1979 No. 597

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations 1979

Made - - - -	29th May 1979
Laid before Parliament	6th June 1979
Coming into Operation	29th June 1979

The Secretary of State for Social Services, in exercise of powers conferred by sections 83(1) and 85 of the Social Security Act 1975(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following regulations which only consolidate the regulations herein revoked and which accordingly by virtue of paragraph 20 of Schedule 15 to the Social Security Act 1975, are not subject to the requirement of section 139(1) of that Act for prior reference to the National Insurance Advisory Committee:

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Social Security (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations 1979 and shall come into operation on 29th June 1979.

Special provisions for widow's benefit and invalidity pension

3.–(1) This regulation applies where, apart from these regulations, there is payable for the same period to a person under pensionable age both–

- (a) a ►²long-term incapacity benefit◄; and
- (b) a widowed mother's allowance or widow's pension (hereafter referred to in this regulation as "the widow's benefit").

(2) The total amount payable in respect of these benefits under this regulation shall be–

- ³(a) an amount equal to either the basic rate of long-term incapacity benefit referred to in regulation 18(1)(a) of the Social Security (Incapacity Benefit) (Transitional) Regulations 1995 paid in a transitional case or an award of widow's basic pension calculated by reference to section 44(1) of the Contributions and Benefits Act or an amount equal to the greater of them◄; and
- (b) the sum of the ►⁴incapacity benefit payable at the additional rate in accordance with regulation 18(1)(b) of the Social Security (Incapacity Benefit) (Transitional) Regulations 1995 and widow's pension determined in accordance with section 44(3)(b) of the Contributions and Benefits Act◄ up to and not exceeding the maximum for the time being prescribed under section 9(3) of the Pensions Act.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4)–

- (a) where the beneficiary has made application, before the payment is made, that the total amount payable should be treated as being made up of the rate of the ►²long term incapacity benefit◄, any balance being the widow's benefit, it shall be so treated;
- (b) in any other case, that amount shall be treated as being made up of the rate of the widow's benefit, any balance being the ►²long-term incapacity benefit◄.

(4) For the purposes of the remainder of these regulations (other than regulation 6(5)), which shall apply after adjustment has been made under this regulation, the total amount payable under this regulation shall be treated as a single long-term benefit payable on a weekly basis.

►⁵Adjustment of personal benefit under Parts II and III of the Contributions and Benefits Act where other personal benefit under those Parts or graduated retirement benefit is payable◄

4.—►⁶(1) Subject to paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) and regulations 12, an adjustment shall be made in accordance with paragraph (5) where either–

- (a) two or more personal benefits (whether of the same or a different description) are, or but for this regulation would be, payable under Parts II and III of the Contributions and Benefits Act (which relate to benefits other than industrial injuries benefits)►⁷, Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act►⁸, Part 1 of the Pensions

