The Insolvency (Scotland) Rules 1986

PART 4

WINDING UP BY THE COURT

CHAPTER 13

COMPANY WITH PROHIBITED NAME

Application for leave under section 216(3)

4.79. When considering an application for leave under section 216, the court may call on the liquidator, or any former liquidator, of the liquidating company for a report of the circumstances in which that company became insolvent, and the extent (if any) of the applicant's apparent responsibility for its doing so.
