SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security Benefit (Persons Residing Together) Regulations 1977

Made	- - - -	1st June 1977
Laid before Parliament		2nd June 1977
Coming into Operation		27th June 1977

The Secretary of State for Social Services, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 22(1) of the Social Security (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1977, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Social Security Benefit (Persons Residing Together) Regulations 1977 and shall come into operation on 27th June 1977.

(2) In these regulations “the Act” means the Social Security Act 1975 and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) Any reference in these regulations to any provision made by or contained in any enactment or instrument shall be construed as a reference to that provision as amended or extended by any enactment or instrument and as including a reference to any provision which may re-enact or replace it, with or without modification.

(4) The rules for the construction of Acts of Parliament contained in the Interpretation Act 1889 shall apply in relation to this instrument and in relation to any revocation effected by it as if this instrument, the regulations revoked by it and any regulations revoked by the regulations so revoked were Acts of Parliament, and as if each revocation were a repeal.

Circumstances in which a person is to be treated as residing or not residing with another person or in which persons are to be treated as residing or not residing together

2.—(1) As respects any requirement of the Act, or contained in any provision made for the purposes thereof, any question as to whether—

- (a) a person is or was residing with another person; or
- (b) persons are residing together, shall be determined in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.
