Elections

Time for making elections

7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3) below, the first election for the purposes of regulation 4, 5 or 6 above shall be made so as to be received by the Secretary of State—

- (a) for the purposes of regulation 4, if the teacher is employed in reckonable service on 26th June 1973, before 26th December 1973;

(2) For the purposes of regulation 6, the election may, if the member dies before 1st November 1974, be made by his widow and the provisions of these regulations relating to the payment of contributions for the purposes of that regulation shall be construed accordingly.

(3) A man teacher who does not make an election within the time specified by paragraph (1) above may, notwithstanding that paragraph, make a first election for the purposes of regulation 4 or 5 within the six months next following the first to occur of any of the following events—

- (i) his marriage if he is then employed in reckonable service;
- (ii) his becoming again employed in reckonable service after his marriage while not so employed;
- (iii) the nomination by him of an adult dependant under regulation 19 below;

and a woman teacher who does not make an election within the time specified by paragraph (1) above may, notwithstanding that paragraph, make a first election for the purposes of regulation 4 or 5 within the six months next following the nomination by her of an adult dependant under regulation 19 below.

Form of elections

8.—(1) The first election by any teacher for the purposes of these regulations shall specify—

- (a) the number of years in respect of which the teacher elects to pay contributions; and
- (b) the rate at which the teacher elects to pay contributions expressed as a percentage, being a whole number not exceeding eight, of the rate of his salary from time to time.

(2) An election shall be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary of State and shall be effective from the date of its receipt by her.

(3) In so far as it specifies the number of years in respect of which contributions are to be paid an election shall be irrevocable; but in so far as it specifies the rate at which contributions are to be paid it may from time to time be varied by a subsequent election to pay contributions at a higher rate (expressed as is specified in paragraph (1)(b) above) taking effect from 1st April in the year following the end of the year in which that subsequent election is received by the Secretary of State.

(4) The Secretary of State may treat as an election made for the purposes of this regulation any notification in writing received from a teacher before 26th June 1973 which—

- (a) states the teacher's intention to pay contributions in respect of any such benefits as are payable under these regulations; and
- (b) specifies the matters required by this regulation to be specified by an election—and any notification so treated shall be effective as such an election from 26th June 1973.

Effect of elections

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) below, regulations 24, 25 and 27 of the Teachers and Teachers' Families Regulations shall, as regards any teacher, cease to have effect as from the date upon which any election by him under regulation 8 above is effective or the time specified by regulation 7(1) above for the making of election expires without his having made an election.

(2) The Secretary of State may, having regard to the special circumstances of a particular teacher, direct that paragraph (1) above shall not apply to him; and in any such case regulations 24, 25 and 27 of the Teachers and Teachers' Families Regulations shall continue to apply in relation to that teacher until such time as is specified in the direction.

Contributions

Payment of contributions

10. Subject to regulation 14 below contributions shall be paid, at the rate for the time being specified by the teacher in an election under these regulations, for so long as he continues to be employed, or is for purposes of the principal Teachers' Regulations treated as if he were employed, in reckonable service.

Restriction on amount of contributions

11. Regulation 73 of the Family Benefits Regulations shall be construed as if the contributions specified in paragraph (1) included contributions payable under these regulations and for the references in paragraph (2)(a)(ii) to six per cent. and thirteen per cent. there were substituted references to 6.75 per cent. and 14.25 per cent. respectively.

Determination of contributions, etc.

12.—(1) The Secretary of State shall as soon as may be after the receipt of any election made by a teacher for the purposes of these regulations determine—

- (a) in accordance with table 1 of schedule 2 the period for which contributions are required to be paid by the teacher; and
- (b) the amount (if any) of any deduction that will fall to be made from the terminal sum payable to or in respect of the teacher under regulation 15 below by reason of the fact that the teacher will attain the age of sixty before the end of the period determined under sub-paragraph (a) above.

(2) A determination under paragraph (1) may be varied by a subsequent determination, and shall be so varied if—

- (a) payment of contributions is interrupted by a break in service; or
- (b) the amount of his contributions is reduced by reason of the teacher being for the time being employed in part-time reckonable service or (in the case of a teacher so employed) being so employed for a smaller proportion of his time; or
- (c) a contribution payable in accordance with regulation 10 is not paid.

Notices

13. The Secretary of State shall as soon as may be after making a determination under regulation 12 above serve a notice in writing on the teacher specifying as may be appropriate—

Duration of contributions

14. Contributions shall begin to be paid by a teacher on the first day of the month next following the date of the notice served on him by the Secretary of State under regulation 13 above and shall cease to be paid on whichever is the earlier of the day he retires from reckonable service and the day specified in that notice as the last day on which contributions are required to be paid by him.

Deduction from terminal sum

15.—(1) If a member who elected to pay contributions by Method III and did not revoke his election to pay such contributions either—

- (a) does not elect to pay contributions under regulation 5(4) above; or
- (b) elects to pay such contributions in respect of a period which is less than two-thirds of the period in respect of which he elected to pay contributions by Method III—

there shall be deducted from the terminal sum payable to or in respect of him the amount determined by the Actuary as the sum necessary to defray the cost of the benefits payable under these regulations in so far as they relate to his reckonable service before 1st April 1972.

(2) If, as regards any teacher, the period determined under regulation 12 above ends after whichever is the later of his sixtieth birthday and the award to him of superannuation allowances under regulation 41(1)(a) or (b) of the principal Teachers' Regulations there shall be deducted from the terminal sum payable to or in respect of him the amount determined in accordance with table 2 of schedule 2 as outstanding for payment.

(3) There shall be deducted from any terminal sum payable to or in respect of a teacher before his sixtieth birthday the amount determined by the Actuary as the actuarial equivalent of the amount which would have been outstanding for payment on that birthday if he had continued to pay contributions at the last rate specified by him until he attained the age of sixty; and if any such teacher becomes again employed in reckonable service he shall be treated as having paid those contributions.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the provisions contained in the Teachers' Superannuation (Family Benefits) Regulations 1970 to 1972 relating to the payment of pensions to the widows or widowers of teachers and their families and other dependants.

The Regulations enable all teachers employed in reckonable service on or after 1st April 1972 to elect to pay contributions or, as the case may be, further contributions in respect of their reckonable service before that date and make new provision with respect to the amount of pensions payable.

Special provision is made with regard to teachers in admitted schools (regulation 23) and teachers with external service in Scotland or Northern Ireland (regulation 27). The Regulations also make a number of minor amendments to the existing regulations and one amendment of the principal Teachers' Regulations (paragraph 6 of schedule 4) which has the effect of treating service in a European school as reckonable service.

Regulation 28 and paragraph 5(2) of schedule 4 have retrospective effect by virtue of section 12(1) of the Superannuation Act 1972.
