LICENSING (LIQUOR)

The Aberdeen Airport (Exciseable Liquor) Order 1976

Made - - - - - 22nd April 1976

Coming into Operation 28th May 1976

Whereas it appears to the Secretary of State that Aberdeen Airport is an airport at which there is a substantial amount of international passenger traffic:

And whereas the Secretary of State is satisfied that arrangements have been made for affording reasonable facilities in licensed premises within the examination station approved for that airport under section 16 of the Customs and Excise Act 1952(a) for obtaining hot and cold beverages other than exciseable liquor at all times when exciseable liquor is obtainable on those premises:

Now therefore the Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by section 130 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1959(b) and now vested in him(c) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:

1. This Order may be cited as the Aberdeen Airport (Exciseable Liquor) Order 1976 and shall come into operation on 28th May 1976.
2. The Interpretation Act 1889(d) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
3. Section 130 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1959 is hereby brought into operation at Aberdeen Airport.

Derek Eagers,
An Under Secretary,
Department of Trade.

23rd April 1976.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

Section 130 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1959 provides that, at an international airport where that section is in operation, section 121 of that Act (which prohibits the sale of exciseable liquor except during permitted hours) shall not apply to licensed premises which are within the examination station approved for the airport under section 16 of the Customs and Excise Act 1952. This Order brings section 130 of the 1959 Act into operation at Aberdeen Airport.
