PROBATION AND AFTER-CARE

The Combined Probation and After-Care Areas (Powys)
Order 1981

Made - - - - 10th March 1981

Coming into operation in accordance with Article 1

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section 54(4) of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to, the Powers of Criminal Courts Act 1973^(a) (as extended by Article 3 of the Combined Probation and After-Care Areas Order 1974^(b)) and after the consultation required by that paragraph, I hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Combined Probation and After-Care Areas (Powys) Order 1981 and shall come into operation on 1st April 1981, except that for the purpose of taking any decision under Article 3 below to have effect from 1st April 1981 this Order shall come into operation forthwith.

2. That part of Schedule 2 to the Combined Probation and After-Care Areas Order 1974^(c) which relates to the Powys Probation and After-Care Committee shall be amended by omitting the entries in respect of the petty sessions areas of Colwyn, Knighton, Mathrafal, Montgomery and Painscastle.

3.—(1) The members of the Powys Probation and After-Care Committee (hereafter referred to as “the Committee”) appointed by the justices for the petty sessional divisions of Builth, Colwyn and Painscastle before those divisions were combined to form a new division known as the Builth division shall decide by agreement, or in default of agreement by lot, which one of them shall continue to hold office as if he had been appointed by the justices for that new division.

(2) The members of the Committee appointed by the justices for the petty sessional divisions of East Radnor and Knighton before those divisions were combined to form a new division known as the East Radnor division shall decide by agreement, or in default of agreement by lot, which one of them shall continue to hold office as if he had been appointed by the justices for that new division.

^(a) 1973 c.62.

^(b) S.I.1974/529.

^(c) The relevant amending instruments are S.I.1975/1994; 1977/1672.

(3) The members of the Committee appointed by the justices for the petty sessional divisions of Mathrafal and Welshpool before those divisions were combined to form a new division known as the Welshpool division shall decide by agreement, or in default of agreement by lot, which one of them shall continue to hold office as if he had been appointed by the justices for that new division.

(4) The members of the Committee appointed by the justices for the petty sessional divisions of Montgomery and Newtown before those divisions were combined to form a new division known as the Newtown division shall decide by agreement, or in default of agreement by lot, which one of them shall continue to hold office as if he had been appointed by the justices for that new division.

W. S. I. Whitelaw,
One of Her Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

Home Office.
10th March 1981.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order amends the Combined Probation and After-Care Areas Order 1974 to take account of the combination of the petty sessional divisions of Builth, Colwyn and Painscastle in the new petty sessional division of Builth, the combination of the petty sessional divisions of East Radnor and Knighton in the new petty sessional division of East Radnor, the combination of the petty sessional divisions of Mathrafal and Welshpool in the new petty sessional division of Welshpool and the combination of the petty sessional divisions of Montgomery and Newtown in the new petty sessional division of Newtown, effected by the Petty Sessional Divisions (Powys) Order 1981 (S.I.1981/389) which comes into operation on 1st April 1981.
