(2) The amount to be paid by a person by virtue of paragraph (1) of this Article in respect of any goods shall be the amount which that person would have been required to pay in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 of Schedule 2 hereto if he had entered into a hiring agreement for those or similar goods with the person disposing of those goods in the ordinary course of business on the date when those goods were disposed of to him.

(3) Any payment made by virtue of this Article or of the corresponding provision of the Orders hereby revoked shall not be repaid in whole or in part unless and until the goods in respect of which the payment was made have been returned to the person to whom it was made.

9.—(1) A person shall not dispose of any television receiving set in pursuance of a hiring agreement if he knows either—

(a) that payment of the amount of which actual payment is required to be made in respect of that agreement by paragraph 3 of Schedule 2 hereto, was facilitated by the insertion of coins in a slot meter or other device used for the purposes of operating, or otherwise in conjunction with, any other television receiving set which was disposed of, at any time during the period of nine months immediately preceding the making of that agreement, by that or any other person to the hirer under that agreement or to any other person ; or

(d) provision is made for a payment to be made by or to any person being a payment of the description referred to in paragraph 2(g) of Schedule 2 hereto :

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit any person from entering into an agreement providing for the return on the termination of a hiring agreement of the whole or part of any payment made in accordance with the provisions of this Order or of the Orders hereby revoked before the last mentioned agreement was entered into.

(2) A person shall not enter into any agreement (including any renewal or extension of an agreement) whereby a hiring agreement is varied in such manner that that agreement comprises after such variation goods to which this Order applies not comprised therein before such variation.

11.—(1) A person shall not dispose of any goods to which this Order applies under a hiring agreement if those goods are in substitution for goods previously disposed of under that agreement.

this Order shall have effect in relation to those goods as if the requirements contained in Schedule 2 hereto did not include any requirement that actual payment of any sum be made before the agreement was entered into.

14.—(1) Nothing in this Order shall apply to the disposal or to the possession by any person of goods under a written hiring agreement, if those goods were manufactured not less than three years before the date on which the agreement was entered into.

(2) Nothing in this Order shall—

- (a) apply to the disposal of goods other than mechanically propelled road vehicles and sidecars under a hiring agreement the terms of which are such that the hirer will not be in possession on any premises of those goods for more than twelve days in any period of twenty-eight days, being goods in respect of which there is no other hiring agreement under which another person may be in possession on the same premises of the goods during the whole or part of the remainder of the period of twenty-eight days ;
- (b) apply to the possession by a person of goods other than mechanically propelled road vehicles and sidecars under a hiring agreement if that person is not in possession (whether under that agreement or otherwise) on any premises of those goods for more than twelve days in any period of twenty-eight days, and those goods are not during the whole or part of the remainder of the period of twenty-eight days in the possession on the same premises of any other person ;

- (4) Nothing in this Order shall apply to the disposal of goods to, or the possession of goods by, an overseas visitor under a hiring agreement.

15. Nothing in this Article 4 shall prohibit the disposal and nothing in Article 6 shall prohibit the possession of a mechanically propelled road vehicle under a hiring agreement which provides for the payment of a rental or charge calculated by reference to the distance travelled by that vehicle if the following conditions are fulfilled in relation to that agreement—

- (a) the agreement is for a definite period of twelve or more months,
- (b) the agreement provides that no such rental or charge shall be payable unless the vehicle shall during the period of hire have travelled a distance greater than a distance specified in the agreement,
- (c) the distance so specified is a number of miles not less than the product of 1,250 and the number of months in the period of hire, and
- (d) the requirements specified in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 of Schedule 2 hereto are or have been complied with in relation to all other rentals and charges payable under that agreement or any related agreement.

16.—(1) In any proceedings for an alleged contravention of the provisions of Article 4 or 5 in which it is alleged that, by virtue of Article 3(3), a requirement of this Order that actual payment of an amount be made has not been complied with it shall, in respect of that allegation, be a defence if the defendant shall prove that at the time of the alleged offence—

(a) he had no reasonable cause to believe that money had been borrowed or otherwise acquired or agreed or arranged to be borrowed or otherwise to be acquired for the purpose of facilitating the making of that payment or any part of it, and

(b) he was not a party to any agreement under or as a result of which money could be borrowed or otherwise acquired or agreed or arranged to be borrowed or otherwise to be acquired to facilitate the making of payments under or in relation to hiring agreements or related agreements.

(2) If in any proceedings for an alleged contravention of the provisions of Article 4 or 6 it is alleged that an agreement was entered into which did not comply with the requirement of paragraph 2(g) of Schedule 2 hereto it shall be a defence to that allegation if the defendant shall prove that that agreement was a contract of insurance.

17. In the absence of any provision to the contrary contained therein, any Order which amends this Order as originally made or as subsequently amended, by extending the definition of goods to which this Order applies to include goods of a description not previously included in that definition shall not operate so as to make unlawful the disposal of goods of that description or the possession by any person of goods of that description under an agreement entered into before that amending Order came into operation which comprised goods of that description and no other goods to which this Order previously applied and Article 10(1) shall not apply to a variation of such an agreement or of a related agreement and Article 12 shall not apply to the renewal or extension of any such agreement.
