WAGES COUNCILS

The Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) Order 1975

Made - - - - - 10th November 1975
Coming into Operation 22nd December 1975

Whereas the Secretary of State has received from the Licensed Non-residential Establishment Wages Council the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State in exercise of powers conferred by section 11 of the Wages Councils Act 1959(a), and now vested in him(b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) Order 1975.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression “the specified date” means the 22nd December 1975, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression “the specified date” means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Orders hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-Residential Establishment) (No. 2) Order 1974(d) and the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) (No. 2) Order 1974 (Amendment) Order 1975(e) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Secretary of State.

10th November 1975.

R. J. Dawe,
 Assistant Secretary,
 Department of Employment.

SCHEDULE

The following minimum remuneration and provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration and provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration set out in the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) (No. 2) Order 1974 (Order L.N.R. (109)), as amended by the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) (No. 2) Order 1974 (Amendment) Order 1975 (Order L.N.R. (112)).

PART I

REMUNERATION FOR EMPLOYMENT

BASIS OF REMUNERATION

REGULAR WORKERS

1.—(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 6 the minimum remuneration payable to regular workers for a week of 40 hours exclusive of overtime shall be in accordance with the table in paragraph 4 hereof and, as respects the minimum remuneration specified in Columns 2 to 8 of that table, shall be payable on the basis that the board, meals or lodging to be supplied are available for the worker for 7 days a week:

Provided that where on one day only in the week the employer does not supply the same number of meals as he normally supplies on each of the other days of the week the amount specified in such one of the Columns 2 to 7 of that table as would have been applicable had the worker been supplied on seven days a week with the number of meals normally supplied on a day shall be increased by 5p for each such meal not supplied on that day subject to a maximum increase of 15p.

(b) The hourly rate payable to all such workers, except in respect of overtime, is the appropriate minimum remuneration for a working week of 40 hours as set out in the table in paragraph 4 divided by 40.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph 6 (which deals with guaranteed weekly remuneration) the minimum remuneration specified in paragraph 4 is subject to a proportionate reduction according as the number of hours worked is less than 40.

WORKERS OTHER THAN REGULAR WORKERS

2.—Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 the minimum remuneration payable to a worker other than a regular worker for all time worked except work for which an overtime rate is payable, shall be in accordance with the table in paragraph 5.

EARNINGS SUPPLEMENT

3.—(1) In addition to the minimum remuneration specified in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Schedule, additional remuneration, hereinafter referred to as the "earnings supplement" shall, in accordance with this paragraph, be payable to all workers to whom those paragraphs apply.

(2) The earnings supplement payable in respect of each pay week shall be in accordance with the following table:—

Column 1 Grade and age of worker	Column 2 Earnings supplement for a regular worker who has worked at least 40 hours in that week	Column 3 Earnings supplement for any worker other than one covered by column 2, for all time worked up to a maximum of 40 hours in that week

Barman/Barmaid—
aged 20 years or over	6·00	15·0
aged under 20 years	5·40	13·5
Other workers—
aged 20 years or over	6·00	15·0
aged 18 and under 20 years	5·40	13·5
aged under 18 years	4·80	12·0

(3) The earnings supplement shall not be treated as part of the appropriate hourly rate for the purpose of calculating payment for overtime.

(4) Where, under the provisions of this paragraph, an earnings supplement is payable to a worker who is supplied by his employer with full board, meals or lodging such payment shall be reduced in accordance with the following table:—

Column 1 Where the worker is supplied with the following:—	Column 2 Reduction of earnings supplement for a regular worker who has worked at least 40 hours in that week	Column 3 Reduction of earnings supplement for any worker other than one covered by column 2, for all time worked up to a maximum of 40 hours in that week
	£ per week	p per hour

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION

6.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, where in any week a regular worker works for less than 40 hours he shall be paid not less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration.

(2) Guaranteed weekly remuneration in respect of any week is the amount payable to the worker at the appropriate hourly rate under paragraph 1 hereof for 40 hours' work in his usual occupation exclusive of any amount payable as an earnings supplement in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3:

Provided that where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 40 hours in a week by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed his employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the amount payable to the worker (at the appropriate hourly rate) calculated as in paragraph 1 hereof for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies in his usual occupation.

(3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable for a week if the remuneration otherwise payable by the employer to the worker in respect of that week exceeds the amount of the guaranteed weekly remuneration.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless during that week in respect of the hours ordinarily worked by the worker the worker is—

(a) capable of and available for work ;

(b) willing to perform such services as may reasonably be required by the employer when work is not available for him in his usual occupation.

