the week.

Ordinary working hours

- 43. The expression "number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week " means-
 - (1) in the case of a regular worker other than a milk worker :---
 - (a) in respect of a six-day worker (subject to the provisions of paragraph 24), 7½ hours on any day Monday to Thursday, 7 hours on Friday and 4 hours on Saturday:

Provided that $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours may be substituted for 7 hours on Friday if 7 hours is substituted for $7\frac{1}{2}$ hours on one other day from Monday to Thursday.

- (b) in respect of a five-day worker, 9 hours on Monday and 8 hours any day Tuesday to Friday:
 - Provided that 8 hours may be substituted for 9 hours on Monday if 9 hours is substituted for 8 hours on one other day from Tuesday to Friday.
- (2) in the case of a milk worker, 6 hours 50 minutes.

PART VII

WORKERS TO WHOM THIS SCHEDULE APPLIES

44. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and to the provisions of paragraph 47 hereof, this Schedule applies to road haulage workers in respect of road haulage work performed in connection with any motor goods vehicle (including a trailer) specified or deemed to be specified in an "A" licence or a "B" licence granted under the Road Traffic Act 1960(a):

Provided that the remuneration specified in this Schedule shall not apply to the following classes of road haulage work, namely, the employment of contractors' men on vehicles hired on a 24-hour stand-by basis by or on behalf of the Secretary of State for Defence in connection with manoeuvres, exercises, training or active service.

- 45. A person is a road haulage worker and is deemed to be employed on road haulage work if he is employed on all or any of the work described in (1) to (5) below or if his time is occupied as specified in (6) to (9) below, that is to say :--
 - (1) driving or assisting in the driving or control of the vehicle;
 - (2) collecting or loading goods to be carried in or on the vehicle;
 - (3) attending to goods while so carried;
 - (4) unloading or delivering goods after being so carried;
 - (5) acting as attendant to the vehicle;

and who is required to travel on or to accompany the vehicle for the purpose of doing any such work;

- (6) in doing any work incidental to his employment in work mentioned in sub-paragraphs (1) to (5) hereof;
- (7) in travelling in or on or accompanying a goods vehicle in connection with his employment in the work so mentioned;
- (8) in holding himself under the orders or at the disposal of his employer while waiting in connection with his employment in the work so mentioned;
- (9) in waiting (whether overnight or otherwise) in accordance with the instructions of his employer as a necessary consequence of his employment in any of the work so mentioned:

Provided that a person employed in loading goods to be carried in or on a goods vehicle or in unloading goods after being so carried and required to travel on or to accompany the vehicle partly for that purpose, shall not be deemed to be a road haulage worker by reason only of that employment, if the main purpose for which he is required to travel on or to accompany the vehicle is that of executing work other than road haulage work after its arrival at his destination.

- 46. For the purposes of this Schedule road haulage work includes road haulage work performed by a road haulage worker employed by a person carrying on the business of a goods transport clearing house, i.e., the business of arranging for the mechanical transport of goods by road.
- 47. This Schedule does not apply to workers: ----
 - (1) for whom or in respect of whose work a minimum rate of wages is, for the time being, fixed by or under any other enactment; or
 - (2) for whom minimum remuneration has been fixed pursuant to proposals of any other Wages Council established under the Wages Councils Act 1959.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order, which has effect from 15th June 1966, sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable and the holidays to be allowed in substitution for the statutory minimum remuneration and holidays set out in the Wages Regulation (Road Haulage) Order 1965 (Order R.H. (82)), which is revoked.

New provisions are printed in italics.
