1975 No. 2048

The Sex Discrimination (Questions and Replies) Order 1975

Citation and operation

1. This Order may be cited as the Sex Discrimination (Questions and Replies) Order 1975 and shall come into operation on 29th December 1975.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order “the Act” means the Sex Discrimination Act 1975.

(2) In this Order any reference to a court is a reference to a county court in England or Wales or a sheriff court in Scotland and any reference to a tribunal is a reference to an industrial tribunal.

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889 shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Forms for asking and answering questions

3. The forms respectively set out in Schedules 1 and 2 to this Order or forms to the like effect with such variation as the circumstances may require are, respectively, hereby prescribed as forms—

- (a) by which a person aggrieved may question a respondent as mentioned in subsection (1) (a) of section 74 of the Act;
- (b) by which a respondent may if he so wishes reply to such questions as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of that section.

Period for service of questions—court cases

4. In proceedings before a court, a question shall only be admissible as evidence in pursuance of section 74(2)(a) of the Act—

- (a) where it was served before those proceedings had been instituted, if it was so served during the period of six months beginning when the act complained of was done or, in a case to which section 66(5) of the Act applies, beginning when the restriction on the institution of proceedings imposed by that provision ceased to operate;
- (b) where it was served when those proceedings had been instituted, if it was served with the leave of, and within a period specified by, the court.

Period for service of questions—tribunal cases

5. In proceedings before a tribunal, a question shall only be admissible as evidence in pursuance of section 74(2)(a) of the Act—

- (a) where it was served before a complaint had been presented to a tribunal, if it was so served within the period of three months beginning when the act complained of was done;
- (b) where it was served when a complaint had been presented to a tribunal, either if it was so served within the period of twenty-one days beginning with the day on which the complaint
