

1966 No. 564
PENSIONS

The Overseas Service (Pensions Supplement) (Special Provisions) Regulations 1966

Made - - - -	12th May 1966
Laid before Parliament	19th May 1966
Coming into Operation	20th May 1966

The Minister of Overseas Development, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 3(3) of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1965(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, with the consent of the Treasury, hereby makes the following Regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Overseas Service (Pensions Supplement) (Special Provisions) Regulations 1966 and shall come into operation on 20th May 1966.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“the Minister” means the Minister of Overseas Development;

“notional pension”, in relation to a person, has the meaning conferred on it by regulation 5 of these Regulations;

“the Regulations” means the Oversea Superannuation Scheme (Consolidation) Regulations 1963 and a reference to any provision of those Regulations shall, in the case of a person in receipt of a pension awarded under any previous Regulations made by the Secretary of State under the Oversea Superannuation Scheme, be construed as a reference to the corresponding provision of those previous Regulations.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in these Regulations to any enactment or regulations shall be construed as a reference to that enactment or those regulations as amended, extended or applied by or under any other enactment or regulations.

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply for the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if these Regulations were an Act of Parliament.

Persons to whom these Regulations apply

3. These Regulations apply to any person in receipt of a pension payable under the Oversea Superannuation Scheme in respect of his own service who—

(a) is eligible for the payment of a supplement under the provisions of the Overseas Service (Pensions Supplement) Regulations 1966(e) in respect of that pension;

(b) was a special contributor to the Oversea Superannuation Scheme as provided in regulation 21 of the Regulations; and

(c) has ceased to contribute to the superannuation scheme operated under the Federated Superannuation System for Universities or such

(a) 1965 c. 78.

(b) 1889 c. 63.

(c) S.I. 1966/159 (1966 I. p. 280).

other scheme of a like nature as may have been approved under the provisions of regulation 21(1) of the Regulations, and has become eligible for benefit under that scheme.

Payment of special supplements

4. The Minister may in respect of any period beginning on or after 1st January 1966 pay to any person to whom these Regulations apply a special supplement of an amount which when aggregated with the supplement payable under the provisions of the Overseas Service (Pensions Supplement) Regulations 1966 in respect of his pension under the Oversea Superannuation Scheme is equal to the supplement which would have been payable under those Regulations if he had been entitled to a pension of the same amount as his notional pension.

Meaning of notional pension

5. The notional pension of a person for the purposes of these Regulations shall be the pension which would have been awarded to him under the Oversea Superannuation Scheme if the pensionable emoluments taken into account under that Scheme had not been reduced in accordance with the provisions of regulation 21(2) of the Regulations.

Anthony Greenwood,
Minister of Overseas Development.

6th May 1966.

We approve

George Lawson,
W. Howie,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of
Her Majesty's Treasury.

12th May 1966.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations provide for the payment of an additional supplement where a pension paid to an overseas officer under the Oversea Superannuation Scheme is of a reduced amount because the contributions to that Scheme in respect of his overseas service were reduced by virtue of his continuing contributions to the Federated Superannuation System for Universities or other similar approved scheme during that overseas service.

In accordance with section 3(4) of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1965, the additional supplements are payable from 1st January 1966.
