EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

Subject to certain conditions section 6 of the Administration of Justice (Pensions) Act 1950 permits the payment of a children's pension under that Act to continue after the child reaches the age of 16 if the child is undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation. One of the conditions is that the emoluments received during training, excluding the return of any premiums, do not exceed a financial limit fixed at £694 a year by the Superannuation (Children's Pensions) (Earnings Limit) (No. 2) Order 1979. This Order revokes that Order and increases the limit on such emoluments from £694 to £808 a year.
