EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Agreement makes two amendments to the Arrangement between the United Kingdom and Cyprus which is scheduled to the Double Taxation Relief (Taxes on Income) (Cyprus) Order 1947.

First it provides that the exemption of dividends from any tax chargeable in addition to the tax on the paying company's profits is not to be allowed in certain cases where the shareholder is a company having a substantial holding in the paying company. The restriction does not apply to dividends on shares acquired for bona fide commercial reasons.

Secondly, it amends paragraph 13 of the 1947 Arrangement in its application to dividends by providing that credit for tax on the profits out of which dividends are paid, whether that tax is deducted from the dividends or not, is to be given only where the recipient is a company which holds not less than 10 per cent of the voting power in the paying company. So far as United Kingdom income tax is concerned this provision takes effect from the year of assessment 1968/69.
