The London Transport (Compensation to Employees) Regulations 1970

PART VII

PROCEDURE AND MISCELLANEOUS

Calculation of service

39. For the purpose of making any calculation under these regulations in respect of a person's reckonable service, all periods of such service shall be aggregated and, except where reference is made to completed years of service, if the aggregated service includes a fraction of a year, that fraction shall, if it equals or exceeds 6 months, be treated as a year, and shall, in any other case be disregarded.
