EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Order designates the following countries, namely Austria and Japan, within paragraph (b) of the definition of “exchangeable licence” in section 110(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1972. The effect of the Order is that licences issued by the competent authorities of those countries will be exchangeable for an equivalent licence without a driving test under Part III of that Act if the holders satisfy the requirements of that part of that Act for the grant of a licence in exchange.