Reg. 4

- Act 2014◀◀▶¹or under the Jobseekers Act◀ for any period; or
- (b) graduated retirement benefit is payable under sections 36 and 37 of the National Insurance Act 1965(a) together with one or more personal benefits (whether of the same or a different description) which are, or but for this regulation would be, payable under Parts II and III of the Contributions and Benefits Act for any period.◀
- (2) Paragraph (1) shall not require the adjustment of, or by reference to—
- a death grant;
 - a maternity grant;
 - any other sum paid otherwise than in respect of a period;
 - an earnings-related supplement or earnings-related addition to any benefit (except as provided by regulation 5 and in the case of ▶²severe disablement allowance◀ or ▶³carer's allowance◀);
 - an attendance allowance;
 - ▶⁴additional pension◀ or graduated retirement benefit (except as provided by paragraph (4) ▶⁵and (4A)◀);
 - ▶⁶disability living allowance◀.
- ▶⁷(2A) Paragraph (1) shall not require an adjustment of widow's pension reduced in accordance with section 39(4) of the Contributions and Benefits Act only by reference to long-term incapacity benefit calculated in accordance with section 40(5)(b) of that Act.◀
- (3) Paragraph (1) shall require an adjustment of age addition only by reference to another age addition.
- (4) ▶⁵Except where paragraph (4A) applies,◀ where there are payable 2 or more personal benefits to which this regulation applies with which ▶⁸additional pension◀ or graduated retirement benefit is payable as part of the rate of benefit or as an increase of benefit, or, in a case where the person entitled to receive the benefits is over pensionable age and one or more of the benefits includes either ▶⁸additional pension◀ or graduated retirement benefit while another of the benefits is payable at the rate referred to in section 14(6) or 15(4) of the Act, then the following provisions shall apply—
- for the purposes of adjustment falling to be made under paragraph (5) that ▶⁸additional pension◀ or graduated retirement benefit shall be treated as part of the personal benefit with which it is so payable;
 - the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) shall apply before any further adjustment under these regulations; and
 - for the purpose of any such further adjustment, the beneficiary shall be treated as having a single long-term benefit inclusive of whichever before adjustment under sub-paragraph (a) is the highest of the following amounts—
 - the highest ▶⁸additional pension◀ payable, or
 - the highest graduated retirement benefit payable, or
 - the highest total of ▶⁸additional pension◀ and graduated retirement benefit payable together as part of the rate of and as an increase of any of those personal benefits.
- ▶⁵(4A) Where the person is entitled to additional pension, a state pension under Part 1 of the Pensions Act 2014 and either widow's pension or widowed mother's allowance, paragraph (1) shall require the adjustments of additional pension.◀
- (5) Where an adjustment falls to be made in accordance with this paragraph and—
- one of the benefits is a contributory benefit and one is a non-contributory benefit, the non-contributory benefit shall be adjusted by deducting from it the amount of the contributory benefit and only the balance, if any, shall be payable.
 - sub-paragraph (a) above does not apply, if one of the benefits is payable on a weekly basis—
 - where the beneficiary has made application, before the payment is made, to have the benefit payable on a weekly basis adjusted, it shall be adjusted by deducting from it the amount of the other benefit and only the balance of it, if any, shall be payable.

Regs. 4–6

- (ii) in any other case, the benefit not payable on a weekly basis shall be adjusted by deducting from it the amount of the other benefit and only the balance of it, if any, shall be payable;
- (c) sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) above do not apply, the amount payable in respect of the benefits in question shall be an amount equal to that which would but for this provision be payable in respect of—
 - (i) one of them, if they would have been payable at the same rate, or
 - (ii) the higher or highest of them, if they would have been payable at different rates, so however that in a case where more than 2 benefits would be payable then the total amount payable shall not exceed the amount which would be ascertained under sub-paragraph (c).

¹Para. (6) added to reg. 4 by reg. 4 of S.I. 1996/3207 with effect from 6.1.97.

►¹(6) For the purposes of this regulation—

“additional pension” means a pension payable with a personal benefit under Part II of the Contributions and Benefits Act or an additional rate; and

“additional rate” means an additional amount equal to the rate paid or payable as an additional pension with invalidity benefit immediately before 13th April 1995 which is payable after that date pursuant to regulation 18 of the Social Security (Incapacity Benefit) (Transitional) Regulations 1995(a).◄

Special provisions for earnings-related supplements and earnings-related addition to widow’s allowance

5.—(1) Where 2 or more earnings-related supplements to any benefits under the Act would apart from this regulation be payable for the same period, for the purposes of regulation 4(1) each such supplement shall be treated as part of the benefit it supplements.

(2) Where an earnings-related addition to widow’s allowance would apart from this regulation be payable for the same period as any other benefit under the Act which is calculated whether wholly or in part by reference to the contributions of a husband who has died, that other benefit shall be adjusted by deducting from it the amount of the earnings-related addition, provided that where the widow is also entitled for the same period to graduated retirement benefit or ►²additional pension◄, or both of them, by virtue of her own contributions and the contributions of the husband who has died, the graduated retirement benefit or ►²additional pension◄ to be adjusted shall be only that part which is payable by virtue of the contributions of the husband who has died.