(5) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work because of circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker a clear pay week's notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of that notice during any week during which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid.

(6) For the purpose of calculating whether a worker in any week worked for less than 40 hours and of ascertaining whether a worker satisfies the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) hereof, any day or days allowed and taken as holidays by a worker in accordance with Part II of this Schedule and any public holiday (including any day allowed in lieu thereof) on which the worker has not worked, shall be treated as a day or days on which the worker worked for the number of hours usually worked by him on that day of the week or those days of the week, as the case may be.

OVERTIME

7. Overtime rates are payable to all workers, other than workers who ordinarily work for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, as follows:—

On the weekly day of rest—

for all time worked double time

In any week exclusive of any time worked on the weekly day of rest or on a public holiday—for the first four hours worked in excess of 40 hours . . . time-and-a-quarter thereafter time-and-a-half

8. For the purposes of this Schedule the weekly day of rest shall be—

(1) a day in the week fixed at the time of the engagement of the worker being a day which may be changed by agreement between the employer and the worker, subject to seven days' notice; or

(2) if no such day has been fixed or agreed, the last day in the pay week.

WORKERS WHO ARE NOT REQUIRED TO WORK ON A PUBLIC HOLIDAY OR WHO ARE GIVEN A DAY OFF IN LIEU

9. Where a worker, other than a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, is not required to work on a public holiday he shall be paid for the public holiday the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday and had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

10. Where a worker, other than a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, works on a public holiday and his employer has undertaken to allow him a day's holiday in lieu thereof within 14 days of the public holiday he shall be paid—

(1) for the hours worked on the public holiday, the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday; and

(2) for the day given in lieu of the public holiday, the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week:

Provided always that this paragraph shall not apply unless the day allowed in lieu of the public holiday is a day other than the worker's weekly day of rest.

WORKERS WHO WORK ON A PUBLIC HOLIDAY AND WHO ARE NOT GIVEN A DAY OFF IN LIEU

11. Where a worker, other than a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, works on a public holiday and his employer has not undertaken to allow him a day's holiday in lieu thereof within 14 days of the public holiday, he shall be paid—

(1) for the first 7 hours 30 minutes worked on the public holiday

(a) the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday; and in addition

(b) (i) in the case of a regular worker, the amount to which he would have been entitled had he been employed in the circumstances in which the weekly remuneration specified in Column 9 of the table in paragraph 4 would have been payable, and

(ii) in the case of a worker other than a regular worker, the amount to which he would have been entitled had he been employed in the circumstances in which the hourly rate specified in Column 9 of the table in paragraph 5 would have been payable;

(2) for all time worked in excess of 7 hours 30 minutes on the public holiday—double time.

PART II

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION ANNUAL HOLIDAY

12. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraphs 13, 14 and 15, an employer shall, between 1st March 1976 and 31st October 1976, and between 1st March and 31st October in each subsequent year, allow a holiday (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season (hereinafter referred to as "the qualifying period") was employed for any of the periods specified below, and the duration of the annual holiday shall be related to the period of the worker's employment during that 12 months as follows:—

Period of Employment	Duration of annual holiday for workers with a normal working week of—
	Six days	Five days	Four days	Three days or less
At least 4 weeks	2 days	1 day	1 day	1 day
" " 8 "	3 "	2 days	2 days	2 days
" " 12 "	5 "	4 "	3 "	3 "
" " 16 "	6 "	5 "	4 "	3 "
" " 20 "	7 "	6 "	5 "	4 "
" " 24 "	9 "	8 "	6 "	5 "
" " 28 "	11 "	10 "	7 "	6 "
" " 32 "	13 "	11 "	8 "	7 "
" " 36 "	15 "	13 "	9 "	8 "
" " 40 "	17 "	15 "	10 "	8 "
" " 44 "	18 "	16 "	11 "	9 "
" " 48 "	20 "	17 "	13 "	10 "

Provided that:—

(1) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in respect of a period of employment during the 12 months immediately preceding 1st March 1976 and during the 12 months immediately preceding 1st March in any succeeding year shall not exceed in the aggregate:—

(a) in the case of a worker whose normal working week is five days or more, three times the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, plus two days, and

(b) in the case of a worker whose normal working week is four days or less, three times the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, plus one day.

(2) in this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to the year 1976 the period commencing on 1st March 1976 and ending on 31st October 1976, and in each succeeding year, the period commencing on 1st March and ending on 31st October of the same year.

