EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order designates Mauritius for the purposes of the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967, which, in providing for the return of offenders from the United Kingdom to other parts of the Commonwealth, distinguishes between designated Commonwealth countries and United Kingdom dependencies. For example, the offences for which a person may be returned under the Act are, in the case of return to a dependency, those punishable by a superior court with twelve months' imprisonment but, in the case of return to a designated country, those described in Schedule 1 (section 3).
