The Insolvency (Scotland) Rules 1986

PART I

COMPANY VOLUNTARY ARRANGEMENTS

CHAPTER 5

MEETINGS

Attendance by company officers

1.15.—(1) At least 14 days' notice to attend the meetings shall be given by the convenor to -

- (a) all directors of the company, and
- (b) any persons in whose case the convenor thinks that their presence is required as being officers of the company or as having been directors or officers of it at any time in the 2 years immediately preceding the date of the notice.

(2) The chairman may, if he thinks fit, exclude any present or former director or officer from attendance at a meeting, either completely or for any part of it; and this applies whether or not a notice under this Rule has been sent to the person excluded.
