The Local Government Superannuation Regulations 1986

PART E

BENEFITS

Children's special short-term pension

E10.—(1) If at the time of his death a man was in a local government employment and—

- (a) the total of his reckonable service and any qualifying service is less than 5 years, and
- (b) he leaves one or more eligible children, and
- (c) any such child is in the care of a guardian,

a children's special short-term pension at an annual rate equal to the deceased's pensionable remuneration is payable to the guardian.

(2) In this regulation “guardian” means a person who is not entitled in respect of the deceased to either—

- (a) a widow's special short-term pension by virtue of regulation E7, or
- (b) a widow's short-term pension and a widow's long-term pension by virtue of regulation E5(1)(c)(ii).

(3) Where the deceased left a widow who is entitled as mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) or (b)—

- (a) if there is no eligible child in the widow's care, the pension is payable to the guardian—
 - (i) for 1½ months after the death if there is one eligible child in the care of the guardian, and
 - (ii) for 3 months after the death if there are two or more eligible children in the care of the guardian, and
- (b) if there is an eligible child in the widow's care, the pension is payable to the guardian for 1½ months after the death.

(4) Where the deceased did not leave a widow who is entitled as mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) or (b), the pension is payable to the guardian—

- (a) for 2 months after the death if there is one eligible child in the care of the guardian, and
- (b) for 4 months after the death if there are two or more eligible children in the care of the guardian.