13. An annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that the weekly day of rest or a public holiday or a day of holiday in lieu of a public holiday intervenes:

Provided that—

(a) where a worker is entitled to more days of annual holiday than the number of days constituting his normal working week, but not more than twice that number, his annual holiday may be allowed in two separate periods of which one shall consist of at least the number of days constituting his normal working week, and

(b) where a worker is entitled to more days of annual holiday than twice the number of days constituting his normal working week his annual holiday may be allowed as follows:—

(i) as to the period comprising twice the number of days constituting his normal working week in accordance with (a) of this paragraph; and

(ii) as to any additional days, on working days which need not be consecutive, to be fixed by agreement between the employer and the worker or his representative on any working day or days in the holiday season or before the beginning of the next following holiday season.

AGREEMENT TO ALLOW ANNUAL HOLIDAY OUTSIDE THE HOLIDAY SEASON

14. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 12 and 13, where a worker elects to take his annual holiday, or part thereof, outside the holiday season and in pursuance of an agreement with his employer that the employer will allow such holiday at a given date after the end of the holiday season and before the commencement of the next following holiday season, the days of holiday so allowed shall for the purposes of this Schedule be treated as having been allowed during the holiday season.

15. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 12, the Council may vary the holiday season as there set out if they receive an application for that purpose from an employer and are satisfied that it is reasonable to do so to meet special circumstances. Such variation may provide for the commencement of the holiday season earlier than 1st March or its extension beyond 31st October. An application relating to the commencement of the holiday season shall be made to the Council not less than six weeks before the operative date and an application to extend the duration of the holiday season, before 1st July. Any such alteration in the holiday season shall not become effective until notice of the decision of the Council has been communicated to the employer concerned. In the case of any variation of the holiday season under this provision, the qualifying period in respect thereof shall be that stated in paragraph 12 and, accordingly, any accrued holiday remuneration becoming payable under the provisions of paragraph 20 shall be calculated by reference to the commencing date of the holiday season as varied.

16. An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date and duration of his annual holiday and such notice may be given individually to a worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where a worker is employed.

17.—(1) Where any day of annual holiday allowed to any worker under this Schedule falls upon a day of holiday or half-holiday to which the worker may be entitled under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act 1959, that holiday or half-holiday shall be treated as part of the holiday allowed under this Schedule.

(2) The revocation by this Order of Order L.N.R. (109), as amended, and the coming into effect of the provisions of this Schedule does not affect the right of a worker to be allowed, and to receive holiday remuneration for, any such days of annual holiday which his employer was required to allow him before 1st March 1976 pursuant to paragraph 10(b)(ii) of the Schedule to Order L.N.R. (109), as amended, (which relates to holidays allowed outside the holiday season).

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY

18. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 19, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer in respect thereof, on the last pay day preceding the holiday, one day's holiday pay (as defined in paragraph 22) in respect of each day thereof:

Provided that where under the provisions of paragraph 13 an annual holiday is allowed in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

19. Where under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (109), as amended, any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker prior to the allowance of an annual holiday in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of the said annual holiday under the provisions of paragraph 18 shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration in so far as it is attributable to any part of the period of employment in respect of which the said holiday has been allowed.

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

20. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and the provisions of paragraph 15, where a worker ceases to be employed by an employer after the provisions of this Schedule become effective, the employer shall immediately on the termination of the employment (hereinafter referred to as "the termination date") pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—

- (1) in respect of employment in the 12 months up to 1st March immediately preceding the termination date a sum equal to the holiday remuneration as calculated under paragraph 18 for any days of annual holiday for which he has qualified except days of annual holiday which he has been allowed or has become entitled to be allowed before leaving the employment; and
- (2) in respect of any employment since the last day of February immediately preceding the termination date a sum equal to the holiday remuneration as calculated under paragraph 18 which would have been payable to him if he could have been allowed an annual holiday in respect of that employment at the time of leaving it:

Provided that—

- (1) no worker shall be entitled to the payment by his employer of accrued holiday remuneration if—
 - (a) he is dismissed on any of the following grounds, that is to say—
 - (i) dishonesty, or
 - (ii) misconduct involving contravention of the licensing laws, or
 - (iii) gross industrial misconduct, and in each case is so informed by the employer at the time of dismissal; or
 - (b) he leaves his employment without having notified his employer, not less than one week before terminating his employment, of his intention to do so;
- (2) the amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable at the termination date shall be reduced by the amount of any sum paid by the employer to the worker—
 - (a) as accrued holiday remuneration under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (109), as amended, in so far as such sum is attributable to the period or periods for which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable;
 - (b) in respect of any day or days of holiday for which the worker has not qualified under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (109), as amended, and allowed during the period or periods in respect of which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

21. For the purpose of calculating any period of employment entitling a worker to an annual holiday or to any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule the worker shall be treated as having been employed:—

- (1) for a week in respect of any week in which he has worked for the employer for not less than 18 hours and has qualified for payment of statutory minimum remuneration ;
- (2) when absent from work in any of the following circumstances—
 - (a) during annual holiday, public holidays or days in lieu of public holidays;
 - (b) during proved sickness or accident up to and not exceeding 8 weeks in the aggregate during any such period as aforesaid ;
 - (c) by leave of the employer.

