EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Police Federation Regulations 1969.

Regulation 16 of the Regulations of 1969 limits the funds which may be retained by a branch board at the end of any year and requires the payment of any excess to the appropriate central committee. Regulation 5 of the present Regulations raises these limits.

Regulation 6 of the present Regulations permits central funds of the Federation to be used, by or with the consent of the joint central committee, in defraying legal charges incurred by a member or former member of the Federation in connection with criminal proceedings brought against him for common assault or assault occasioning actual bodily harm committed in the execution or purported execution of duty.

Under Regulation 14 of the Regulations of 1969 there is no provision for conferences of the women members of the branch boards of the metropolitan and City of London police forces since it provides for regional conferences and these forces do not form part of one of the 7 regions established by the Regulations. Regulation 14 is made applicable by Regulation 8 of the present Regulations which constitutes the metropolitan police district and the City of London as an eighth region, styled the No. 8 (London) Region. Regulations 3, 4 and 7 of the present Regulations make incidental and consequential amendments.
