EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Highways Act 1959 repealed certain enactments which had empowered local authorities to make new street byelaws, and provided that existing byelaws made under any of those enactments should cease to have effect on 30th April 1962, unless the Minister of Housing and Local Government extended their period of operation by order under the Act of 1959.

That period was extended until 30th April 1967 by the New Street Byelaws (Extension of Operation) Order 1962, and this order further extends it until 30th April 1972.
