The Commons Registration (New Land) Regulations 1969

Method of registration

7.—(1) Where a registration authority accepts an application, it shall make the necessary registration, following as closely as possible whichever of the Model Entries 4 and 7 to 12 may be applicable, with such variations and adaptations as the circumstances may require, but with the substitution, for the words “(Registration provisional.)”, of the words “(Registration under section 13 of the Act.)”.

(2) The provisions of paragraphs (2) to (7) of General Regulation 10 shall apply to registrations under these Regulations as they apply to provisional registrations.

(3) The provisions of regulation 9 of the Commons Registration (Objections and Maps) Regulations 1968⁽¹⁾ (changes as to provisional register maps) shall apply for the purposes of section 13 of the Act as they apply for the purposes of section 4 thereof, and, accordingly, the following shall be substituted for the definition of “registration” in regulation 2(2) of the said regulations:—

““registration”, except in regulation 9 below, means registration under section 4 of the Act, and “registered” shall be construed accordingly;” shall be construed accordingly;’.

(4) Where a registration authority has made a registration under this regulation, it shall file the application form and any plan thereto which is not required for the purpose of General Regulation 20 (supplemental maps) and shall return all other documents which accompanied the application form to the applicant.