PART III GENERAL DEFINITIONS

22. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

“AREA A” means the Metropolitan Police District, the City of London, the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple.

“AREA B” means all areas other than those in Area A.

“CATERING UNDERTAKING” means any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which consists wholly or mainly in the carrying on (whether for profit or not) of one or more of the following activities, that is to say, the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption, the provision of living accommodation for guests or lodgers or for persons employed in the undertaking and any other activity so far as it is incidental or ancillary to any such activity as aforesaid of the undertaking.

“FULL BOARD” means not less than three meals per day of good and sufficient quality and quantity one of which shall be dinner.

“LICENSED NON-RESIDENTIAL ESTABLISHMENT” means:—

- (1) a public house, inn, hotel or other premises, being an establishment—
 - (a) at which it is lawful for intoxicating liquor to be sold for consumption on the premises or to be supplied for consumption on the premises by reason of the fact that part of the premises is habitually used for the purposes of a registered club; and
 - (b) which is not a residential establishment within the meaning of this Schedule;
- (2) a club—
 - (a) at which it is lawful for intoxicating liquor to be supplied for consumption on the premises; and
 - (b) which is not a residential establishment within the meaning of this Schedule;

but does not include—

- (i) any such establishment or club as aforesaid if the main activity there carried on consists of the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption at one or more of the following places, that is to say, a restaurant, dining room, café or similar place;
- (ii) any hostel or similar establishment provided by or by arrangement with an employer wholly or mainly for the purposes of accommodating persons employed by him.

“LODGING” means clean and adequate accommodation and facilities for eating, sleeping, washing and leisure and the laundering of such articles as may be provided by the employer for the use of the worker.

“MEAL” means a meal of good and sufficient quality and quantity.

“NORMAL WEEKLY HOURS OF WORK” means the number of hours which have been most frequently worked by the worker in a week in the employment of the employer in the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday or where under paragraph 20 accrued holiday remuneration is payable on the termination of the employment, in the 12 months immediately preceding the termination date.

“NORMAL WORKING WEEK” means the number of days on which the worker has most frequently worked in a week in the employment of the employer in the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday, or where under paragraph 20 accrued holiday remuneration is payable on the termination of the employment, in the 12 months immediately preceding the termination date:

Provided that—

- (1) part of a day shall count as a day;
- (2) no account shall be taken of any week in which the worker did not perform any work for which statutory minimum remuneration has been fixed.

“ONE DAY’S HOLIDAY PAY” means the appropriate proportion of the amount the worker would be entitled to receive from the employer under the arrangement current immediately before the holiday or immediately before the termination date, as the case may require, for one week’s work if he worked his normal weekly hours of work, exclusive of overtime, with the addition in the case of a worker who is normally supplied with full board, meals or lodging of the daily amount in the following table which is related to the benefit supplied and to the worker’s normal working week—

Benefit normally supplied by the employer to the worker	Weekly amount		Daily amount for worker with a normal working week of—
			Six days		Five days		Four days		Three days or less
	Area A	Area B	Area A	Area B	Area A	Area B	Area A	Area B	Area A	Area B
(a) Full board and lodging	£ 8·00	£ 7·00	£ 1·33	£ 1·17	£ 1·60	£ 1·40	£ 2·00	£ 1·75	£ 2·67	£ 2·33
(b) Two meals only a day and lodging	6·60	5·70	1·10	0·95	1·32	1·14	1·65	1·43	2·20	1·90
(c) One meal only a day and lodging	5·20	4·40	0·87	0·73	1·04	0·88	1·30	1·10	1·73	1·47
(d) Full board but no lodging	4·20	3·90	0·70	0·65	0·84	0·78	1·05	0·98	1·40	1·30
(e) Two meals only a day but no lodging	2·80	2·60	0·47	0·43	0·56	0·52	0·70	0·65	0·93	0·87
(f) One meal only a day but no lodging	1·40	1·30	0·23	0·22	0·28	0·26	0·35	0·33	0·47	0·43
(g) Lodging but with no meals supplied	3·80	3·10	0·63	0·52	0·76	0·62	0·95	0·78	1·27	1·03

and in this definition “appropriate proportion” means:—

where the worker’s normal working week is 6 days	one sixth
