The Social Security (Severe Disablement Allowance) Regulations 1984

PART I

GENERAL

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Social Security (Severe Disablement Allowance) Regulations 1984 and shall come into operation in the case of regulations 1, 2, 10, 17, 18 and 19 on 10th September 1984, and in the case of the remainder of the regulations on 29th November 1984.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these regulations “the Act” means the Social Security Act 1975,^{F1} ... “the 1984 Act” means the Health and Social Security Act 1984 [^{F2}and “the Contributions and Benefits Act” means the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992].

[^{F3}(1A) In these Regulations—

“councillor” has the same meaning as in section 171F(2) of the Contributions and Benefits Act; and

“councillor’s allowance” has the same meaning as in section 30E(2) of the Contributions and Benefits Act.]

[^{F4}(1B) In these Regulations “disability appeal tribunal” means a tribunal constituted in accordance with Schedule 10A to the Act.]

[^{F5}(1C) In these Regulations—

“voluntary body” means a body the activities of which are carried out otherwise than for the purpose of profit; and

“volunteer” means a person who is engaged in voluntary work with a charity or voluntary body, or who is engaged in voluntary work otherwise than for a member of his family, where the only payment received by him or due to be paid to him by virtue of being so engaged, is a payment in respect of any expenses reasonably incurred by him in the course of being so engaged.]

(2) Any reference in these regulations to a person's father, mother, son, or daughter includes a reference to his step-father, step-mother, step-son or step-daughter, as the case may be, and a person shall be treated as such a relative if he would be such a relative if some person born illegitimate had been born legitimate.

[^{F6}(3) In determining whether a day falls within a period of incapacity for work, the provisions of section 30C of the Contributions and Benefits Act (incapacity benefit: days and periods of incapacity for work) and of any regulations made under section 30C(3) and (4) shall have effect for the purposes of severe disablement allowance as they have effect for the purposes of incapacity benefit.]

into force generally in relation to him of the provisions referred to in that paragraph, as if for each reference to 29th November 1984 there were substituted a reference to the day so appointed.

Persons formerly entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension

20.—(1) Any person who, immediately before both 10th September 1984 and 29th November 1984 was entitled to a non-contributory invalidity pension shall be entitled for 29th November 1984, and for any subsequent days which together with 29th November 1984 fall within a single [^{F49}period of incapacity for work], to a severe disablement allowance whether or not—

- (a) he is disabled for the purposes of section 36 of the Act, or
- (b) 29th November 1984 is appointed for the purposes of section 11 of the 1984 Act in relation to persons of his age, if he satisfies the other requirements for entitlement to such an allowance.

[^{F50}(1A) A woman who—

- (a) would have been entitled to a non-contributory invalidity pension immediately before 29th November 1984, but for the requirement that she be incapable of performing normal household duties (whether or not she made a claim for that pension), and
- (b) has been continuously incapable of work since that date, shall be entitled to a severe disablement allowance, whether or not she is disabled for the purposes of section 68 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 and whether or not she has attained the age referred to in subsection (4)(d) of that section, if she satisfies the other requirements for entitlement to that allowance.]

(2) If in the case of any person a day and an earlier day for which he was entitled to a non-contributory invalidity pension fall within a single [^{F51}period of incapacity for work]—

- (a) for the purposes of section 36 of the Act he shall be deemed to be disabled on the day first-mentioned whether or not he is suffering from such loss of faculty as is specified in subsection (5) of that section; and
- (b) the condition in section 79(1) of the Act (benefit must be duly claimed) shall be deemed to be satisfied for the purposes of his right to a severe disablement allowance for the day first-mentioned if, but for the passing of the 1984 Act, that condition would have been satisfied for the purposes of his right to a non-contributory invalidity pension for that day.

(3) A person who was entitled to a non-contributory invalidity pension immediately before attaining [^{F52}the age of 65] shall be treated for the purposes of regulation 5 as having been entitled to a severe disablement allowance immediately before attaining that age.

(4) A person who was entitled to a non-contributory invalidity pension for any day before 29th November 1984 shall be treated for the purposes of regulation 6 as having been entitled to a severe disablement allowance for that day.