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not apply where apart from this regulation a widow’s allowance would be payable for the same period as 2 or more other benefits under the Act; in such a case the earnings-related supplement to any of those other benefits shall be adjusted so that only the higher or highest of them is payable.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2), ►²additional pension◄ or graduated retirement benefit, where it is, or but for this regulation would be, payable as part of the rate of or as an increase of another personal benefit, shall be treated as part of the personal benefit with which it is so payable.

Adjustments of personal benefit under Chapters I and II of Part II of the Act by reference to industrial injuries benefits and benefits not under the Act, and adjustments of industrial injuries benefits

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5) and regulation 12, where a personal benefit which is specified in column (1) of Schedule 1 to these regulations (“the column (1) benefit” is, or but for this regulation would be payable to a person for the same period as a personal benefit which is specified in the corresponding paragraph of column (2) of the Schedule (“the column (2) benefit”) the column (1) benefit shall be adjusted by deducting from it the amount of the column (2) benefit and, subject to any further adjustment under regulation 4, only the balance, if any, shall be payable.

(2) Any reference in paragraph (1), or in Schedule 1 to these regulations, to a benefit, other than a training allowance, does not include an earnings-related supplement or earnings-related addition to it.

(a) S.I. 1995/310. Regulation 18 was amended by S.I. 1995/987 and 1996/599.

Regs. 6-7

►¹(3) Paragraph (1) and Schedule 1 have effect in relation to—

(a) the following allowances and payments—

(i) an attendance allowance

(ii) the care component of disability living allowance; and

(iii) the daily living component of personal independence payment; ►²◄

►²(iv) armed forces independence payment up to the value of the daily living component of personal independence payment at the enhanced rate; and◄

(b) any benefit by reference to which an allowance or payment under paragraph (a) above is to be adjusted;

as requiring adjustment where both that allowance or payment and the benefit are payable in respect of the same person (whether or not one or both of them are payable to that person).◄

(4) Paragraph (1) and Schedule 1 to these regulations shall not require the adjustment of, or by reference to, ►³additional pension◄ or graduated retirement benefit.

(5) Where—

(a) the column (2) benefit is industrial death benefit or war pension death benefit in either case payable to the beneficiary as the surviving spouse, ►⁴or civil partner◄ and

(b) the column (1) benefit is Category A retirement pension ►⁵◄ which—

(i) ►⁶◄

(ii) has a ►⁷basic pension◄ by virtue of the beneficiary's own contributions (but not by virtue of those of a former spouse ►⁴or civil partner◄) which consists of either the rate specified in section 6(1)(a) of the Pensions Act or some percentage of that rate prescribed by regulations made under section 33(2) of the Act, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall not reduce that Column (1) benefit to less than the appropriate rate in sub-paragraph (b)(ii), together with, if any, increments payable under paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Pensions Act and increase under section 28(7) of the Act.

Adjustment of dependency benefit in respect of a child where other dependency benefit is payable for that child

7.—(1) Subject to regulation 12, where dependency benefit under the Act is payable, or but for this regulation would be payable, to any person in respect of a child and any other dependency benefit specified in paragraph (2) is payable to that or any other person in respect of that child for the same period, an adjustment shall be made in accordance with regulation 4(5) so however that where one of the dependency benefits is death benefit under section 70 by way of an allowance, or is a guardian's allowance under section 38 (the other dependency benefit not being benefit under either the said section 38 or 70) the adjustment shall be made in accordance with paragraph (4) of this regulation.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), the other dependency benefit referred to in paragraph (1) is any dependency benefit under—

(a) the Act;

(b) any Personal Injuries Scheme, Service Pensions Instrument or 1914-1918 War Injuries Scheme;

(c) any Pneumoconiosis and Byssinosis Benefit Scheme;

(d) any scheme, being a benefit by way of training allowance.

(3) Sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) does not include an allowance payable for the purpose of the child's education and for the purposes of that sub-paragraph—

(a) any personal benefit by way of a pension payable to a child shall be treated as a dependency benefit payable to another person in respect of that child;

(b) any dependency benefit payable as part of a disablement pension shall be disregarded unless it is payable as an increase of an unemployment supplement.

⁶Reg. 14(2) deleted by reg. 22(5)(c) of S.I. 1996/1345 as from 7.10.96.

14.—(1) Where an adjustment falls to be made under these regulations for a part of a week, any benefit (whether under the Act or otherwise) which is not payable for that week at a daily rate equal to one-sixth of the appropriate weekly rate for each day of the week except Sunday, shall be deemed to be so payable.

(2) Where the benefit in question is unemployment benefit, sickness benefit, invalidity benefit or severe disablement allowance and the beneficiary is a person in whose case the day to be disregarded in accordance with regulations made under section 17(1)(e) is a day other than Sunday, the reference in paragraph (1) to Sunday shall be construed as a reference to that other day.

(3) In paragraph (1) "appropriate weekly rate" means the weekly rate at which the benefit in question would be payable but for these regulations.

Priority between persons entitled to increase of benefit

15.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (5) and (6), the following provisions shall apply for the purpose of determining priority as between two persons entitled to an increase of benefit under the Act in respect of a third person.

(2) Where, but for the provisions of this paragraph, a man and his wife would both be entitled to an increase of retirement pension (being an increase of Category A or Category C retirement pension in his case and a Category B or Category C retirement pension in hers) in respect of the same child or children, that man shall, and his wife shall not, be entitled to the increase; and he shall be treated as so entitled for the purposes of this paragraph during any period for which he would be entitled but for the operation of any provision of the Act, with the exception of section 82(5)(b) (disqualification while undergoing imprisonment or detention), disqualifying him for the receipt of benefit.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (2), (5) and (6), where, but for the provisions of this paragraph, more than one person would be entitled to an increase of benefit in respect of the same child for the same period—

- (a) in a case where one of those persons has been awarded child benefit in respect of the child for that period, that one of them shall be entitled to the said increase;
- (b) in the case where sub-paragraph (a) does not apply but where one of those persons is entitled otherwise than by virtue of regulations made under Schedule 20 to the Act to child benefit in respect of the child for that period, that one of them shall be entitled to the said increase;
- (c) in a case where neither sub-paragraph (a) nor sub-paragraph (b) applies but where the child is living with one and no other of those persons for that period, that one of them with whom the child is living shall be entitled to the said increase;
- (d) in a case where none of the preceding sub-paragraphs applies but where one of those persons is a parent of the child, that one of them shall be entitled to the said increase.

(4) Subject to paragraphs (5) and (6), where, but for the provisions of this paragraph, more than one person would be entitled to an increase of benefit in respect of an adult dependant for the same period—

- (a) in a case where one of those persons is the spouse ¹or civil partner¹ of the adult dependant that one of them shall be entitled to the said increase;
- (b) in a case where sub-paragraph (a) above does not apply that one of them with whom the adult dependant is residing shall be entitled to the said increase.

(5) Nothing in paragraphs (3) and (4) shall prevent a written notice signed by one or, as the case may be, a majority of the said persons designating another of them as the person to be entitled to the increase, being sent to the Secretary of State; so however that such notice shall not be effective to confer entitlement to an increase in respect of any period for which such increase has already been paid to someone other than the person so designated.

(6) Nothing in paragraphs (3) and (4) shall prevent a person who, in accordance with any of those paragraphs, is not entitled to an increase from being paid an amount equivalent to the amount, if any, by which the increase which would otherwise have been paid to such person exceeds the increase payable to the person entitled by virtue of any of the said paragraphs.

Persons to be treated as entitled to benefit for certain purposes

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

The Regulations contain provisions relating to adjustment of benefits under the Social Security Act 1975 by reference to other benefits payable for the same period.

The principal matters dealt with are adjustment of personal benefit under Chapters I, II and IV of Part II of the Act (regulations 4 and 6), earnings-related supplement (regulation 5) and dependency benefit (regulations 7 to 11). The regulations also contain miscellaneous provisions incidental to those matters.
